

Discussion For WSCS

The Womens Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church is holding its regular meeting Wednesday, March 15 at the church. The business session will be at 10 a. m. with Mrs. Ruth Fugate presiding. Circles No. 2 and 4 are hostesses for the noon luncheon which is to honor new members and prospective members. Lunch is to be served at small tables.

The afternoon program begins at 1:15 with Mrs. Franklin Ward leading the devotions on "Our Christian Brothers Overseas." Mrs. Norman Winslow is presenting some Japanese flower arrangements. Special music with violin, piano and vocal will be furnished by Mr. Thomas Facey, Mrs. Franklin Ward and Mr. Robert Gwinn.

Christian Advance and Reconstruction in Japan is the topic to be presented in a panel discussion as follows: Economics, Ronald Hudkins; politics, Winston Taylor; social welfare, Jason Lee; education, E. E. Wilcox; religion, Mrs. Lakin Westphal; Christianity, Mrs. Brooks Moore; methodism, past and future Miss Adeline Wilson.

THE RLEF club was entertained last week at the home of Mrs. Laura Johnson with Mrs. Harry Wilson as co-hostess. After a business meeting cards were in play. Mrs. Al Niederburg, Mrs. George Thomas won prizes. Lunch was served.

Miss Hutchings Recent Bride

Jefferson — Miss Martha Jane Hutchings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hutchings, and Mrs. Martha Gourley, son of Mrs. Martha Gourley of Albany, were united in marriage Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Jefferson Christian church. Rev. George Richardson officiated at the double ring ceremony.

White tapers flanked with baskets of pink snapdragons, yellow daffodils and acacia, decorated the altar for the wedding. Mrs. Gilbert Looney played the wedding marches and also sang, accompanied by Mrs. Virgil Bailes at the piano.

Lighting the tapers were Miss

Vena Gourley, Albany, and Miss Lora Tiger of Salem, attired in blue formals and wearing corsages of pink camellias.

Preceding the bride to the altar was her honor attendant, Miss Ellen Allman of Albany. Her dress was a yellow formal and the bridesmaid, Miss Maxine Armstrong, wore a blue formal. Each carried an arm bouquet of daffodils, carnations and pink snapdragons. Miss Joyce Ham-mack was flower girl and wore a floor length pink organdy dress. Terry Bailes was ring bearer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a dress of white slipper satin, Victorian style. Her fingertip veil was edged with lace and held in place with a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible on which rested three brown gardenias, streamers of white satin ribbon cascading from the Bible.

Lloyd Gourley was best man for his brother. Ushers were Clifford Bowen of Bend, Terry Casin and Robert Uptenkelder of Albany.

Mrs. Hutchings wore for her daughter's wedding a rose pink dress with navy blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue print with matching accessories. Each wore a corsage of American Beauty roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor. The serving table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a floral arrangement of pink snapdragons, daffodils and acacia. The three-tier wedding cake was cut by the bride's sister, Mrs. Clifford Bowen. Mrs. Clifford Smiley, cousin of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Serving were Misses Shirley Bentley, Yvonne Roseau, Jean Farman and Al-phadene Howard. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Elmer Knight and Mrs. Ernest Powell. In charge of the guest book was Miss Sue Smiley of Portland, cousin of the bride.

For going away the bride wore a light aqua suit with brown accessories and a corsage of brown orchids. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Albany.
