12 Girls Plan Party For Saturday

A St. Patrick's day party has been arranged for Saturday evening by a group of 12 girls, six from Parrish junior high and six from Leslie. The party will be at the Lions den between 7:30 and 11 o'clock.

Hostesses for the event are Evelyn Lobold, Sharon Campbell, Anna Mae Lockenour, Sally Greig, Beverly Johns and Judy Foreman, all of Parrish; and Barbara Franzwa, Joan Neal, Claudia Waters, Clarice Waters, Violet Clark and Marcia Maple from Leslie.

Patrons for the evening are Mr. and Mrs. Vincent C. Neal, Mrs. Ruby Clark and Victor Meiers, and a number of the parents also will attend.

WILLAMINA — Miss Carol Ruth Stam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Janwell B. Stam of Milwaukie, Wisc., and John Cavin Hampton, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hampton of Tacoma, were married at a simple ceremony Saturday, February 25 in the chapel of the Trinity Episcopal church in Portland, Dr. Lansing L. Kempton officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin dress made with a full train, and a headdress of lace and satin, holding in place the full illusion veil. The bride carried a bouquet of mixed white flowers centered with orchids.

Mrs. George B. Campbell was matron of honor, and Mrs. Ronald M. Getty was another attendant. Both are sisters of the bride. Charles M. Hampton was best man for his brother and ushers were Thomas Roeder and Dale O. Murray.

Following the reception in the Portland University club, the couple left for a wedding trip to Sun Valley.

The Hampton family is well known here.

WALLACE ROAD—Mrs. Louise Flack has been added to the supper committee for the March meeting of Willamette Lodge Country club Saturday night as one of the members is ill. Other members of the supper committee are Mr. and Mrs. James S. Smart and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Stuart.

SILVERTON — Eleven members of Delbert Reeves unit No. 7 spent Thursday at the rural home of the A. J. McCannells, sewing for the Portland hospital. A no-host luncheon was served at noon.

Four Salem Girls In Group at UO

University of Oregon, Eugene (Special)—Four students from Salem were among the 75 women invited to membership in the Women's Athletic association on the University of Oregon campus. They are: Miss Ann Carson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Carson, 785 South Commercial; Miss Joanne Fitzmaurice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Fitzmaurice, route 4; Miss Alice Louise Ohling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill D. Ohling, 2065 South High street, and Miss Ruth Watts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Watts, 1011 Elm street. Membership checks were earned by participation in intramural basketball, swimming, or in activities of one of the four WAA groups: Amphibians, Orchesis, the Hockey, or Outing clubs.

Miss Carson and Miss Ohling are freshman majors in liberal arts, Miss Fitzmaurice is a junior major in mathematics, and Miss Watts is a sophomore major in English.

Mrs. Chandlee Is Speaker for Club

Dallas — Outstanding accomplishments of women's clubs in Oregon were outlined in a talk by Mrs. William B. Chandlee of Hillsboro, state president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, at the annual Dallas Woman's club luncheon honoring the state president and local past presidents, at the Chamber of Commerce rooms Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Chandlee extended an invitation to the Dallas club to attend the convention honoring the 50th anniversary of the federation in Portland in April. Mrs. Chandlee, principal speaker of the afternoon, was introduced by Mrs. Robert S. Krasoun, mistress of ceremonies.

