

Miss Starks, Mr. Hockett United in June 29 Rites

Independence—Miss Betty Lorraine Starks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Starks, Sr., was married to Marvin Charles Hockett, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Hockett of Dallas, in a double ring ceremony at the First Baptist church on Thursday, June 29, at 7:30 p.m. The Rev. Vernon O. Eggebraaten officiated.

The altar was decorated with tapers, palms and two large baskets of Calla lilies, sweetheart roses and mock orange blossoms. In the back of the church were chrysanthemums, carnations and pink snapdragons.

Soloist was Miss Marcella Jacobs. The wedding music and marches were played on the organ by Mrs. Eggebraaten.

Tapers were lighted by Miss Sharon Campbell, and Miss Violet Starks, a sister of the bride. They wore identical blue net gowns.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose the traditional white satin gown, with long sleeves pointed at the wrists, sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice, a large bow at the waist in the back, and full skirt with long train. She wore a fingertip illusion veil, which was arranged from a headpiece of lilies of the valley. The bride carried a white Bible with two white gardenias and honey-suckle from which were arranged white satin streamers tied with white sweet peas.

Terry and Tina Strand, small cousins of the bride, were the flower girl and flower boy. Tina was dressed in a yellow floor-length dress. The ring bearers were Leon King, and Caroline Fountain, who wore a pink net gown. Mary Jo May, wearing a pink dotted Swiss gown, was the train bearer.

Mrs. Charlotte Hockett, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, wearing a pink sheer crepe gown, and carrying a nosegay of sweet peas with a pink carnation in the center, was the matron of honor.

The four bridesmaids were Miss Bobby May of Monmouth, who wore a white crepe formal, and carried pink carnations; Miss Caroline Johnson of Dallas, attired in a gown of yellow taffeta and carrying yellow carnations; Miss Patsy Goldsborough of Monmouth, dressed in an aqua net gown and carrying deep rose carnations; and Miss Barbara Whitwell of Monmouth, wearing a pink crepe and net frocks, carrying pale pink carnations.

Best man was Wayne Hockett, brother of the bridegroom. Those serving as ushers were Everett Hockett of Dallas, another brother of the bridegroom, and Don King, Don Campbell, and Glenn Starks, all of Independence.

Mrs. Starks wore a dress of gray print crepe with white and gray accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors which were decorated with sweet peas and candles. A three tiered wedding cake, made by Mrs. Ray Howard, was served from a table covered with a lace cloth. Mrs. Ruth Strand, aunt of the bride, poured the coffee, and Mrs. Ralph King poured the punch. Mrs. Howard was in charge of serving the wedding cake and ice cream.

Ruby Mills had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Hazel Parrish and Miss Joyce Drew had charge of the gift table.

For going away, the bride was dressed in an aqua outfit, with white accessories. After a motor trip, the couple will be at home at 1019 Clay street, Dallas.

ON TUESDAY, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker were hosts for an informal holiday dinner on their patio. In the group were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald M. Robison, Mr. Robison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manley Robison, and the Parkers.

SHERIDAN—Mr. and Mrs. George Crisp celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary this week with a dinner. Guests were Herman Michel, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Michel, Miss Dorothy Michel, all of Minneapolis, Minn., Mrs. Mary Wilkens and Miss Phyllis Wilkens of McMinnville.

LEAVING today for a 10-day trip to Chicago were Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Gordon and daughter.

Miss Compton Wed At Ceremony June 30

Hopewell — The Hopewell United Brethren church, Friday, June 30, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Doris Compton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Compton of Fairview district, and Stanley Smeltzer, son of Mrs. Mary Smeltzer of Amity. The Rev. Richmond H.

Horton officiated at the 3 o'clock rites in the presence of the immediate families of the couple.

The bride, given in marriage by her mother, wore an apple green gabardine suit, with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations and rosebuds. Mrs. Lyle Tresham of McMinnville was matron of honor for her sister and she wore a powder blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. Lyle Tresham of McMinnville was best man.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. A five-tiered wedding cake centered the serving table and was cut by Mrs. Smeltzer, mother of the bridegroom. The bride's mother and sisters served. After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Amity.
