For washing lingerie, hose and handkerchiefs and other small articles make a mesh bag with a short zipper opening or omit the zipper and simply tie the top of the bag with two or three turns of cord, then toss the whole thing into the washer. Everything "comes clean" simply and conveniently, too, for there is no searching around in the water for temporarily lost articles.

Soloist Lauded

Salem folk attending the Portland Symphony orchestra concert in Portland last evening are most laudatory in their praise of Miss Grace Harrington, talented young pianist.

Miss Harrington is to soloist with the symphony when it plays its concluding concert in Salem this Tuesday evening at Salem high school auditorium. "Miss Harrington gave a magnificent rendition of Grieg's concerto, the same number she is to play here. No one should miss tonight's program," was the comment from those attending the Portland concert.

Kappa Alumnae Entertained

Kappa Kappa Gamma alumnae met last evening at the home of Miss Margaret Wagner with Mrs. Robert Drager, Mrs. Lauren Gale and Mrs. Thomas E. Rilea, Sr., as co-hostesses.

Three active members home from Oregon State college for the spring vacation attended, Misses Nancy Snyder, Beverly Beakey and Diane Perry. Mrs. William Frazer of Monmouth was an out-of-town alumna at the meeting. Twenty-seven in all attended the meeting.

Mrs. Donald L. Rasmussen, Mrs. Walter Snyder and Mrs. Robert Drager were named on the nominating committee.

Rebekah Plans 55th Anniversary Event

AMONG club hostesses Wednesday will be Mrs. A. C. Gerlinger, who is to entertain her bridge group for cards and a late supper tomorrow evening.

Guild Talks Over Spring Activities

Several activities for the spring months were discussed by members of St. Anne's guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church in meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William H. Burghardt.

The members as a group are to attend services in the church next Sunday morning, March 26, each member also to ask her husband to attend.

A rummage sale is set for May 10, 11 and 12 at the parish house.

The group voted to cooperate with other guilds in staging a luncheon for all women of the parish, the date to be set later.

About 40 members and guests attended the meeting. Guests included Mrs. George H. Swift, wife of the church rector; Mrs. Kenneth Muller, Mrs. James Lugenbeel and Mrs. James Elton, the latter of Seattle and guest of her sister, Mrs. George Welber.

At the dessert, Mrs. Donald McCargar and Mrs. Conrad Paulson poured. The serving table was set with a pale blue cloth, the centerpiece being an arrangement of daffodils, yellow forsythia and other spring blossoms.

Hostesses with Mrs. Burghardt for the afternoon were Mrs. Arthur Knox, Mrs. William Dolf, Mrs. Vernon Perry, Mrs. Robert Drager, Mrs. Carl Porter, member from Albany.

A CLUB hostess Monday was Mrs. George Alexander who entertained the Travel Study club for luncheon. Mrs. Harvard C. Moore, recent newcomer from Eugene, and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston were additional guests.

Guests at Bethel Event

About 100 attended the meeting for Bethel No. 35, Job's Daughters, Monday evening, when members of Ainsworth lodge, A.F. and A.M., were guests.

Escorted and honored were four past honored queens, Misses Marilyn Reay, Jean Herrig, Carolyn Eckersley and Shirlee Newbry; also Mrs. Kehne Wain, grand second messenger, and J. Edgar Reay, worshipful master of Ainsworth lodge.

Mrs. Wain presented each of the four past honored queens with a silver plate, each plate being engraved with the name of the recipient and the term she served as honored queen. The group is to make it a tradition to give each outgoing honored queen one of the plates.

The majority degree was conferred on Mrs. Donna Hudson.

Kliwer and Miss Dawn Jones. Plans were made to entertain Independence Bethel, No. 34, on April 3 at friendship night; and for a swim party for Bethel members on April 8 at the YMCA.
