

Table Showing Changes Made In Social Security Benefits

Washington, June 21 (AP)—The following tables illustrate the social security changes approved by the senate today as compared with present levels and the changes approved by the house last year:

140 Register At Willamette

One hundred and forty students were registered when the first session of the summer school at Willamette university opened Tuesday. This is a drop of enrollment from the past two years, having been 240 in '48 and 203 in '49. However, the 1948 figure included 28 enrolled in the college of law which is not operating this year.

Present Benefit	House Bill	Senate Bill	Maximum Family Benefit (1)
$10	$25	$20	$40
15	31	31	50
20	36	37	59
25	44	48	78
30	51	56	113
35	55	62	145
40	60	68	150
45	64	72	150

(1) Same for both house and senate bills.
(Example: A retired worker now receiving $30 a month would receive $51 under the house bill or $56 under the senate bill. His maximum family benefit would be $113).

The education department had the largest enrollment. Two courses in economics, conducted by Dr. Leland Gordon, visiting professor, are still open to students. They are "Labor Economics" and "Economics for Consumers." Both classes are held in the forenoon.

Benefit for worker over 65 with five years full coverage since 1935:

Average Monthly Wage Covered	Present Law	House Bill	Senate Bill
$50	$21	$26	$25
100	26	51	50
150	32	56	58
200	37	62	65
250	42	67	72
300	42	72	80
300	56	84	80

Lawn Party Celebrates Birthday Anniversary

Lyons—Mrs. Clarence Jungwirth and Mrs. Hugh Johnston entertained the Brownie Girl Scouts at the Jungwirth home Tuesday evening with a lawn party and wicker roast honoring Christie Johnson on her birthday anniversary.

A widow of an eligible worker receives three-quarters of the benefit her husband would have received.

A retired worker receives an additional 50 per cent of his benefit when his wife reaches 65. He would also receive an extra three-quarters of his benefit for a child who is under 18 when he retires. For each additional child under 18, he receives an extra 50 per cent of his benefit.

The maximum family benefit a worker can receive per month under the house and senate bills is $150.

25 Attend Area Confab

Mill City — It was estimated that 25 members of Santiam Rebekah lodge attended the evening session of district No. 7 Rebekah convention in Lyons. During the afternoon session there were 16 present representing Mill City, Wilma Stewart of Mill City was installed as district conductor for the 1951 convention which will be held in Turring.

Gabriel Asks Zone Change On North Side of Capitol

The city planning and zoning commission Tuesday night set a public hearing tentatively for July 18 on petition of Thomas B. Gabriel for a zone change on the east side of North Capitol north of Union street.

The change requested is from Class I residential to Class III type of construction.

To the city council a recommendation was made that the city purchase a strip 25 by 250 feet of the Stringum property to permit the widening of Judson street west of South Commercial. Judson is now only 25 feet wide. The property is appraised at $1250.
