Amity, March 13 (AP) — Now it's "flying silos," — or maybe balls of fire. A Yamhill county deputy sheriff and the Amity postmaster were among scores of persons to report a flying whatzit in this area last night. But the pilot of a West Coast airlines plane, which landed here about the same time, said he didn't see anything out of the way. Deputy Sheriff Ford Hagan said an object shaped like a "full sized silo," with a light on the bottom, flew northwest and north over the Eola hills belching heavy smoke from each side and light smoke from the top. Hagan and Postmaster Earl Burch said they tried to follow it, but it vanished over the Eola hills. They said they watched it for about three minutes at about 6:30 last night. Other people in the Amity area reported they saw a fiery object moving slowly to the northeast. They put the time at later: 7 p.m.

Candidates at Demo Meeting

State Treasurer Walter J. Pearson and Lew Wallace two of the three democratic candidates for governor of Oregon, told of their platforms here Sunday at a meeting of the Marion county democratic central committee. Pearson said that he is for aid to the aged, repeal of the 1947 Oregon labor laws, a veterans' bonus and the family-sized farm. He said he would work, if elected, for revision of the state income tax laws, and told the more than 150 democrats at the meeting that he believes small independent businesses should be encouraged. He said he is still against the sales tax. Pearson said he does not favor "lien laws" for the aged and expressed belief $50 a month should be paid to those over 65 earning less than $1000 a year. The state treasurer said he favors development of "working family type farms" rather than the "gentleman farmer" type farms. Former State Sen. Wallace, who is making his third try for the governorship, said he believes in persistence, and noted that "Lincoln ran for office nine times before he was elected." Wallace criticized the state's present reforestation program and charged that the "Republican party in Oregon had done nothing in the past 30 years but spend money provided by a national democratic administration."

Pilots Defeat Montana, 48-47

Kansas City, March 13 (AP) — The University of Portland, Portland, Ore., today opened the 13th annual NAIB basketball tournament with a close 48 to 47 victory over the University of Montana. Portland led all the way until the last five minutes of play when Montana tied the score at 46. Warren Brown, Portland guard, made two free throws to put his team ahead, 48 to 46. Then Bob Cope, Montana, got two free chances, but made only the first one. Cope, one of the nation's leading college scorers, was held to 10 points. He has 600 points for the season. Jack Winters, Negro center, led Portland with 12 points.

Fleet to Escort Evacuation Ship

Manila, March 13 (AP) — Vice Adm. Russell Berkeley said today the U. S. seventh fleet will escort the evacuation ship General Gordon to the Yangtze river estuary this month to bring out 2200 American and other foreigners from Red Shanghai. The foreigners will be transported down the reportedly mined Yangtze river to the open sea in tank landing ships. They will board the General Gordon outside Chinese territorial waters. Admiral Berkeley said the evacuation ship is being operated as a commercial venture by the American President lines. But he added, the seventh fleet will stand by outside Chinese territorial waters for any eventuality.

Reclamationists Annual Meet Set

Spokane, March 13 (AP) — An estimated 900 delegates are expected here November 14-17 for the National Reclamation association's annual convention. Dates of the yearly gathering were announced Saturday by Harry Polk of Williston, N. D., association president. Marshall Dana, Portland newspaper editor, and State Sen. Henry Copeland of Walla Walla were named by Polk to represent the Columbia basin on a new nationwide basin development committee. Dana will chair the new committee.

Stroke Fatal to Geo. F. Zwicker

Funeral services will be held at the Clough-Barrick chapel Wednesday, March 15, at 1:30 p.m. for George F. Zwicker, who died at his home at 743 South 25th street Sunday from a stroke. Interment will be in the City View cemetery. Zwicker, who had been an employee of the city for many years prior to his retirement, a few years ago, came to Salem to reside in 1893. Before joining the city street maintenance crew in 1907 Zwicker was employed at a nursery here. He was born at Alton, Ill., September 7, 1879, and October 17, 1907, was married to Ethel Herrold. Zwicker was a member of the Modern Woodmen.

Church Relief Funds Collected

New York, March 13 (AP) — More than 100,000 Protestant and orthodox congregations throughout the United States took up special collections yesterday to support church relief work abroad. Congregations joining in the special offering—called the "one great hour of sharing"—have a total of nearly 25,000,000 members. A 9-month planning drive preceded yesterday's nationwide appeal.

