

Young Riders Anticipate Horse Show

Await Horse Show—One of the features for the spring horse show of the Salem Saddle club and Oregon Mounted Posse this coming Saturday and Sunday at the State Fair grounds will be children's classes, one event for those under 12 years of age, another for those older than that.

Two enthusiastic young horsemen are Phil and Clark Jackson, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Holly Jackson, in picture above. They are shown here with their ponies, Clark, who is five years old, at left on Possum; and brother, Phil, who is seven years old, up on Princess, at right. Both will be in the open event for children. (Jesten-Miller studio picture).

Sunshine Girls To Install Officers

Independence—The regular meeting of the Friendship Council, No. 3, Pythian Sunshine Girls was held Monday evening at the Willamette temple.

There will be an installation of new officers the first meeting in May. Mae Ellen Harmin is installing officer with Betty Foster as grand royal prelate, Darlene Rule and Delores Rule as grand royal guide and grand mystic one.

New officers for the coming year are: Shirley Pippin, junior past princess; Sharon DeForest, royal princess; Peggy Moberly, charity; Barbara Coon, friendship; Cora Elvin, royal prelate; Virginia Scott, royal guide; Marilyn Mull, mystic one; Joan Frykberg, royal sentinel; Barbara Pippin, royal warder; Marlene Wilson, royal pianist; Joan Linville, royal exchequer; and Jean Hamblin, royal recorder.

Peggy Moberly was elected scribe, and Joan Corwin was elected trustee for 18 months.

Paula Freeburn Is Honored on Birthday

Auburn—Paula Jane Freeburn was the honored guest for a birthday party which her mother, Mrs. Douglas Freeburn arranged for her on her fifth birthday at their home on Morgan avenue.

The little girls brought their dolls and from gift packages of small prices of materials, with laces and ribbons dressed them for a party. Each one received a prize. Pink and white were the decorative colors with favors of handkerchief nosebags, balloons, and the refreshments pink lemonade, jello and the birthday cake.

Paula's special honored guest was Jeryl Strickfaden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joy Strickfaden who also has a birthday on the same day, and was the same age. Other guests were Marsha Toy, Carrie Strickfaden, DeLora Crenshaw, Cheryl Merrell, Susan Carl, Bonnie Kenny, Jean Jacobs, Beverly Prunk and Patty Jones.

Young People Feted At McCoy Residence

West Stayton—Barbara McCoy entertained a few young friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McCoy, on Thursday evening.

Games were played and refreshments of ice cream with chocolate topping and cake were served to Eddie Forrest, Billy Schafer, Kenneth Keudell, Dick Gilbert, Dwayne Crandall, John Lampman, Willie Joe Holt,

Soroptimists Plan Events

These next four days are busy ones for Salem Soroptimist club members who are in the midst of planning two events.

The group will entertain for the northwest regional conference opening here Friday for nearly 70 clubs in Oregon, Washington, Alaska, northern Idaho and Montana. Sessions open Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Marion hotel and in the evening a dinner and social will be given at Flying E ranch of Mr. and Mrs. Lee U. Eyerly. A meeting for the conference will be conducted at the ranch following the supper.

Sessions continue through Saturday and Sunday morning, the formal banquet, with installation of regional officers to be Saturday evening at the Chamber of Commerce, Governor Douglas McKay as speaker. Highlighting the luncheon Saturday noon at the American Legion club will be the address by Dr. Clifford W. Patton, New York City, liaison officer for UNESCO, who is the special conference guest.

Tea on Sunday

Second event for the club week-end will be the tea to be given following Blossom Day tour of the Cherrians, Sunday, the tea to be at the G. E. McCormick residence between 2:30 and 3 o'clock. Members of the club will assist at the event.

At the regular club luncheon Wednesday at the Golden Pheasant, all committee chairmen working on plans for the conference opening Friday gave their reports.

The late Fair stadium is at present a beehive of activity as the preparations go forward for the horse show this week-end. Monty Foreman, a star performer with a cutting horse, has wired the committee he will be here and is bringing Barney, the cutting horse of Ray Smyth of Aledo, Tex.

Golf Day Event For Wednesday

A large group turned out for women's golf day, Wednesday, at the Salem Golf club.

Winners in the day's play included Mrs. Ralph Hamilton, class A; Mrs. James Sears, class B; Mrs. Claybourne Dyer, class C; Mrs. Conrad Paulus, Mrs. Howard Eismann, tied in class D. The group continued play on the point tournament.

