Pioneer of Suffrage Dies

Cambridge, Mass., March 16 (AP)—Alice Stone Blackwell, a pioneer in the women's suffrage movement, died yesterday at her home. She was 92.

Miss Blackwell was the daughter of Lucy (Stone) Blackwell, an international leader in the fight for women's rights. Her father was an active abolitionist.

Her family organized the Massachusetts Woman Suffrage association in 1870 and founded the Women's Journal. Miss Blackwell was editor-in-chief of the Journal when it was consolidated in 1917 with the Woman Voter, published by the National American Woman Suffrage association.

She was recording secretary of the National American Woman Suffrage association for 20 years and a former president of the New England and Massachusetts Woman Suffrage associations.

Although blind in the last few years, she kept abreast of the news through the radio and having a reader come in every morning to go through the morning newspapers.

'Queen' Anxious For Radio Gift

Kirkwood, N.J., March 16 (AP) Mrs. Aletha Roselle, 24, mother of three young children, could "hardly wait" today for the arrival of the prize she won on a national radio program.

The prize is a tent for her family of five to live in after they are evicted from their one-room bungalow soon.

Mrs. Roselle, who is expecting a fourth child in May, asked for the tent when she was named "Queen for a Day" on Jack Bailey's Hollywood radio program Tuesday. She said she had been unable to find a home for her family and a tent was all she wanted.

Mrs. Roselle, wife of an unemployed carpenter, ran three blocks to a grocery store to answer Bailey's call from Hollywood. She was told she would get the tent — complete with pegs and poles, a crib for the expected baby, a kitchen furniture set, stocks of food and other home appliances and furnishings. Bailey promised it would all fit in the tent.

But the Roselles may not have to live in the tent for long. Frank Kirkner, Warren, N.Y., farmer, heard the program and offered Mrs. Roselle's husband, Edwin, a job "at a decent wage" and to give him a piece of land and machinery.

Miner Claims UMW Fined Him $50,000

Chicago, March 16 (AP)—The national labor relations board has been asked to investigate a charge by a soft coal miner that he was fined $50,000 by the United Mine Workers and lost his job for attempting to lead a back to work movement during the recent coal strike.

Lloyd H. Sidener, 44, ousted president of a UMW local at Canton, Ill., and a shovel engineer at the Buck Heart mine for 13 years, filed the complaint with the NLRB yesterday. He charged the UMW and the mine owner, the United Electric Coal companies, discriminated against him in violation of the law.

Sidener said other officials of the UMW local 7455 and striking miners had banned him from returning to work February 24 in compliance with the federal injunction order of February 11 directing the miners to return to their jobs. He said he and about 130 other miners attempted to resume work on the day shift but were turned back by miners who formed a picket line.

The $50,000 fine was levied against him, Sidener said, by the local at a meeting March 7. He attempted to return to work on March 13, Sidener related, but a group of miners and mine officials halted him.

Windsors in Florida. Palm Beach, Fla., March 16 (AP)—The Duke and Duchess of Windsor are back in this resort city for a stay of several weeks. The former British king and his American-born duchess arrived yesterday aboard the private car of Robert R. Young, chairman of the board of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad.

Tastes First Food in Three Years—Eight-year-old Phillibert Dube of Riviere du Loup, Quebec, Canada, hadn't tasted conventional food in three years until soup and milk were given him at Children's Memorial hospital in Chicago. The lad accidentally swallowed lye, causing his esophagus to close. He had since then fed through a tube inserted in his stomach, and had been under treatment in Quebec and Montreal before being taken to Chicago. At left, Phillibert grimaces at prospect that first swallow may be painful. At right, he assures Nurse Jean Christofferson that it's "OK" as she offers a glass of milk. (AP Wirephoto.)

Salesman Makes Sale

Portland, March 16 (AP)—Fire extinguisher salesman C. G. Richmond was Johnny-on-the-spot, quick to demonstrate and a sale was a cinch. The city fire department was slightly embarrassed, however.

Richmond was sipping coffee in Durrie's cafe when grease under an oven erupted in flame. Fire Capt. A. D. Cato raced in as his truck wheeled to a stop, firemen piling with hose and axes.

The captain decided quickly the blaze should be put out by a carbon dioxide extinguisher.

The truck wasn't so equipped. Richmond went to his sample case and went to work. Out went the fire and his sample was sold.

Atkinson Low on Relocation Job

Portland, March 16 (AP)—Guy F. Atkinson Co., Portland, was low bidder at $2,846,611 for relocating Southern Pacific tracks and state highway 58 around the Lookout Point dam site.

Army engineers said yesterday the bid was $258,000 below government estimates. The corps has $1,221,000 available for the work in this fiscal year. The remaining needed funds are in a 1950-51 fiscal bill before congress.

The project calls for relocating 4.5 miles of railroad track and 4.5 miles of the highway along the north fork of the Willamette river southeast of Eugene. The project is expected to take a year and a half to complete.

Highway Interim Group to Tour

The legislative interim committee on highways is going on tour to tell the public what the committee has done toward solving highway, road and street problems.

Committee Chairman Ralph T. Moore of Coos Bay said the committee would hold a series of public forum discussions at various cities over the state.

Moore said the committee has done about all it can by studying the problems, and now the public needs to make up its mind what it wants done to improve the road and street system.

He said the committee would hold its first meetings as follows: Astoria March 30, Newport March 31, Albany April 1, Gold Beach April 13, Grants

Pass April 14, and Roseburg April 15.

Dates and places for meetings in Portland and eastern Oregon will be announced soon.

Because of the many tasks to be performed it takes a staff of 74 to produce an average variety hour on television.
