

Movie Stars Could Do Much In Promoting Peace in World

By VIRGINIA MacPHERSON

Hollywood, April 12.—Movie stars could do a lot to promote world peace, Actress Janis Carter said today, if they'd just bother to answer their fan mail.

"People write to Hollywood from every corner of the world," the blonde beauty explained. "They want to know about our customs, our country, our people, our language... everything about us."

And mostly, she added, they have the wrong idea about what gives over here.

"Especially in Hollywood," Miss Carter said. "They seem to think we live in a little cellophane kingdom and come out only for special occasions. They've got the idea we're different from the rest of the world."

Now her idea is to have every glamour queen and movie man sit down and answer these letters in person. The United Nations boys keep pretty busy dickering with the kings and presidents and dictators, she says. Why not let Hollywood help 'em out with the little people?

"It'd be a lot of work, sure," she admitted, "and a lot of people in this town would have to get wise to themselves."

In the first place, they'd have to read their mail. Too many of 'em, Miss Carter said, dump it all into a studio secretary's lap because they can't be bothered.

"And with lots of these foreign letters they'd have to round up an interpreter," she went on. "I know. I hunted the town over, sometimes, to dig up somebody who could read Turkish or Chinese or Polish.

"But it pays off. Because the minute you send them an answer explaining how we do things over here, they send you one right back. Plenty of times they seem amazed that we're just plain people like they are."

And more than once, Miss Carter said, she's managed to cool down irate fans.

"There was a boy in Europe who really had a chip on his shoulder about the Marshall Plan. I looked up a few facts and wrote him a nice, long letter. The next time he wrote he wasn't so mad at us. Since then I've had about eight letters from him—and he's really pro-American now."

Multiply all this diplomatic penmanship by 1000, Miss Carter figures, and first thing you know Hollywood could be making new kinds of headlines around the world.

"SNOWDRIFT'S 3 minutes mixing makes lovely cakes"

"My husband is agog over my Snowdrift cakes. They are tops and so easy with your new 3-minute mixing method," says the new Mrs. Rogan.

HONEY CAKE

Try this Snowdrift quick-method recipe. A light, luscious cake—so easy to mix. No creaming! No separate egg-beating! You use only one bowl. But—you must have an emulsified shortening. And Snowdrift is emulsified to blend all ingredients completely—in 3 quick minutes.

Sift together into large bowl:
2 1/2 cups sifted cake flour
3 teaspoons double-action baking powder (or 4 tps. single-action)
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup sugar

Add:
1/2 cup Snowdrift
1/2 cup honey
1/2 cup milk

Mix enough to dampen flour. Beat 2 minutes. If by hand, count beating time only; with electric mixer, use "low speed." Scrape bowl often; scrape beaters after 2 minutes.

Add:
2 eggs
2 teaspoons grated orange rind
Beat 1 minute. Turn into 2 greased 8" layer pans, lined with plain paper. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) about 30 minutes. Frost with—
HONEY FROSTING: Combine 2 egg whites, 1 cup brown sugar, 1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar, 1/2 cup honey in top of double boiler. Place over boiling water. Beat constantly with a rotary beater until icing stands in peaks...about 7 minutes. Frost cake. Decorate top with chocolate sprinkles.