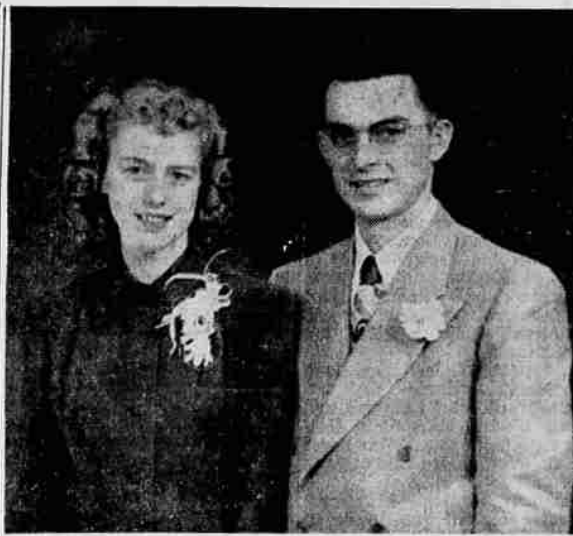

Mrs. George T. Gerlinger of Portland, an honored guest, who was the organizer and first president of the Dallas club and has retained a continuous membership in the club since 1911, sketched early club activities locally and commended the local group on its sustained success and its cooperation with state and national federated groups. Mrs. Lillian Bilyeu, a state past president as well as local past president, introduced Mrs. Gerlinger.

Miss Lottie C. Keane of Portland, scholarship loan and fellowship chairman for the Oregon federation, emphasized the importance of friendly relations with South American neighbors in a brief talk before introducing another speaker of the afternoon, Miss Anna Ferrari of Panama, Women's club exchange student now attending the University of Oregon. Miss Ferrari expressed appreciation of the exchange student system and told of educational requirements and customs of Panama.

Guest speakers, local past presidents and the present president, Mrs. Kenneth Jacobson, were all presented with corsages.

The musical portion of the program included instrumental music by Mrs. Art Quirin.

Arrangements of daffodils, daphne and pussy willows decorated the rooms and centered the luncheon tables. Mrs. Cecil Mecker was general chairman of the event. The hostess committee included Mrs. C. T. Smith, Mrs. William Young, Mrs. Claude Hoisington, Mrs. A. M. Larsen, Mrs. Robert LeFors and Mrs. Hollis Smith.

Wed in February—Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hampton, Newberg, were married February 25 at Vancouver. The bride is the former Linda Putman and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Putman of Dayton, the bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Hampton of Lafayette. The couple are at home in Newberg. (Ledbetter studios, McMinnville)

Scout Event On Saturday

Girl Scouts from all troops in the Salem district are looking forward to the big birthday party which is to be staged Saturday morning, March 11, between 10 to 12 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium over Bishop's. The affair is in honor of the national Girl Scout birthday March 12, marking the date when the organization was started 38 years ago.

In addition to the girls of the Salem district, Girl Scouts and leaders from other towns of the Santiam area are expected as visitors. Representatives of the Community Chest and Mrs. Edwin Fortmiller, of Albany, chairman of the Santiam Area Girl Scout board, as well as all members of the board have been invited as special guests. Miss Lucy McAfee, executive director of the Santiam Area Girl Scouts will also attend the party.

In order to avoid traffic congestion and for the sake of safety there will be a loading zone space reserved in front of the Chamber of Commerce entrance on Liberty street with Boy Scouts acting as a traffic patrol. Girl Scout troop 4 will be the hostess group, directing the girls where to go and to take care of out-of-town visitors.

The program is to include the flag ceremony, Juliette Low contributions from the various troops, movies of camp life, songs, and the crowning of Miss Cookie and Miss Brownie Cookie, the girls who sold the most cookies in the Salem district during the recent cookie sale. A special feature will be entertainment by Dorothy DePeel from Silverton. Cake and ice cream will complete the party.

"Girl Scout Magic" is the title of the radio play to be presented over station KSLM, Salem, in honor of the Girl Scout birthday, by members of troop 101 from Oakdale school in Polk county. The program will be broadcast Saturday afternoon at 3:30, March 11. Members of the cast will be Delpha Cook Diane Overholser, Betty Jean Lewis, Vera Richter, Betty Befune, Denys Overholser, Bobby Jim Bristow, George Ann Fairchild. The troop leader is Mrs. Janet Overholser.

Troop 101 is a little over a year old and is one of the smallest and most remotely located troops in the Santiam area. They are extremely active scouts, and besides their program in dramatics leading up to the presentation of "Girl Scout Magic" they have carried on an extensive "backyard camping program."

