Revenue Clerks Not Letting You Down, But Please Hurry

You can, if you want to, wait until along toward midnight Wednesday to pay your federal income tax.

But it will be a lot more convenient both to yourself and to the internal revenue office if you do it sooner.

Wednesday is the last day for paying income tax if you want to escape a fine. If necessary, the deputies and their clerks in the office at the Chamber of Commerce will stay on the job right up to midnight.

Tuesday night the office will be open until 9 o'clock.

The waiting line of taxpayers has dwindled considerably the last day or two, indicating that most of the taxpayers have sent in their returns.
