

Morse Opponent Gives Platform

Portland, April 13 (AP)—Dave Hoover of Deadwood, candidate for the republican nomination for United States senator, is for lower taxes but opposes government subsidies, foreign spending and the Columbia Valley Administration.

Hoover, who opposes Sen. Wayne Morse in the May 19 primary, expressed his views during an "on the record" radio interview at the Oregon Press club Tuesday.

The Lane County dairyman said he would like to see taxes reduced and added that Marshall plan funds should be tapered off as soon as possible.

"The sooner we get over pouring money down the European rat hole the better off we'll be,"

Hoover declared. Hoover said he was against a CVA and would spend less money for federal power projects. "We should let private enterprise do the job wherever possible," he said. He admitted, however, there were some jobs too large for private financing. Asked about subsidies to farmers, Hoover, himself a farmer, said: "We should get rid of subsidies and let the laws of supply and demand operate."

He admitted, however, that he had accepted subsidy payments for butterfat.

"As long as it was there I wanted to get my share," he declared, "but I don't believe in it."
