

Senators Nip Caps, 11-7, in Opener

McNulty Goes Route for Second Win With Liskas

The Vancouver Caplans started off well and finished bravely but in between the Senators did a right smart job of scoring on their own behalf. And since seven runs do not equal 11, even in these times of inflation, the Solons pocketed the first of the three games series with the men from across the border, 11-7, Tuesday night at Waters field.

The second and third tilts will take place Wednesday and Thursday nights at 8:15. Attendance for the first mix was held to 471 because of a threat of rain. In fact quite a sprinkle dampened the scene along about the third inning Tuesday night.

The win can be attributed largely to a strong Solon attack that accumulated 16 assorted hits off three Cap pitchers — George Nicholas, Kevit King and Bob Bruener. Nicholas, lifted in the sixth, took the loss.

Ray McNulty turned in his second victory since joining the club, although he needed the eight run cushion his mates gave him to finish out the nine inning string. Three walks and three singles were good for four Caplans runs in the ninth.

The Caps started shelling McNulty from the first pitch when Jim Robinson singled and Red Clarkson scored him with a triple. A McNulty error allowed Clarkson to hit home plate. Clarkson's home run in the third, with the ball barely clearing the right field fence, constituted the last Cap run until the ninth.

Nicholas gave evidence early that he wasn't unbeatable. The Senators nicked him for three hits in the first three frames but didn't break through until the fourth when singles by Mel Wasley and Bill Beard and Bob Cherry's double were good for two runs.

Mel Wasley's circuit blast with two on in the fifth put Salem on in front, 5 to 3. Three more runs were added in the sixth when Beard opened with a two baser. Singles by Gaviglio and Bartle drove in the runs. Incidentally Bartle had one of his best nights at the plate this season, coming through with four hits in five appearances. Wasley fashioned a similar offensive program.

Five successive singles after two were out in the 8th were good for three runs. Hitting were Gaviglio, Scott, Bartle, Wasley and Cherry.

Wally Scott returned to his customary shortstop berth after being sidelined with a badly spiked leg a week ago. Hal Zurcher, in right field, after a sojourn in California, failed to hit safely but displayed the competitive spirit that made him popular with the customers earlier in the season.

ney will be seeking his 15th win of the season as he faces Bill Brenner's club dwellers. Yakima eked out a 9-8 win over Tacoma Tuesday night to trim the Tigers' first place margin to 2½ games. The loss was the fifth in a row for Manager Jim Brillheart's club while Yakima boasts a six game win streak. Dewey Soriano, Yakima club president, made his second appearance of the season on the mound when he took over in the seventh to get credit for the win. Other games were washed out.

Late Starters Take Lead For WIL Pitching Honors

Tacoma, June 21 (AP)—A pair of late starters, Vancouver's Sandy Robertson and Tri-City's Gene Roe Sple, are the Western International league's new pitching pace-setters.

Each matched the other's progress last week by achieving two victories, and their won-lost records remained identical at 5-0, elevating them to the top of the heap.

Next in line with an 8-1 season's performance—he dropped his first start and subsequently has copied eight straight — is John Marshall, veteran Victoria right-hander.

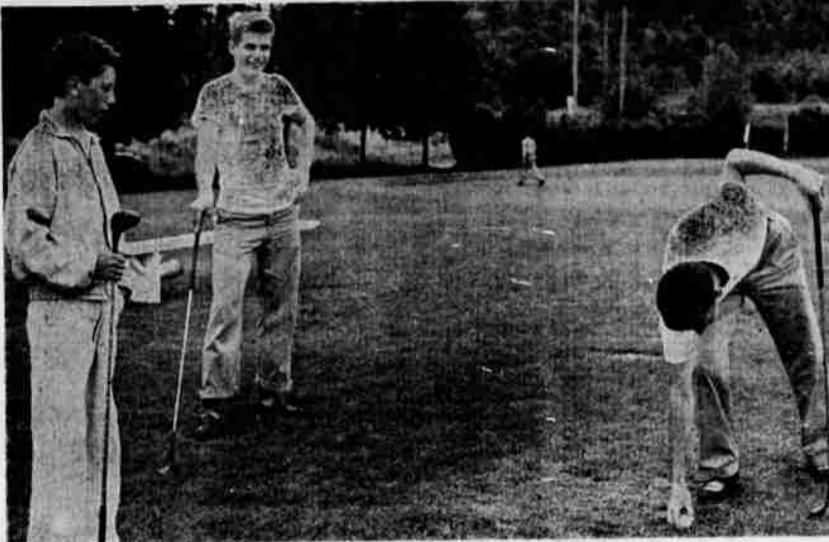

Additional statistics released today by the office of Robert B. Abel, league president, showed Bob Kerrigan of Tacoma (10-2) and John Tierney of Salem (11-4) as the occupants of the fourth and fifth spots, respectively, after Kerrigan was tagged with one more defeat and Tierney dropped a pair following the last compilation.