The girls have averaged five to six nights camping out since the troop was organized.

Mrs. Taylor Is Hostess

Hostess this afternoon at a luncheon and bridge party was Mrs. Milo Taylor, the affair being given at Chuck's Steak House.

An arrangement of spring flowers in various colors centered the table. Places were marked for Mrs. Loren Lewis, Mrs. Lee Thomas, Mrs. P. C. Anderson, Mrs. Charles Shaw, Mrs. James L. Payne, Mrs. E. J. Hagen, Mrs. Harold O. Schneider, Mrs. Harmon Harvey, Mrs. Sam C. Campbell, Mrs. Willis Clark, Mrs. Jacob Foss, Mrs. Arthur Erickson and Mrs. Taylor.

Couple Wed For 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Warren are to be honored on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary at an open house planned for Saturday at their residence at Turner. Friends are invited to call between 2 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon and between 8 and 10 o'clock in the evening.

Hostesses for the reception will be Mrs. Harold Nelson and the couple's daughters, Mrs. Ed Holmquist and Mrs. Lewis Judson, Jr.

Greeting guests at the door will be Mrs. Judson and Mrs. Nelson. Serving the cake will be Mrs. Holmquist and pouring will be Mrs. Robert Reich of San Francisco and Mrs. Martha Warren. Assisting with the serving will be Mrs. Gilbert Carey, Miss Sally Klein, Mrs. Richard Warren; and in the evening, Mrs. Jack Sphoon and Miss Edlyn Holmquist. Miss Lois Holmquist is to pass the guest book and in charge of gifts will be Mrs. M. Crouser.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren were married in Nebraska 10 years ago and have lived in Turner the past 10 years.

Miss Weinman Wins with Talk

At the meeting of Salem Toast-mistress club last evening, Miss Constance Weinman won the Oscar for her talk on "Machines Are Simple." Others giving talks were Miss Brenda Glass, Mrs. Sue Booth, Mrs. W. P. Hillpot and Mrs. Roy Lockenour.

Mrs. Lyle Bayne was general evaluator and Mrs. J. H. Lucas the lexicologist. Mrs. Mabel Hayles had charge of table topics on St. Patrick. The tables were decorated with ship of the desert trees and Scotch heather.

For their next event club members will put on a speech contest.

IN CORVALLIS today to take in events in conjunction with the 60th anniversary for the school of home economics at Oregon State college are Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Mrs. Lester Pearline, Mrs. Mildred Linville Peterson and Mrs. Ethel Linville Weeks. They attended the luncheon at noon today and will be at the banquet this evening. The program is a two-day celebration with another luncheon slated Saturday noon.

INVITATIONS have been received for the marriage of Miss Shirlee Marie Reimann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo D. Reimann, to William Howard Green, son of Lester M. Green of Portland, formerly of Eugene. The wedding is planned for 8 p.m. Friday, March 24, the ceremony to be in the First Baptist church with a reception in the church parlors following.

Campus Clippings

By GERI BOWLES

Everyone on the campus is waiting eagerly for Saturday evening when the Varsity Queen for 1950, as selected by Willamette Lettermen, will be announced during intermission time at the social event of the year, the annual Letterman ball. Roy Harrington, MC for the coronation, will introduce last year's queen, Virginia Wilson, who will place a crown of flowers on the curls of her successor. Just who of the court, comprised of Muriel Boney, Shirley Griffin, Marie Corner, Del Fisher and Dona Mears, will be queen will be a secret until then. The lucky girl will be presented with a wrist watch and a bouquet of maroon roses, and her attendants will receive orchid corsages. "Club W" will be decorated with various colored drapes, indirect lighting and a revolving chandelier transforming the university gym into an atmospheric dance floor. Red felt programs with a large yellow W on the cover will be presented to every co-ed.

