

Miss Goggin, Mr. Predeek Wed May 27 at Mt. Angel

Mt. Angel—Miss Stella Mary Goggin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Goggin of DeGraff, Minn., was wed to Paul H. Predeek of Vancouver, Wash., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Predeek of Mt. Angel, May 27 in the St. Mary's Catholic church, Mt. Angel. Rev. Father Vincent Koppert, OSB, officiated at 10:30 a.m., with a nuptial high mass before the main altar, decorated with snowballs, peonies and hawthorne and lighted by cathedral candles. Robert Scharbach, nephew of the bridegroom, and Ronald Harris served at the altar. Miss Helen Keber played the wedding music. The Misses Pauline Saalfeld and Eustelle Bauman sang before the processional and recessional marches, and the St. Mary's choir sang the mass.

Miss Goggin, escorted to the altar by her brother, James Goggin of Vancouver, Wash., wore an egg-shell satin gown with beaded collar and cape sleeves on fitted bodice and full floor length skirt. Her off-white illusion fingertip veil held by a pearl beaded crown, was the same one worn by her sister-in-law, Mrs. James Goggin, for her wedding, as was the white prayer book, carried by the bride. The prayer book was topped by white carnations and rosebuds corsage with satin streamers, and the bride's only jewelry a gold bracelet, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss LaVina Goggin of Vancouver, attended her sister as bridesmaid. She was dressed in a pink nylon net over satin gown, made with a fitted bodice topped by a sweetheart neckline and a triple strand of pearls, and a full floor length skirt. Her headdress was a net halo to match and she carried sweetpeas and carnations. Her gold bracelet with rhinestones was a gift from the bride.

Michael V. Welton of Mt. Angel stood with the benedict as best man while Raymond Predeek and Clarence Predeek ushered guests to their seats.

Mrs. Predeek attended her son's wedding wearing a green suit and white accessories and a rhododendron corsage.

The wedding dinner was served in the St. Mary's dining hall when covers were placed for about 45 guests including the wedding party, clergy and the immediate relatives. Miss Mary Lou Weissenfels and Miss Evelyn Purdy served.

A reception was given in the same hall between 2 and 4 p.m. Mrs. James Goggin of Vancouver cut the cake. Mrs. August Scharbach, sister of the benedict, poured, and his other sister Mrs. Robert Miller of Woodburn, Mrs. Clifford Holmes of Battleground, Wash., and sister-in-law, Mrs. Clarence Predeek of Mt. Angel, assisted in serving
