Boots and Spurs

Last Friday, with the aid of the FFA Rhythm Ramblers, Kenny Leppinger and Wes Cameron put on one of the fastest moving fun nights of the year. Among the individual prize winners were Ann Woodmansee, Jean Smith, Charleen Woods and of course that number two team.

Next Friday's fun night will have the Bert Kars of the Lazy Maple Ranch at Lyons and the Tony Mindens of Sublimity as sponsors.

LYONS — Mrs. Alice Huber and Mrs. Bressler were hostesses for a meeting at the community club house to make plans for reorganizing the Lyons Woman's club. A general discussion was held with many different objects suggested. A garden club was the most favored and an invitation has been sent to Mrs. Nina Westenhoe of Scio asking her to come for the next meeting Thursday afternoon, March 23, to give a talk on the ways and means of organizing a garden club.

To prepare oysters for broiling roll them in a mixture of lemon juice, melted butter or margarine, salt and cayenne pepper, then in fine cracker crumbs.

President Andy Ogle called the second meeting of the Oregon Rodeo association to order promptly at 2 o'clock last Sunday at the Saddle club headquarters. During the meeting an emblem was decided on, the size of the prize money for each event, what membership fees to show would be and the point system as used by the R.C.A. was also agreed upon. The next meeting will be held in the same club room on March 19 at 2 o'clock.

There are about 40 members at present in the organization and where a show is sponsored by the O.R.A., the spectators are assured of a good fast show and the money won in prizes goes to fellows living in the state, and it is also spent in Oregon.

The reason Jimmy Allen hasn't been helping his dad lately is that he has the mumps. By the end of the week this should only be a memory. Last Wednesday night, Glen Conklin started the drill team out on their first practice. With the enthusiasm shown the problem will be one of cutting down on the number rather than to encourage others to come in. Thirty-three were present.