Thursday evening the Lettermen sponsored their annual basketball game with the faculty, and the result turned out to be a hilarious jumble of "guess what?" With the baskets covered, the faculty, attired in cap and gown warmups, and the lettermen in about anything—pajamas, boxing gloves and swimming suits, had a difficult time making any progress, despite the cheering on both sides, led by President G. Herbert Smith, Don Aasen and Lou Scrivens, dressed as typical rally girls. Even the inspiring water girls, Martha Benard and Jean Estey in bathing suits, and LuDene Hargrave and Prudence Craig, wearing false noses and teeth and carrying cigars, didn't seem to aid the scores. Halftime entertainment featured the Hawaiians in singing and dancing numbers, and the coaches, donning tuxedos for the occasion, were a source of enjoyment all evening.

Tonight Wesley Fellowship has planned a Japanese dinner at the First Methodist church dining room in order to raise money for the foreign students on the campus. Receptionists, dressed in authentic costumes, will greet guests at the door. The setting will resemble a Japanese garden outside a restaurant, with lanterns carrying out the theme. A story teller and magician will provide continuous entertainment.

Willamette is very fortunate in having as guests next week a group of 31 Austrian university students and school teachers who are on a goodwill tour of North America. This journey has not only acquainted Americans with the charm of the Austrian people, but has given the visitors a first-hand look at America.

Officers named for the Salem group of Pi Beta Phi alumnae at their meeting Thursday evening are: Mrs. Charles H. Huggins, president; Mrs. Edward Roth, vice president; Miss Carolyn Brady, recording secretary; Miss Evelyn Johnson corresponding secretary; Miss Adele Egan, treasurer.

Plans were made for a founders' day tea on April 13, the event to be at the home of Mrs. James T. Brand between 3 and 6 o'clock that date. Alumnae and active members from Salem, Portland, Corvallis and Eugene are being invited.

Hostesses for last evening's meeting were Mrs. Chester Zumwalt, Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry,

THE BOARD for the Salem Memorial Hospital auxiliary met this week at the home of the president, Mrs. Ed Goeckner, and made plans for the meeting of the auxiliary next Monday, also for the spring silver tea to be given on April 20.

WEEK-END guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo N. Childs were Mr. and Mrs. Mark A. Parr of Portland, formerly of Seattle. Mrs. Parr is a sister of Mr. Childs, and the visitors were here to attend the wedding of Miss Betty Louise Childs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Childs, and Frederick G. Bradshaw, the ceremony being last Saturday afternoon in the First Presbyterian church.

HOSTS on Saturday evening to their club will be Mr. and Mrs. Fred Keeler, the group to meet for dessert and bridge.

Mrs. Wolcott E. Buren, Mrs. John Steelhammer, Mrs. James Phillips, Miss Patricia Vandeynde, Mrs. Sidney Hoffman, Mrs. Philip Blake.

Miss Smith Wed in South

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Smith of marriage of their daughter, Miss Carole L. Smith, to Otto Mills of San Diego, Calif., formerly of Salem. The wedding was an event of March 5 at the First Presbyterian church at La Jolla, Calif., a small group of relatives and friends attending. Mrs. Smith and her son Elmer E. Smith, Jr., went south for the wedding.

Mrs. Ben Abbott and Elmer E. Smith, Jr., attended the couple.

The bride attended Salem schools and Willamette University. Mr. Miller, formerly in radio work here, is now associated with station KFSD in San Diego. The couple will make their home in San Diego.

WEEK-END guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo N. Childs were Mr. and Mrs. Mark A. Parr of Portland, formerly of Seattle. Mrs. Parr is a sister of Mr. Childs, and the visitors were here to attend the wedding of Miss Betty Louise Childs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Childs, and Frederick G. Bradshaw, the ceremony being last Saturday afternoon in the First Presbyterian church.

HOSTS on Saturday evening to their club will be Mr. and Mrs. Fred Keeler, the group to meet for dessert and bridge.

Mrs. Wolcott E. Buren, Mrs. John Steelhammer, Mrs. James Phillips, Miss Patricia Vandeynde, Mrs. Sidney Hoffman, Mrs. Philip Blake.
