

Dedication Court Street Christian Church Sunday

Dedication services for the new Court Street Christian church sanctuary will be held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, according to announcement by Rev. W. H. Lyman, minister to the congregation.

The dedication message will be given by Gertrude Shoemaker, missionary to the Belgian Congo and a daughter of B. F. Shoemaker, former pastor of the church. At the evening service, the pulpit and communion table will be dedicated as a memorial to Rev. Shoemaker.

O. P. Wegner served as chairman of the building committee during the recent construction program. Other members are Lewis Shepherd, Stanley Fagg, B. F. Hollingsworth and Wm. McMorris.

Court Street Christian church was organized Aug. 23, 1914 when 18 persons signed the membership roll. A mission Bible school had been organized in 1913 and what was known for a number of years as the "bungalo church" was built at that time.

The unit to be dedicated Sunday includes the sanctuary seating 450, with arrangements whereby the narthex can be opened to accommodate an additional 75. The new structure will also house the church offices, kitchen and dining room.

Ministers who have served the congregation through the years include R. L. Morton, Frank E. Jones, R. L. Putman, N. J. Reasner, B. F. Shoemaker, Hugh McCallum, Delbert Daniels and the present minister, W. Harold Lyman.

BIBLE QUIZ ANSWER

NOW THERE AROSE up a new king over Egypt, which knew not Joseph. And he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier than we: Come on, let us deal wisely with them; lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that when there falleth out any war, they join also unto our enemies, and fight against us.

And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage. . . . And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives. . . . And he said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women. . . if it be a son, then ye shall kill him; but if it be a daughter, then she shall live. But the midwives feared God, and did not as the king of Egypt commanded them. . . . And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every son that is born ye shall cast into the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive.

AND THERE AROSE a man to the house of Levi, and took to wife a daughter of Levi. And the woman conceived, and bare a son; and when she saw him that he was a goodly child, she hid him three months. And when she could no longer hide him, she took for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the flags by the river bank. And his sister stood afar off, to wit what would be done to him.

AND THE DAUGHTER of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river; and her maidens walked along by the river's side; and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it. And when she had opened it, she saw the child; and behold the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said, this is one of the Hebrew's children.

Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee? And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Go. And the maid went and called the child's mother. And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will give thee thy wages. And the woman took the child and nursed it.

AND THE CHILD grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moses; and she said, because I drew him out of the water. (EXODUS 1: 8-22; 2: 1-16. From the Oxford Bible.)
