

LEAVING SOON FOR PORT ORFORD

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT E. TIERNAN and family will be leaving late next month for Port Orford, Ore., to make their home. Mrs. Tiernan having a coaching position there. Mrs. Tiernan and the children, Kent and Victoria, are pictured above.

Miss Alene Phillips and Mrs. Earl Snell will be leaving Wednesday for a few days' stay at the House on the Metolius.

Later, Miss Phillips will fly to Medford to spend a few days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eric W. Allen, formerly of Salem.

The Yomarc club's picnic is planned for next Tuesday evening as a no-host gathering at Paradise Island at 6 o'clock. Each couple attending is asked to take complete table service.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Covert, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ostlund, Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Carl and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Minier are on the committee.

Members of Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will gather for their annual picnic tomorrow at Paradise Island. A no-host lunch is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. with coffee, cream and ice cream being furnished by the chapter.

The Salem Credit Women's Breakfast club will hear Mrs. Delbert Schwabauer speak of her trip to the Hawaiian Islands, following a short business session at Nohlgren's restaurant next Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock.

A travelogue given by United Air Lines will accompany Mrs. Schwabauer's talk.

A NO-HOST picnic supper is arranged for Monday evening for Salem Spinners club members. Miss Joanne Fitzmaurice to entertain the group at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Fitzmaurice.

The supper will be in the gardens at 6:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Robert Strebig and Miss Barbara Sundet are co-hostesses with Miss Fitzmaurice for the gathering.

A business session will follow the supper. Miss Margaret Lovell, president, in charge. Members are advised to turn left off Twelfth street on the Oak Hill road for the Fitzmaurice home on route 4.

An event for tomorrow afternoon will be the picnic arranged by Sojourners club for all members and families, the event to be in the Dallas City park between 4 and 7 o'clock.

Mrs. James Walton and son and daughter, Jeff and Elisabeth, are spending most of the month of August at Neskonwin. Mr. Walton to join his family at week-ends.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Goulet are Mr. and Mrs. Moss Salley and children, Moss Salley, Jr., and Alfred Salley, from Asheville, N.C. Mrs. Salley is a niece of Mrs. Goulet. They have been here the past week, various trips to scenic places in the valley being arranged in their honor.

The first of the week they go to McMinnville to visit another aunt of Mrs. Salley, Mrs. E. C. Apperson. They will then go to Portland and on to Seattle to visit an aunt of Mrs. Salley, Mrs. J. R. Justice, and with Mr. and Mrs. William R. Norwood, the former an uncle of Mrs. Salley. The visitors plan to go on to Victoria, then to Yellowstone park and back to North Carolina.

The executive board and newly appointed committee chairmen of the Salem Business and Professional Women's club will meet next Tuesday evening, August 1, at 7:30 o'clock in the downstairs fireplace room at the YWCA. The purpose of the session is to choose committee members.

Theta Rho girls, Beta Iota chapter No. 57, will have their regular meeting, August 3, at the IOOF hall. The business session will begin at 8 p.m. with the newly installed president, Miss Pat Flack, presiding.

12 Gardens to Be Viewed in Tour On Wednesday; Silver Tea Planned

An anticipated event of the new week will be the garden tour and silver tea arranged by the Salem Garden club for next Wednesday afternoon and evening, August 2.

Twelve gardens are to be visited, starting at 2 o'clock, the tour to continue through to 9 o'clock.

The tea is planned between 3 and 6 o'clock on the terrace at the home of Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay, and refreshments will be served there during the evening hours of the tour.

Table settings are to be arranged in the various gardens to be viewed. Small and large gardens, formal garden types, outdoor entertaining settings, Mill creek settings and interesting varieties of flowers in bloom will feature the gardens listed in the tour.

Homes Listed

Gardens to be visited include eight on North Summer street and four others in the south part of the city. Those to be viewed on North Summer street are at the homes of Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Busick, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Shinn, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Becke, Mr. and Mrs. James Young, Mr. and Mrs. Homer H. Smith.

On South High street hill the gardens at the homes of Mrs. Louis Lachmund and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Fry will be visited, the tour then to go to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Smith on Mission street, and then to the home of Governor and Mrs. McKay on Jerris avenue.

Many Assist

A large group of the Salem Garden club membership will assist with the tour and tea.

