Miss Hale To be Wed On Oct. 14

The fall months will be marked by many weddings, too, and latest to announce the date for her nuptials is Miss Patricia Hale, who has set Saturday, October 14, as date for her marriage to Dean Allport.

The wedding will be in St. Paul's Episcopal church, the reception following in the church parish hall.

Miss Hale is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Hale. Her sister, Mrs. Phillip Blankenship (Doris Hale) was married July 1.

Mr. Allport is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Allport.

The engagement of the couple was announced last fall.

Girls Attend Scout Camp

A large number of Girl Scouts from the Salem district are registered for the two-week period of the Santiam Area Girl Scout summer camp at Smith Creek, July 24 to August 6.

The physical checkups will be given this Friday evening at the YMCA at 7 o'clock.

There will be opportunity for parents and friends to visit the camp during this session on Sunday, July 30, between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock.

Girls from the Salem district who will join other Girl Scouts from the Santiam area at Smith Creek camp are: Anne Heltzel, Kathie Heltzel, Joan Crossland, Betty Lou Johnson, Judith Bone, Judy Templeton, Anne Marie Berger, Beverly Stein, Peggy Barker, Lynne Eneyart, Barbara Lafkyl, Linda Davis, Susan Keech, Fritz Manbeck, Diane Clough, Carol Randall, Mary Lou Starr, Judy Bale, Jacqueline Smalley, Sondra Jochimson, Joan Bale, Myrtle Robb and Catherine Robbins.

THETA RHO girls club, Beta Iota chapter, No. 57, meet at the IOOF hall last night and elected Ida Pauline Comer to membership.

The girls made plans to go to the home of Mrs. James Mennis on Saturday evening, July 29, at 8 o'clock, for a slumber party.

The next meeting of the group is August 3.

VISITORS here during the mid-week were Miss Gertrude Eakin and Miss Alice Judd of Long Beach, Calif., who stopped a few hours en route to Timberline Lodge and the Mt. Hood country to spend their vacation. In Salem they were luncheon guests of Mrs. Margaret Rosecrans. Miss Eakin is executive director of the YWCA in Long Beach.

Portland and Salem units of the Women's Overseas Service league are planning a no-host picnic at Champoeg, Sunday, July 23, at 1 p.m. Women who served overseas during World War I and II are invited to attend. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Alta Hewitt, phone 3-3836.

Christening Sunday

Christening ceremonies for Christopher George Smith, seven-months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Payson Smith are to be conducted Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service in St. Paul's Episcopal church. Officiating will be the baby's grandfather, the Rev. George H. Swift, rector of the church.

Godparents are to be uncles and aunts of the little boy, Mr. and Mrs. Roger K. Putnam, George H. Swift, Jr., and Miss Jean Claude Swift, the latter visiting from San Francisco.

Grandparents of the baby are the Rev. and Mrs. George H. Swift of Salem and Mrs. Jack Snow of Santa Maria, Calif. The baby is the second son in the Smith family, the brother being Michael, who is nearly six years old.

Miss Anderson Wed Tuesday

Four Corners — In the presence of the immediate relatives and friends, Miss June Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy T. Anderson, was wed to Lauren R. Johnson, U.S.N., son of Mrs. Hannah Johnson, in a simple ceremony on Tuesday, July 18, at 7 p.m. in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church in Salem.

The Rev. George H. Swift read the nuptial vows. The bride was given in marriage by her father. For her wedding she wore a medium blue checked wool suit and corsage of white carnations.

Mr. Robert Helstrom was matron of honor. Her suit was of pale blue gabardine and she wore a corsage of white carnations.

Robert Helstrom, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride's mother chose a summer beige suit and a corsage of mixed flowers. Mrs. Johnson was gowning in a printed ensemble. Her corsage was also of mixed flowers.

DAYTON — Miss Lois Frink entertained with a bridal shower at her home last week for Miss Joan McKimms of McMinnville, who is the bride-elect of Fred Price of Corvallis. The wedding is planned for August 6.

Wed in June—Mr. and Mrs. Miller H. Myers were married in the United Brethren church June 17. The couple are at home in Powers. Mrs. Myers was Mrs. Paul Disney before her marriage. (McEwan studio picture.)

Miss Rose To Be Bride

Of interest to Salem friends is the wedding of Miss Sally Rose of Portland and Robert Stock of Seattle, the ceremony to be solemnized at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon in Trinity Episcopal church in Portland.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Merrill Rose of Portland and the late Mr. Rose, and a niece of the late Governor Earl Snell.

The reception following the service will be at the Rose home. Attending the wedding from Salem will be Mrs. Earl Snell and Mrs. Olive M. Currey.

Gardeners Picnic

The Oak Grove Gardeners of Rickreall met at the home of Mrs. Lee Gibson for a no-host picnic Tuesday. A card and handkerchief shower was given in honor of Mrs. Clara Brunk on her 80th birthday. The garden club members presented her with a cake, following which Mrs. Brunk gave a short talk on her life.

