ANNOUNCEMENT is being made this week-end of the engagement of Miss Susanne DeVoe Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Thompson of Highland Park, N. J. to George C. Huggins, Jr., Salem, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Huggins of Coos Bay.

An early fall wedding is planned. Miss Thompson is a graduate of Duke university where she is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. She is now teaching in the Marshfield junior high school at Coos Bay.

Mr. Huggins is a veteran of the naval a'r corps and a graduate of the University of Orggon where he is affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. He is with the Huggins Insurance company in Salem and is a nephew of Charles H. Huggins of Salem.

By Marian Lowry Fischer

MONG hostesses of the new week will be Mrs. Arthur R. Jones, who bridge party for Tuesday afternoon at her residence.

Twelve have been invited. The party is the first of a series planned by Mrs. Jones.

Tuesday Luncheon

Mrs. Robert Duncan has invited a group of 16 Salem friends for a lunch-con and bridge party to be given at her home in Silverton on Tuesday. The party is one of a series the hostess is planning.

For Miss Vandeneynde

Mrs. Wayne P. Loder is to be hostess on Wednesday at a luncheon at her home to honor Miss Patricia Vandeneynde, who is the bride-elect of Ted E. Reed. Bidden to honor Miss Vandeneynde are Mrs. John Steelhammer, Mrs. Robert Needham, Mrs. Vernon Drye, Mrs. Peter Geiser, Mrs. Leonard Hicks, Mrs. Byron Mennis, Mrs. Carlton J. McLeod and Mrs. Merle Brown.

Among those attending the 60th anniversary events for the school of home economics at Oregon State college Fri-day and today was Mrs. Robert E. Shinn of Salem.

Joining her at Salem Friday to go to Corvallis were her mother, Mrs. William Jasper Kerr of Portland, who was a speaker at the banquet given last evening; her sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Kerr, and her two sisters, Mrs. Luther McGinnis and Mrs. Ralph Reynolds, all of Portland. They attended the Friday lunch-eon and banquet, also the Saturday luncheon. Dean Ava B, Milam, who is retiring from the deanship of the school, was an honored guest at the events.

----

The regular at home afternoon for Mrs. Douglas McKay, wife of Oregon's governor, will be Tuesday, local and out-of-town friends being invited to call that afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Purvine and family are spending the week-end at their beach home at Neskowin. .

Among club hostesses of next week will be Mrs. John Heltzel, who has in-vited her bridge group for luncheon and cards on Thursday.

One of These Is Queen for Varsity Ball Tonight ....

THE COURT TO PRESIDE OVER the annual Varsity Ball at Willamette university this evening is pictured above—one of the five to be named queen during the dance. These five are the finalists from a large group named several weeks age.

Miss Foster's Engagement to Mr. Herr Announced by Parents

Featuring in the romantic news of the week-end is announcement by Colonel and Mrs. Eugene I. Foster of the engagement of their daughter. Miss Jeanne Marie Foster, to Clyde G. Herr, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde G. Herr of Watsonville, Calif.

The wedding is planned for the late spring. Miss Foster, who has resided in San Francisco the past year and a half, at-tended University of Southern Calif-ornia and University of Oregon, and is a graduate of the Rudolph Schaefer School of Design in San Francisco. She is now on the staff of H. Liebes company in San Francisco as assistant buyer for the baby and teen-age departments. The bride-to-be is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Mr. Herr, who is in partnership with his father in the wholesale bakery business in Watsonville, is a graduate of Pomona college. He served in the naval air corps during the war.

The young couple met while students in high school at Watsonville where the Fosters resided while Colonel Foster was in command at Camp McQuaid.

(Kennell-Ellis studio pleture) In the group are, left to right: Miss Marie Corner of Bothell, Wash.; Miss Dona Mears, Roseburg; Miss Del Fisher of Portland; Miss Muriel Baney of Salem and Miss Shirley Griffin who is from Vancouver, Wash.

Mrs. Rollin Graber and little daughwirs, north Graber and fittle daught fer, Gloria, leave next week for Japan to join Major Graber, who is stationed with the air force there. They will sail from Seattle March 16. Mrs. Graber and daughter have been here since in October, visiting Major Graber's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Graber, and with Mrs. Graber's sister, Mrs. Joseph John-

Gamma Phi Beta alumnae are meet-ing for their monthly dinner Monday, at 6:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Hugh Taylor with Mrs. Harold M. Olinger, Mrs. C. C. Higgins and Mrs. Frank C. Angle as co-hostesses, New Gamma Phi members in town are welcome and are asked to call Mrs. Higgins.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Chambers are to entertain their club for dinner and bridge Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Bahlburg are to be additional guests. The club members include Mr. and Mrs. John Kolb, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Shinn, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Specht and Mr. and Mrs. Chambers.

Mrs. Claude H. Murphy is to entertain for her bridge club at luncheon and cards, Monday.

Delta Zeta alumnae will be entertained by Mrs. W. H. Foster and Mrs. Emmett Kleinke, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Foster, 2885 Mountain View drive.

