

Goldenweds To Be Feted At Reception

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Glass are observing their golden wedding anniversary at a reception planned for next Sunday evening.

Guests have been bidden to the Manbrin Gardens home of the couple between 5 and 6 and between 7 and 8 o'clock.

The anniversary is June 27. The couple were married in Prattsburg, New York, and have resided in Salem for the past 10 years.

All their family will be here for the anniversary, including their daughter, Miss Brenda Glass, who is at home; three sons, Nelson S. Glass of Boulder, Colo., Robert S. Glass of Winter Park, Fla., who is to be accompanied by his son, Malcolm; and James M. Glass, Jr., Chattanooga, Tenn., who will be accompanied by his wife and their son, James Glass III. The honored couple have five grandchildren.

At the Sunday reception, Mrs. James M. Glass, Jr., will serve the cake and pouring will be Mrs. Darold Elkins and Mrs. Fred Lange.

A family dinner will be given on the day of the anniversary, June 27.

Silverton Couple Married 50 Years

Silverton — Of special interest to their many local friends is the observance of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Chidsey of 1311 Pine street, Silverton, at the Baker, Oregon, home of a daughter, Mrs. R. B. McCord, next Sunday afternoon, June 25. The open house is to be between 2 and 5 o'clock.

The Chidseys, married of eastern Oregon, were natives of June 24, 1900, at the Prairie City family home of the bride who was Miss Pearl Franklin, the Rev. Ezra Hays, officiating. Their children and grandchildren, who plan to be present at the golden wedding, are Mrs. R. B. (Neva) McCord of Baker, Edward F. Chidsey of La Grande, and Mrs. Joe (Melba) Stoy of Grants Pass. The grandchildren and members of their families are of Baker, Mrs. Kenneth Sturgill (Barbara McCord) and Blair, Mrs. Melvin Durgan (Dorothy McCord) and Michael, Leslie Ann, Shirley, Sharon and Oliver; of LaGrande, Mrs. Warren Chandler (Beverly Chidsey) and Sandra, Sharon and Jackie; of Portland, Mrs. Allen Mills (Dorothy Chidsey) and James. A son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stoy of Grants Pass, David, will be unable to attend the affair at Baker as he is a member of a Boy Scout group making the trip to Valley Forge.

Mrs. Joe Stoy came to Silverton the latter part of the week and with her parents accompanied her brother, Edward F. Chidsey who drove from his home in LaGrande, to Baker, leaving Monday. They plan to be in eastern Oregon for a fortnight.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Chidsey are active in civic, lodge and church affairs locally. They have been residents here for a number of years.

Buffet Dinner Given

Stayton — A buffet dinner marked the 30th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jones, recently at their home on West Stayton road. Married in Los Angeles June 12, 1920, while Mr. Jones was still in the navy, the family lived in California for many years, moving to Stayton more than three years ago.

They have two sons, Stanley Jones, who recently re-enlisted in the army intending to make it his career, and Leland Jones who is in the air force in Texas. Their daughter is Mrs. Glen Damewood of North Howell.

A large anniversary cake, baked by the Stayton bakery was a feature of the dinner. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Craft, Misses Patricia and Dorothy Case, Richard Brayton, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pope, all of Silverton Hills; Mr. and Mrs. Damewood and son Edward of North Howell; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Schoenauer and two children of Mehama; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Knight, Mrs. Nellie Jones and George Downing.

DAYTON—Mrs. Dolph Goodrich and Mrs. Ross Cruickshank were hostesses for a bridal shower, at the Goodrich home, on Saturday evening, honoring Mrs. Laurence Allen, who was formerly Miss Marian Maynard, of Three Mile Lane. There were about 30 present to enjoy games, and gifts were given the honored guest. Refreshments were served.

Silverton—Miss Thora Arestad is the new president of the Silverton Women's and Professional Business club, inducted having been conducted recently. (Drake studio, Silverton)

Wedding at Local Church

St. Vincent de Paul Catholic church was the scene of the double ring wedding of Miss Lorene Boedigheimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boedigheimer of Salem, and Thomas Holmes, son of Earl Holmes of Brooks, on Saturday, June 17.

Rev. George L. O'Keefe, pastor, performed the 10 o'clock nuptial mass. The altar was decorated with pink and white peonies and white delphiniums. Wayne Meusey was the organist and the soloist was Gerald Nirtling.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown, fashioned with train and long sleeves, fitted bodice and lace yoke. The fingertip veil with circular head dress was arranged with pearl flowers.

The bride carried a lavender orchid on a white prayer book. Mrs. Joseph Frichtl, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pale green marquisette dress. She carried a nosegay of white and pink carnations.

The bridesmaids' dresses were made identically to that of the matron of honor. Miss Vanah Holmes, sister of the bridegroom, wore pink; Miss Helen Fery, cousin of the bride, wore yellow. Sharee Masser, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a yellow frock. Best man was Joseph Frichtl, brother-in-law of the bride. Groomsmen were Robert Boedigheimer, brother of the bride, and Don Blair. Ushers were George Frichtl, Tony Masser, uncles of the bride and Jesse Holmes, brother of the bridegroom. Mass servers were Gerry and Ronnie Boedigheimer, cousins of the bride.

Mrs. Albert Boedigheimer selected a gold suit for her daughter's wedding. She wore a navy blue hat and a corsage of pink carnations.

Following the wedding, a dinner was served in the parish hall. Mrs. Mary Gofried had charge of the wedding dinner and Mrs. Ethel Patterson assisted. Mrs. George Frichtl, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. William Boedigheimer, Mrs. Fred Fery, aunts of the bride, served. Assisting were Misses Marlene and Maryline Frichtl, Miss Marie and Laura Bell Fery, cousins of the bride; Mrs. Tony Masser, aunt of the bride, and two classmates, Miss Dorothy Kessie and Miss Betty Menkie. Miss Ruby Bairley, a

Engagements Announced

Two engagements were announced Saturday afternoon at a party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John St. Clair. Hidden in corsages of pink and white carnations which were presented to each guest on arrival were the names of two couples, Miss Patricia Lockhart announcing her betrothal to Robert Rasmussen, and Miss Jacqueline St. Clair telling of her engagement to Paul Benage.

Miss Lockhart is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lockhart of Salem and Mr. Rasmussen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Rasmussen of Nehalem. Miss St. Clair is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John St. Clair of Salem and Mr. Benage is the son of Mrs. Roy Paddock of the Park place.

Miss Lockhart and Miss St. Clair attended Salem schools. Mr. Rasmussen was graduated from Oregon State college with the class of 1950 and Mr. Benage was graduated from Willamette university with the class of 1949.

Games were played and luncheon served to the brides-elect and guests at a table decorated in pink and white.

Those attending were Mrs. Donald Thorn, Mrs. Marlin St. Clair, Misses Ora Lee Frey, Floribel Gordon, Beverly Fox, Patricia St. Clair, Mary McConnell, Caroline Lockhart, and the brides-elect.

No dates have been set for the weddings.