Club members present were Mrs. Clara Brunk, Mrs. Mae Herrell, Mrs. Ella Gibson, Mrs. Blanche Farmer, Mrs. Jennie Hogg, Mrs. Dora Pugh, Mrs. Arline Rowe, Mrs. Nellie White, Mrs. Pearl Allen, Mrs. Rildie Allen, Mrs. Radcliff, Miss Bertha Allen, Mrs. Florence Ragsdale, Mrs. Ruby Hayden, Mrs. Frank Picha, Mrs. Nellie Ferguson, Mrs. Dollie Picha and the hostess, Mrs. Gibson.

2 Showers Given for Miss Swanson

Two showers recently have honored Miss Viola Swanson, who is to be married on August 27 to Blaine M. Cline.

A surprise shower was given by Mrs. Emily Howard and Mrs. Dana Billiter at the home of Mrs. Howard.

Last evening, Mrs. Ben Goodman entertained at her North Church street home to honor Miss Swanson. A buffet supper was served, followed by a party shower. The supper table was decorated with a large bouquet of carnations, snapdragons, delphiniums and maidenhair fern. In the center of the cake served was an old fashioned bridal nosegay of sweet peas and stephanotis.

Attending were Miss Swanson, Mrs. Viola Parks, Mrs. Mayme Yates, Mrs. John Neef, Mrs. Laura Pangle, Mrs. Lloyd McCain, Mrs. Robert M. Fischer, Jr., Mrs. Jack Thompson, Mrs. Clair Brown, Mrs. George Watt, Mrs. Ben Lambert, Miss Fern Hobbensiefken, Mrs. Brentford Miller, Mrs. Stephen Van Houten, Mrs. Milo Van Houten, Mrs. George Causey, Mrs. Robert Craig, Miss Elsie Furrer, Mrs. E. A. Tueski and the hostess.

The guests were entertained in the gardens until refreshments were served. The table was decorated with a complete bridal procession with miniatures. Pink and orchid sweet peas were the floral motif. A large wedding bell, made of pink and white hydrangeas, was placed over the table of gifts. Each guest attached her favorite recipe to her gift.

Attending were Miss Swanson, Mrs. Effie King, Mrs. Laura Pangle, Mrs. Mayme Yates, Mrs. Ben Lambert, Mrs. John Neef, Mrs. C. Schel, Miss Olena Anderson, Mrs. E. A. Tueski, Mrs. Violet Parks, and the hostesses.

Back From Convention

Woodburn—Mrs. Eugene Stoller, junior past president of the Woodburn Business and Professional Women's club, returned recently from San Francisco where she attended the convention of the National Federation of B.P.W. clubs which was held July 2 to 7. The convention was attended by 3,000 delegates representing 155,000 members from every state, Alaska, Hawaii and District of Columbia.

After the convention Mrs. Stoller spent a week as the guest of Mrs. J. B. Winfield, the former Alta Westover of Woodburn.

SILVERTON — The Woman's Missionary Federation of Immanuel Lutheran church met Thursday with hostesses Miss Hilda J. Olsen, Mrs. C. J. Towe, Mrs. J. Olafson and Mrs. Neils Haugen.

The educational topic was presented by Mrs. Edwin Overlund and Mrs. Stanley Swanson gave a resume of her work as WMF secretary of literature department.

Party for Miss Pollock Friday Eve

Miss Polly Pollock, who is to be married on August 6 to Alfred M. Fedje, will be honored at a party and miscellaneous bridal shower this evening.

Mrs. Ray Fedje and Miss Genevieve Chisholm, the latter a visitor from Fort Worth, Tex., will be hostesses for the party to be given at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Brooks Moore.

A group of 25 has been bidden. Games will be played and the gifts opened, after which a late supper is to be served.

Two Showers Given

Silverton — A pre-nuptial double shower honored Miss Elizabeth Ann Porter and her fiancé Robert Hugh Howell, whose wedding is to be this evening at the Methodist church.

Mother of the bridegroom-to-be, Mrs. Ray Howell, and neighbors of East Hill were hostesses to honor Mr. Howell.

During the same hour, Miss Porter was entertained at the home of her parents, the William Porters of South Second streets. Gifts were presented and a social evening and supper followed.

Luncheon For Visitor

Honoring Dr. Winnie D. Lowrance, visitor from Lawrence, Kans., at the home of Dr. Helen Pearce and Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. Margaret Rosecrans entertained a small group at luncheon Friday at her home.

Through Thursday, Dr. Lowrance, Dr. Pearce and Mr. and Mrs. Mem Pearce were at Timberline Lodge and the Mt. Hood country.

Dr. Lowrance will leave next Wednesday for her home in Kansas, planning to go to California first to visit at Napa, Berkeley and Los Angeles. She will stop at Salt Lake City and in Colorado en route home.

SILVERTON—Mrs. Cora Graden and her mother, Mrs. Oscar Broten, entertained at dinner Tuesday for the Rev. and Mrs. S. L. Abble, John Rachel and David, at the Fifth street home of Mrs. Broten and Mrs. Graden.

Shower Friday

Honoring Miss Mary Brehm, who is to be married August 5 to R. J. Chance, a party and miscellaneous bridal shower will be given this evening by Mrs. J. B. Bywater at her home. A group of 25 has been invited. Late refreshments will be served.