WW ILLAMETTE Faculty Women's group is to meet next Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Roy M. Lockenour.

home of Mrs. Roy M. Lockenour. Mrs. Alfred Sheets is chairman of the hostesses who include Mrs. Elmer O. Berg, Mrs. Earl T. Brown, Mrs. M. L. Cohn, Mrs. Ruane Hill, Mrs. M. Humphreys, Mrs. Arne S. Jensen, Mrs. S. B. Laughlin, Mrs. John C. Paulus, Mrs. Ralph Purvine and Mrs. Chester Stackhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce F. Pickett, who are being welcomed as newcomers to Salem, have purchased a home at 2730 Skopil avenue, Candalaria Heights, and will be moving in soon. They have been living on Lake Oswego, Mr. Pickett is the new district manager for the Pa-cific Telephone and Telegraph company.

Dr. and Mrs. John J. Griffith return-ed the latter part of the week from at-tending the Oregon State Dental so-ciety convention in Portland.

Mrs. J. H. Stofiel of Eugene is a visitor here for the week-end as guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Todd.

Chi Omega alumnae are to be guests of Mrs. Robert Moe and Mrs. George L. Hill on Tuesday evening, the meeting to be at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Moe. 3460 Center street. The group will discuss spring projects.

Salem alumnae of Alpha Chi Omega have received notices for the style show to be sponsored by Portland alumnae of the sorority next Saturday, March 18, at the Cosmopolitan club. The luncheon will be at 12:30 o'clock, Proceeds from the benefit go to the project of assisting the palsied cerebral, a project of the na-tional organization of Alpha Chi Omega.

Salem Writers' club is meeting on Wednesday at 7:30 o'clock with Mr. and Mrs. Morton Peck, 1552 Court street.

Wedding Friday

Bride last evening at a ceremony in St. John's Lutheran church was Miss Shirley Mae Rockafellow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rockafellow, who was married to Raymond Walter Wolf, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wolf of Circle Montana. The 8 o'clock vows were read by the Rev. H. W. Gross before a large gath-ering of relatives and friends, the double ring ceremony being used. Pink snap-dragons and greenery decorated the church. For the music, Miss Geniece Mize sang, accompanied by William H. Fischer, who also was the organist. Mrs. Nick Weiss and Miss Peggy Meyers lighter the tapers. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of white Japanese silk-satin, made floor length and with tight fitting V-shaped bodice, a nylon net yoke and full gathered skirt. The imported illusion veil was lace edged and cascaded from a beaded crown. For her flowers the bride car-ried two shades of pink carnations arranged in a round bouquet with satin streamers

Miss Delores Lehman was honor attendant. Her gown was of pink, styled similarily to that of the bride, and she carried a nosegay of pink carnations with green background. Mrs. Foye Harper and Miss Janice Norton were the bridesmaids. Their dresses were fashioned like those of the maid of honor and bride but were in light green, and their nosegays of pink carnations had the pink background. Kenneth Lukinbeal was best man and the groomsmen were Tel Pyle and Benny Taskinen. Ushering were Foye Har-per, Arthur Bean, Jack Kuhn and Nick Weiss.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue afternoon dress with corsage of pink carnations.

carnations The reception following was in the church parish house. Mrs. Albert Nied-erberger cut the cake. Mrs. Earl Burk and Mrs. LaVerne Norton poured Miss Nancy Payne and Miss Karen Obrist Nancy Payne and Miss Karen Obrist assisted in serving. Passing the guest book was Miss Betty Jean Bergner. Miss Maxine Armstrong passed the dream cakes. In charge of the gift table were Miss Doris Lappin. Miss Darlene Scharff and Miss Betty Norton. Mr. and Mrs. Jess Morgan attended the ceremony for the bridegroom in

Cleaten-Miller atudio pictures

PICTURED IN GROUP above are Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Gale Bradshaw (Betty Louise Childs) and members of their wedding party, left to right: Lonald Bower of Portland, formerly of Salem, who was best man; Mr. Bradshaw, Mrs. Bradshaw, Mrs. Rodney Taylor of Eugene, matron of honor, and Miss Frances Bennett of Portland, bridesmaid, In the inset are Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw cutting their first piece of cake at the reception. Mrs. Bradshaw is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo N. Childs, Mr. Bradshaw the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick O. Bradshaw, all of Balem. The wedding was March &

2

(Jesten-Miller studio picture)

WED LAST SUNDAY, March 5, in the First Church of the Nazarene, were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Barrett, the bride being the former Delpha Loewen. A reception at the church also followed the service. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Loewen of Salem and Mr. Barrett is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Barrett of Prineville. The couple plan to make their home in Prineville.

the absence of his parents, who unable to come for the wedding who were

For traveling the bride wore a gray suit dress with navy blue coat and ac-cessories, pink hat and gloves, and a corsage of pink carnations

Following a trip through Washington, Idaho and Montana, the couple will be at home on route 4. Salem, after April

----

Dances Listed

A number of dancing parties are on the mid-March social calendar, arranged as St. Patrick's day events. Bonheur Club Members of Bonheur club plan their dance for next Friday evening at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall with Mr. and Mrs. Harold McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Phillippe, Mr. and Mrs. Max G. Schriber, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Welling and Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Slentz on the committee. Wayne Strachan's orchestra is to play.

Beta Sigma Phi Event

A sports dance, featuring St. Patrick's decorations, will be sponsored by mem-Phi bers of Eta chapter of Beta Sigm next Friday evening, March 17, at Mayflower hall. There will be dancing and cards, Wayne Meusey's orchestra to play for the dancing.

On the committee for the party are Misses Wanda Ringland, Tina Duerksen, Norma Sletton, Ginger Voos, Martha Lierly.