Following the morning's play, luncheon was served, and Mrs. Fred Bernardi, captain, conducted a business session with report on the Oregon Women's Golf association board meeting and rules of the state group.

Mrs. Martha Selkirk and Mrs. Joseph M. Devers, Jr., were guests for the day.

AMONG out-of-town guests to be here for the Subscription club's dance Saturday evening at the Marion hotel will be Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Kern of Portland who will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Walker of Independence.

NEIGHBORS of Woodcraft are meeting Friday at 8 p.m. in the Salem Woman's club house for advance night.

The whole Saddle club will regret to see Mrs. Ella Wilson leave the fair, for if any one is irreplaceable she is the one. However, being manager of the Multnomah County fair is quite an honor and she is going to this new post with the best wishes of all the horse owners as well as her many friends in the Willamette valley.

At the last meeting of the posse, plans were formed for the drill team for the coming year. The applications of Mike Southard and Jack Scott were accepted and the resignations of Holly Jackson as captain and Tom Allen as first lieutenant were tabled, to be acted on after the drill practice this Thursday when their successors will be picked.

BUENA VISTA—Miss Verna Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Gray, and John Ruston of Cottonwood, Ariz., were married Tuesday, April 4 in Vancouver, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Gray attended them. They went on a short honeymoon to the coast. For the present they will make their home in Buena Vista.

NORTH SALEM W.C.T.U. is meeting Friday at 2 p.m. at the Calvary Chapel church. Mrs. C. C. Bell is to lead the devotions and Mrs. W. A. Barkus will give a report on the mid-year session for the state executive group.

Dieter's Delight—Cottage cheese and rye wafers

(AP Newsfeature)

There are lots of canned peaches around these days so why not try this fruit for spring-time meals? For a weekday or Saturday lunch team them with such nutritious and delicious dairy foods as cheese and milk—Papa, Mama, and the kids will be bursting with vitamins.

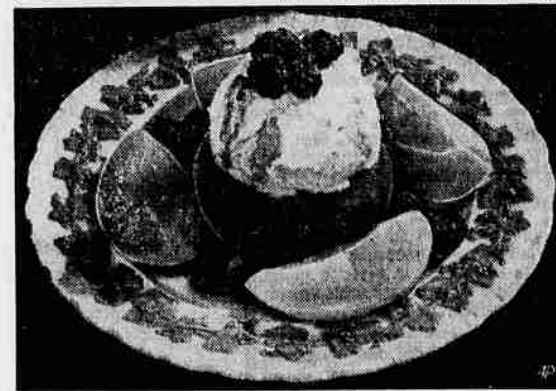

I particularly like cottage cheese with the peaches, as shown in the salad pictured here, but cream cheese is delicious, too. For color contrast on your salad add strips of green pepper, a black olive and lettuce. For texture contrast serve with crisp rye wafers. If anyone in your family is dieting serve the salad without dressing, the cottage cheese "as is," and the crisp rye wafers without butter. For non-dieters add sour cream to the cheese, bring on a savory French dressing, pass the butter!

For dinner-time dessert you might try doughnuts peach-Melba style. I like my doughnuts plain, but if you have a compulsion to fancy them up, combine doughnuts, ice cream, peaches and frozen raspberries for a quick Peach Melba.

What to do with the syrup from the peaches after you've used the fruit itself in salad or dessert? Here's a recipe solution!

Peach Chero Sauce
Ingredients: 1 cup syrup from canned cling peaches, 2 tablespoons syrup from maraschino cherries, 1 1/2 teaspoons cornstarch, 1 tablespoon sugar, dash of salt, 1/2 cup canned cling peach slices or other diced fruit, 2 tablespoons quartered maraschino cherries.

Method: Heat peach and cherry syrups together. Blend cornstarch, sugar, and salt; add to fruit syrups and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened and bubbly. Boil a minute or two longer. Remove from heat and stir in sliced peaches or other fruit and cherries. Chill. Serve on ice cream, custard, rice or cottage pudding. Makes about 1 1/2 cups sauce.

Peach Melba—Quickly dessert favorite

WANT a new sandwich filling for the lunchbox? Use a half cup of ground bologna sausage with a hard-cooked egg and season with sweet pickle relish, onion juice, salad dressing, salt and pepper.