Assisting in the gardens at the Ralph H. Cooley home will be Mrs. Albert Walker, Mrs. C. Ward Davis, Mrs. George Beane, Mrs. F. F. Wedel. At the Floyd Shepard home will be Mrs. Robert Fitzmaurice, Mrs. L. H. McMahon, Mrs. John Wiles, Mrs. W. H. Parker. Assisting at the Becke and Young homes will be Mrs. Effie Lorenz, Mrs. Gerald Richards; at the Shinn home, Mrs. F. W. Poorman, Mrs. Margaret Rosecrans.

At the Busick home those assisting in the gardens will be Mrs. W. W. Baum, Mrs. Bryan Goodenough, Mrs. Ray Smith, Mrs. Oscar Cutler. At the McGilchrist home will be Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Mrs. Wilmer C. Page, Mrs. McGilchrist.

Hostesses in the gardens at the Homer H. Smith home will be Mrs. Coe Roberts and Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr.

In charge of the Fry home will be Mrs. Alvin Lühr, Mrs. Floyd Anderson, Mrs. Robert Hutcheon, Mrs. Herman Lafky. At the gardens at the home of Mrs. Lachmund will be Mrs. G. A. Reeher, Mrs. Merle Travis, Mrs. J. Ray McEvoy, Mrs. Arthur Jones. Hostesses will be Mrs. W. H. Speck, Mrs. Frank Towle, Mrs. Elmore Hill, Mrs. J. N. Bishop, Mrs. Robert F. Wulf.

Assisting at the McKay gardens will be Mrs. Charles Cole, Mrs. Ben Maxwell, Mrs. William L. Phillips, Sr., Mrs. Virgil Sexton, Mrs. Lester F. Barr, Mrs. Philip W. Allison, Mrs. Mem Pearce, Mrs. James H. Turnbull, Mrs. Forrest Donkin, Mrs. Grant Rogers, Mrs. Herbert Ostlund, Mrs. E. M. Page.

Serve at Tea

For the silver tea at the McKay gardens, Mrs. McKay, Mrs. Ben Maxwell, president of the Salem Garden club; Mrs. Earl T. Andersen, Mrs. Morrell Crary, Mrs. Howard Hunsaker and Miss Elizabeth Lord have been invited to pour.

Serving will be Mrs. Wayne Hadley, Mrs. Morrell Crary, Mrs. Russel E. Pratt, Mrs. C. S. McCollam, Mrs. Eileen Sheldon, Mrs. M. L. Engelstad, Mrs. W. E. Martin.

Fuchsia and orchid colors will feature the table decorations, the flowers to be begonias and fuchsias in the two colors.

Miss Edith Schryver, Mrs. Maxwell, Mrs. McKay, Miss Lord, Mrs. Walter H. Smith, Mrs. Cole are the committee from the Garden club arranging the tour and tea.

Misses Loretta and Doris Ohling left this week for California for a visit, planning to stop at Fresno, Whittier and Montebello. Tomorrow, they will attend the wedding of a cousin, Miss Janet Leever, and Ronald Regan in the Chapel of Roses at Pasadena.

Misses Ohling have been spending the summer with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Ohling, following their graduation in June from Oregon State college. They will spend a month in California.

Personnel in the right-of-way department in the state highway offices and their wives or husbands will gather for their annual picnic next Thursday evening in the gardens at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker. More than 80 are expected to attend.

Elected officers of Past Regents club of Chemeketa chapter Daughters of the American Revolution, will travel to Champeog Monday, July 31, for a picnic. A no-host lunch will be served at noon.

Stewart-Sherman Wedding Today

Wed at a simple service performed this afternoon in the Carrier room of the First Methodist church were Miss Johnita Betty Sherman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Sherman of Napa, Calif., and James Arthur Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ivan Stewart of Salem.

The vows were read at 2 o'clock with the Rev. Brooks Moore, pastor of the church, officiating at the double ring ceremony. For the music, Mrs. Ray Fedje sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer," and Mrs. Brooks Moore played the wedding marches.

The bride wore a street length dress of pink silk lace over taffeta and a white cloche hat with veil. For her flowers she carried a shower of white roses and bouvardia.

Miss Mary Lou Hansen was honor attendant for the bride. She wore a street length dress of green silk lace over taffeta and small white hat, and her flowers were a nosegay of pink carnations, rosebuds and bouvardia.

Douglas F. Parker was best man for Mr. Stewart.