Lloyd Dickey, the Yakima southpaw fireball artist, retained his league strikeout lead with 93 in just 83 innings, having added nine more whiffs in a single appearance, while Wenatchee's two deceivers, Tom Breisinger and Don Ferrarese, were next in line with 90 and 87, respectively. Breisinger has hurled 100 innings and Ferrarese 94.

First Rounders Carded in Golf Meet for Juniors

Two first round matches were fired Tuesday in connection with the junior division of the Wicklund sponsored golf tournament at the Salem Golf club. Jack Olney beat Jack Baker, 5-4 and won over Mickey Raschko, 3-2. The latter had previously beaten Don Callaghan, 2 up.

Bob Albrich defeated Leo Sebern and Bob Gordon, 4-3 and 5-3, respectively.

Additional results were: Kent Myers over Paul Sundin, 1 up; Ed Knapp over Ed Bauer, 4-2; Bob Gordon over Gary Campbell, 4-3; Ron Hoxie over Don Hughes, 3-2.

Texas Hands WSC First Setback in NCAA Baseball

Omaha, Neb., June 21 (AP)—The University of Texas Longhorns trampled the Washington State Cougars 12 to 1 last night to even the count in the National Collegiate Athletic association baseball tournament.

Texas bunched 15 hits effectively to down the Cougars. It was Washington State's first defeat in the double-elimination tourney and left the Cougars and Longhorns with identical records of three victories and one defeat.

Wisconsin eliminated Alabama, 3 to 1, in the opening game of last night's doubleheader to remain in the running with Texas, Washington State and Rutgers. Wisconsin and Rutgers each have won two and lost one. Sudden death faces losers from now on, and either Wisconsin or Rutgers will drop by the wayside when they clash in tonight's only contest.

Cluter Paces 8-2 Victory Over Tribe; Musial at 1,500

By JOE REICHLER (Associated Press Sports Writer)
Joe DiMaggio today and Stan Musial has 1,500.

Each slugger attained his immediate goal last night but DiMaggio's was by far the more satisfying.

Joe collected two hits to drive in three runs and lead the New York Yankees to an important 8-2 triumph over the Cleveland Indians. The victory, coupled with Washington's 4-2 victory over Detroit boosted the runner-up Yankees to within one game of the American league leading Tigers.

Stan slammed one hit—a home run—but it didn't prevent the New York Giants from gaining their first victory of the season over his St. Louis Cardinals, 3-2. The defeat knocked the Cards out of a first place tie with Brooklyn. The Dodgers thrashed the Cincinnati Reds, 8-2, to take a game lead over the Redbirds.

Boston's Red Sox and Philadelphia's Phillies, third in their respective leagues, gained some ground. The Red Sox triumphed over the Chicago's White Sox, 5-3, while the Phils toppled the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-3.

The St. Louis Browns, behind Ned Garver, shut out Lou Brissie and the Philadelphia Athletics, 1-0. The Chicago Cubs won a 10-inning struggle from Boston's Braves, 4-3.

DiMaggio now joins 41-year-old Luke Appling of the White Sox and 40-year-old Wally Moses of the Athletics as the

Seattle Hands Beavers 4-2 Defeat at Vaughn

Seattle made the Pacific Coast league season's first stop at the Vaughn street park in Portland yesterday and emerged with a 4-2 victory that left them only a bare percentage point out of sixth place.

Frank Colman's first inning three-run homer was all the Rainiers needed.

Hector Brown, Seattle's starting hurler, got credit for the win although he gave way to Southpaw Al Gerheuser in the eighth when the Beavers threatened to knot the count.

Hollywood's Art Schallock tossed a five-hitter at the Seals, beating them 2-1 for his first victory this season in the first meeting of the clubs this year.

Women's Golfing Traffic to Boom In Western Open

Denver, June 21 (AP)—Traffic on the trouble-strewn finishing holes of the tough Cherry Hills course is expected to pick up today as half a dozen top pros and 10 amateurs resume the chase for the women's western open golf title.

In yesterday's opening round, of scheduled 18-hole matches, only two went the full route. Four others extended past the 13th hole. The balance—10 of 16 matches—were settled before the 14th tee was reached.

The medalist, Grace De Moss, of Corvallis, Ore., meets Mrs. Lyle Bowman of Portland, Ore. They have played each other six times in tournaments and Mrs. s. Bowman has won five times.
