Albany Winner In FFA Contest

Independence—The Upper Willamette district of the F.F.A. held a vocational contest in the high school auditorium at Gervais with the following high schools represented—Albany, Corvallis, Eddyville, Gervais, Independence, Jefferson, Perrydale, Silverton and Woodburn. Albany was granted first place, Corvallis, second, and Independence, third.

Highlight of the day was a public speaking contest. Wayne Hiebert of Perrydale, whose subject was "Modern Weed Control," won first place. Second place was taken by Kelly Bergquist of Independence, speaking on "Marketing—the Number 1 Problem." Marvin Jahn of Silverton came in third, using for his topic "What Does the F.F.A. Mean?"

Judges for the speech contest were Ted Hobart of the Ladd and Bush bank of Salem; Don Schmidt of the Valley farm stores of Salem; and William Morris, Oregon State college.

Hiebert and Bergquist will compete Wednesday at the Newberg high school for the honor of being placed in the state contest at La Grande on March 24.

Other events of the day and individual contest results are as follows:

Electric welding—First, Marvin Jonson, Independence; second, David Hartzel, Albany; third, Howard Klopfenstein, Silverton.

Rope work—First, Jim Elvin, Independence; second, Richard Klopfenstein, Silverton; third, Jim Bleakney, Silverton.

Milk testing—First, Lloyd Tharp, Eddyville; second, Terry McLean, Woodburn; third, Muri Schultz, Woodburn.

Blacksmithing—First, Richard Simpson, Eddyville; second, James Grate, Albany; third, Don Dunn, Gervais.

Seed identification—First, Ray Johnson, Albany; second, Jack Hively, Corvallis; third, Don Parsons, Albany.

Cia cutting—First, Jim Tooley, Gervais; second, Lefter Dunn, Gervais; third, Alan Dahl, Silverton.

Soldering—First, Wayne Herz, Silverton; second, Richard Klopfenstein, Silverton; third, Frank Rebeuse, Gervais.

Aerial math—First, David Dickman, Corvallis; second, Lyle Hathaway, Corvallis; third, Muri Schultz, Woodburn.

Project record book—First, Lloyd Tharp, Eddyville; second, Milton Cooley, Albany; third, Floyd Cornutt, Independence.

Secretary-treasurer books—First, Albany; second, Corvallis; third, Silverton and Perrydale.

Alvin Leach, a teacher of agriculture, general science, and shop at the Independence high school, is the advisor of these groups who participated in the contest.

Soft Coal Prices to Rise 10 to 40 Cents

Pittsburgh, March 14 (AP)—Soft coal circles buzzed today with unconfirmed reports of imminent increases from 10 to 40 cents a ton in the price of soft coal.

An industry spokesman who declined to be quoted by name said there has been no blanket increase announced as yet but he indicated a boost probably is in the offing.

He added: "If it only amounts to ten cents a ton the retailer should be able to absorb it. But if it goes any higher than that it will affect the price of coal to the consumer."

Draft for Women?

Los Angeles, March 14 (AP)—"It will be a damn good thing" if women are drafted in any future war, says Adm. William F. Halsey.

Every country does it, why not us?" he said in an interview yesterday. "They'd be useful. We could use them in the last war."

Halsey sails Wednesday for a vacation in Honolulu.

Bergman May Wed Rossellini Wednesday

Hollywood, March 14 (AP)—Swedish screen star Ingrid Bergman will marry director Roberto Rossellini as soon as she receives Swedish recognition of her divorce, probably Wednesday, her Hollywood attorney said today.

Attorney Greg Bautzer said he had been informed by Miss Bergman's Rome representatives that certification of her divorce from Dr. Peter Lindstrom was expected Wednesday although no definite date was set.

He explained that a divorce received in a foreign country must be approved by the country of which the parties are citizens.

Income Tax Form So Complex Only 1/3 of People Can Figure It

By LAURA ETZ

Chicago, March 14 (AP)—Chances are two to one that you're having trouble to fill out your income tax form properly.

Dr. David P. Boder, psychology professor at Illinois Institute of Technology, said that roughly 30 per cent of the population has the mental ability to understand the forms.

It takes an I.Q. of 110, he estimated, to understand the government's instructions for filling out the longer tax forms "so you're lucky if you have it all taken out by withholding tax."

More than 65 per cent of the population "simply does not have the mentality to follow the legal, technical language," he said.

That's not all. Even persons with the mental ability to understand the instructions may fall down because they lack "number facility" or suffer from repressions.

It is the "tendency to repress unpleasant experiences" and not laxness that makes people put off their income tax figuring until the last possible minute.

"Unfortunately, the longer they postpone it the more unpleasant is the experience, and as a result the psychological block is even worse the next year," he said.

The lack of "numbers facility" can happen to anyone, Boder said—"lots of so-called geniuses can't do the simplest problems in mathematics."

Income tax figuring, he said, should be made a regular part of high school instruction.

"The instruction should start about January or February, in time to give the parents a hand," he said. "The younger generation in that way could overcome the psychological block that stymies their parents before they themselves have to face the problem."

Boder emphasized that he didn't mean to "criticize the government" for the complicated forms because "they have to be that way to cover everything. It's just too bad for the majority of people."

Boder had some suggestions that might make the annual ordeal easier.

1. Get several blank forms, not just one, "so you can tear it up if you make a mistake."
2. Keep your old returns as a future guide.

3. Don't try to do the whole job at once; that only increases nervous tension and makes it more difficult.

4. Follow the directions "methodically and step-by-step as you would a cooking recipe."

If you don't understand the directions yourself, buy a tax guide or consult a government tax adviser.

Bud Abbott, Wife Newlyweds Again

Springfield, O., March 14 (AP)—Comedian William (Bud) Abbott, 54, and his wife, Betty, were newlyweds again today after 32 years of married life.

The Abbotts were remarried in the Jewish faith at a wedding reception for another couple here Sunday night, William

Burt, a member of the wedding party, said. After a surprise announcement upon their arrival here, the ceremony was performed by Rabbi Samuel Harrie of Dayton, O., Burt said.

Earlier in the day, Rabbi Harris had married Miss Joan Yvonne Ritoff and Samuel Lewis Kahn. Miss Ritoff is the daughter of Springfield glove manufacturer Harry Ritoff, a longtime friend of Abbott.

Lou Costello, Abbott's comedy partner, was not present for the ceremony.

Top Flight Students Listed at Silverton

Silverton—Of the 353 students enrolled in the high school, seven achieved a straight "one" grade average for the first semester of the year's term.