Russia Seeks Sphere Solution

New York, March 13 (AP) — The New York Times reported today that United States officials believe the Soviet Union now is making a new effort to arrange a "spheres of influence" deal with this country. A Washington dispatch by James Reston said: "Recent events in the communist world suggest to experts in official quarters here (in Washington) that the Soviet Union is trying to do two things: '1. Minimize or eliminate western influence in all communist satellite states. '2. Arrange a two-world settlement with the United States under which the western nations would adopt a hands-off policy throughout the whole communist world, including China and Yugoslavia, and do most of their business with the Soviet satellites through Moscow.'"

Tells Tall Tales About Alaska

Air pockets so big that they cause passengers on airplanes to float and babbles so huge that a wheelbarrow hauls but one at a time were among the "Tall Tales of Alaska" told Monday for the benefit of Chamber of Commerce luncheon guests by J. R. Griffith, dean of engineering at the University of Portland.

Nationalists Bomb Invaders

Taipei, Formosa, March 13 (AP) — Nationalist bombers today walloped communist invasion forces on the mainland as a new cabinet prepared to begin functioning on Formosa. Main target was a potential invasion force of 4,000 communist troops off Chusan Island. Nationalist blockade base 100 miles southeast of Shanghai. Air headquarters claimed a third of the Red forces were wiped out, along with food stored at Ningpo, 75 miles south of Shanghai and a warehouse at Ninghai, 55 miles from there.

UN Checking Up On Displaced Person

Ruth Safran of Perth Amboy, J. J., a traveling representative of the International Refugee Organization of the United Nations, reached Salem Monday to check on the status of displaced persons living in this community. The first conference was at the YMCA early Monday afternoon with Ardo Tarem, assistant physical instructor, who is among the displaced persons of the community. Other individuals will be visited.

Rezoning of Capitol Area Up

The question of rezoning the southeast corner of North Capitol and Center streets, to permit the building of a service station by George A. Rhoten and Sam F. Spearra, will be up for public hearing, but not final action by the city council Monday night. The ordinance bill for the change has been prepared and probably will be introduced for first reading. Second and third readings and final action would then, under regular procedure, be on the calendar for the meeting of March 27. It was erroneously published that the bill would be up for final action this Monday night. Ordinarily public hearings on bills are held the night the bill is up for final passage. But in this case the public hearing was set ahead of the introduction of the measure.

Pope Cheered On Anniversary

Vatican City, March 13 (AP) — A throng of 20,000, including many holy year pilgrims, cheered Pope Plus today upon the celebration of the 11th anniversary of his coronation. Pope Plus was elected pope March 2, 1939. His coronation followed on March 12. The anniversary was celebrated today — a day late — so that white vestments rather than the purple color of mourning prescribed for Sunday during Lent could be worn.

Cold Wave Hits Inland Empire

Snow pelted the area east of the Cascade mountains again today (Monday) but the mass of cold air hanging over the region drifted across the mountains into Montana. Rain mixed with a touch of snow fell on the coast and in some of the warmer valleys on the east side of the mountains. A cover of clouds lifted nighttime low temperatures from five to 15 degrees in eastern Washington and northern Idaho. Spokane received almost two inches of new snow last night and today, bringing the total for the month to 7 1/2 inches. The city had a low of 25 early today, compared with readings of 10 and five the two previous days. The weather bureau's prediction was for continued overcast with occasional snow flurries or rain and no drastic change in the temperature.

Tax Group to Draft Program

For a further preliminary conference on the community financial program the joint tax coordinating committee was in session at the Chamber of Commerce Monday afternoon. Priority in selection of needed projects to be submitted to the people is the purpose of the committee. The committee is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. Its members represent the city administration, the school administration, and the county. The city, with a 10-year program made public by City Manager J. L. Franzen, of which certain crucial projects are to be selected for the May ballot, is further along with its plans than are the other tax-levying bodies.

Ellsworth Asks For Forestry Research Aid

Washington, March 13 (AP) — Rep. Ellsworth (R., Ore.) wants the government to spend more money for forestry research. He told a house agriculture subcommittee on appropriations that while employees of the forest service have received two pay increases, the funds for the research work have remained about the same as before the increases. "That has not as yet resulted in a drastic or dangerous curtailment in the continuity of their work, but it has cut down on travel and it has cut down on the purchase of necessary equipment," Ellsworth said in testimony made public today. "In the coming fiscal year (starting July 1) unless this situation is corrected I would suggest that they will be trying to do some of their forestry work on a desk basis."
