

Miss Knodell Married at Albany Rites

Albany—An attractive wedding last Saturday evening was that of Miss Nadine Knodell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Clifford Knodell, Albany, and William Otto Wood, formerly of Dallas, Texas, now of Camp Sherman, Ore., son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto O. Wood, Dallas, Texas. The wedding vows were exchanged at 8 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church with Rev. Morton L. Booth officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin fashioned with full court train, beaded yoke with illusion neckline and long sleeves pointed at the wrists. Her fingertip veil was of nylon net, held in place with a small halo of matching material. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of bouvardia and stephanotis with an orchid center.

Miss Barbara Knodell, sister of the bride, was the honor attendant and wore an embroidered organza dress of orchid, with cap sleeves and matching mitts. In her hair she wore a braided halo of matching color and carried an arm bouquet of yellow gladioluses and yellow roses.

Mrs. Wayne Olsen of Eugene, Mrs. Earl Elshire of Lebanon and Mrs. Robert Hermens of Albany were the bridesmaids and wore gowns of yellow embroidered organza, made on the same lines as that of the maid of honor. They wore headbands and mitts to match their dresses. Each carried an arm bouquet of orchid colored asters and gladioluses.

Benton Williamson of Albany was the best man, while seating the guests were Earl Elshire of Lebanon, Robert Hermens of Albany, and William Daugherty of Klamath Falls.

Serving as candlelighters were Miss Phyllis Voldsted of Albany and Mrs. Donald Miller of Portland. They wore maroon shaded choir robes with white satin collars.

Wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Glenn Taylor, organist, who played the wedding marches, and Mrs. Marshall M. Woodworth, pianist, who was accompanist for James W. Jenks, soloist.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Knodell wore a light blue, long-sleeved, full length lace dress. She also wore a small hat of tulle and matching lace, and her flowers were pink phalaenopsis. Mrs. Wood wore a pink chiffon and lace dress of floor length and her flowers were blue phalaenopsis.

A reception was held at the Knodell home at 808 Washington street. Mr. and Mrs. Wood will make their home at Camp Sherman until fall. They took a short wedding trip to Timberline Lodge. For going-away the bride wore a navy blue and white dressmaker suit with blue and white silk blouse and blue and white accessories. She wore the white orchid from her bouquet.

The bride was graduated from Albany high school and Oregon State college. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. The bridegroom was graduated from the Dallas, Texas, high school and Southern Methodist university, where he is a member of Delta Chi fraternity. He is at present employed at the state salmon hatchery at Camp Sherman.

LT. COMDR. AND Mrs. Wallace Hug left today for Reno, Nev., where they will attend the wedding of Genetta Darby of San Francisco and Bruce Williams of Salem on Saturday evening. The Hugs will go on to Lake Tahoe, planning to return to Salem, Wednesday.

Surprise Dinner For Mr. Burkland

Honoring Bradley W. Burkland on the occasion of his birthday anniversary, Mrs. Burkland entertained at a surprise dinner party Tuesday evening. Arrangements of gladioluses decorated the dinner table. Places were marked for Mr. and Mrs. Don Burkland and son, Dickie; Alfred Burkland; Mr. and Mrs. Val Sloper, Mr. and Mrs. Faye Webb of Turner; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Burkland and son and daughter, Phil and Diane; Miss Mary Jo Brown, Miss Ila Jo Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Bradley W. Burkland.

Camp Fire News

"Hurry, hurry, hurry! Step right up to the greatest show on earth." That was the cry on carnival night at Camp Kilo-wan, Camp Fire Girls camp near Dallas.

After the theme "Circus Daze" was selected for the third week of camp, ninety eager campers busied themselves preparing booths, side shows, and refreshments for the big carnival night in Teal lodge. Outstanding feature of the show was the fun house prepared and executed by the older girls of the Wilderness unit. They built a tunnel with a thrill around every corner with the simple props of tables and blankets.

Other attention-getters threaded among gay banners and gaudy posters were a fortune teller, a puppet show, the little campers being the puppets, a witch doctor who served red and orange punch for his magic potent, a dish rag throw and a penny throw for the accurate-of-aim, a wishing well, and a side show featuring a two headed camel.

The excitement of the circus reared its head again in the gay decorations for the banquet on the final night of camp. Toastmistress for the banquet was Nancy Allworth of Corvallis who introduced a girl from each unit, who presented a toast to the camp, to the campers, to the counselors, to the cooks, and to the handy man.

Concluding the activities of the week, which included hikes, cookouts, overnight hikes, swimming, crafts, and games, was the weekly council fire, which was built around the theme of the Four Freedoms.

With the fourth week well under way, the campers have been planning their program along the Gypsy theme. One night the entire camp participated in a progressive dinner, and square dancing in the lodge.