A reception followed, also in the Carrier room. Miss Buena Stewart, sister of the bridegroom, cut the cake, and Mrs. Monrad Bjorger of Gresham, sister of the bride, poured.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman came north for their daughter's wedding and others attending included members of the families and close friends.

Following a trip to the Wallowa mountains the couple will be at home in Salem. Mr. Stewart is in business with his father.

BRIDE at a ceremony this afternoon was Miss Rosanna McMeekin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McMeekin, who was married to Daryl Wayne Willecke, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Willecke, the service taking place at 3 o'clock in the First Baptist church with Dr. Lloyd T. Anderson officiating.

Bouquets of white gladioluses and lighted candles decorated the church for the service. Lighting the candles were Miss Kathleen McMeekin and Miss Nancy Zolezzi, both wearing orchid taffeta frocks. For the music, Miss Eileen Acton and Mrs. Dale Bull sang and Mrs. John Schmidt, Jr. played the wedding music. In White Satin

The bride wore a wedding gown of white slipper satin, fashioned with a low round neckline, a lace yoke embroidered with seed pearls, and a skirt with veile front and long train. The fingertip veil, lace-edged, was arranged from a crown of pearlized orange blossoms. For her flowers the bride carried a bouquet of white roses with white orchids. Mr. McMeekin gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Gerald Bull was honor attendant. Her gown was of yellow taffeta, designed with low round neckline and a full skirt. Her flowers were pink roses and stephanotis.

Miss Barbara McMeekin was the bridesmaid for her sister. Her dress, identical in design to that of the matron of honor, was in light green taffeta, and her flowers were yellow roses and stephanotis.

Waldo L. Willecke was best man for his brother. Ushering were Norman Mann, Robert Cook, Gerald Bull and Douglas Coe.

The bride's mother wore a dusty rose crepe afternoon dress with corsage of yellow roses, and the bridegroom's mother was in a light green flowered dress with corsage of yellow roses.

At Reception

The reception following was in the church parlors. Mrs. L. T. Smith cut the cake. Mrs. Myrl E. Burns and Mrs. Walter Willecke poured. Serving were Miss Ardith Combs, Miss Doris Dierks, Miss Barbara Burns, Mrs. Seth Underwood, Miss Wilma Jane Kerr and Miss Phyllis Johnston. Miss Shirley Bosell had charge of the gift table and Mrs. Walter Judd passed the guest book. The bride's table was set with a white satin cloth and pastel flowers.

For traveling the bride wore a beige suit with navy blue picture hat, navy purse, white gloves and shoes and a corsage of white orchids.

Following a trip south the couple will be at home in Canby, after August 12.

The discussion and social group of the YWCA is to meet Wednesday, August 2 at 7 p.m. for a dessert luncheon and discussion at the YWCA.

Miss Eleanor Stephens, state librarian, is to give a book review. Hostesses for the evening are Miss Doris Bartholomy and Miss Helen Wilson.

Any business and professional women who are interested in the group are invited to attend.

Woodburn — Miss Lucille Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Olson, and Calvin Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Kennedy, all of Salem, were married Saturday evening, July 22, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Applegate in Woodburn. The Rev. Ormal B. Trick of the Methodist church officiated at the service with members of the immediate families present.

The bride wore a tan suit with black and white accessories and corsage of pink carnations.

Her only attendant was her cousin, Miss Arvis Applegate, who wore a maroon suit with white accessories and corsage of white carnations.

Ray Kennedy served as best man.

Miss Ruth Marie Applegate was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Lowell Moore. A reception was given after the ceremony at the home of the bridegroom's parents. After a wedding trip the couple will be at home in Salem.

..... Interesting Use of Varied Woods Features Ranch Style Structure

(Jensen-Miller studio picture)

THE LIVING ROOM is on the north side of the house. Through the huge window one looks out over the rolling countryside to the north. The walls of the room are mahogany, the floor beautiful oak planking. Maple and burch were used for the book cases around the large fireplace which is across the room from the window. Green and red are used in interesting combination in this room.

(Jensen-Miller studio picture)

THIS SCENE ABOVE is a corner in the gay recreation room featuring combed plywood for the walls, knotty pine fixtures and cypress furniture. There is a large fireplace in this room, too, which faces south the same as in the exterior view in the picture at left center. Interesting brass pieces in this room and others in the dining room all came from England, former home of Mrs. Jenks.