Truman Nominates Gen. Bedell Smith

Washington, Aug. 21 (AP) — President Truman today formally nominated Lt. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith as director of central intelligence.

The nomination went to the senate just a few days after Smith's selection to succeed Rear Adm. Roscoe H. Hillenkoetter was announced.

Hillenkoetter is being assigned to command of a cruiser division.

The president also nominated Rear Adm. Jerauld Wright for promotion to the rank of vice admiral as commander of the amphibious force of the Aelantic fleet.

Bridge Guard Killed

Portland, Aug. 21 (AP)—A motorist slammed against a closed Willamette river bridge gate early yesterday, killing Gate Tender Frank J. Cook, 59, who was testing the barrier.

Auto Driver Louie R. Nufer, 32, was shaken but not hurt.

Tungate Goes Back to State Prison Upon Return Here

Richard P. Tungate, who was captured in Bothell, Wash., Saturday, eight days after his escape from the Marion county jail, will go directly to the Oregon State prison upon his return to Oregon, Marion county district attorney E. O. Stadter, Jr., said today.

Tungate was picked up in the Stadter explained. back yard of a home in Bothell, a small town near Seattle, along with Donald E. Flodstrom, who escaped with Tungate and Kenneth O. Smith from the county jail on August 11. Smith is still at large.

Tungate was on parole from the Oregon State prison at the time of his escape from the county bastile. He had been sent up to the state institution on June 25, 1949, to serve two years on a burglary charge.

Theft Violates Parole

He was paroled after 10 months. Late last month he was arrested for auto theft. The commission of a felony revokes his parole, and it will be necessary for him to go back to prison and serve out the remaining 14 months of his two-year sentence.

When he finally is discharged from the prison, he still must face charges of auto theft and escape from the county jail.

Marion county officials Monday morning were still awaiting word from Seattle as to whether or not Tungate and Flodstrom will waive extradition proceedings. If they waive, a representative from the Marion county sheriff's office will go to Seattle and return the pair to Salem. If they fail to waive extradition, warrents will have to be prepared for their removal from Washington to Oregon.

Wanted in Polk County

Flodstrom is wanted in Polk county on a charge of grand larceny, in addition to jail break from the Marion county jail.

J. B. Wilcox, special FBI agent in charge of the Seattle office, would not disclose how his agent learned of Tungate and Flodstrom's whereabout. FBI men apprehended the pair in Bothell.

The search for Smith contines. Smith's mother lives in Bothell.

Committee Will Meet to Study New Y Building

The YMCA building expansion committee, headed by R. L. Elfstrom, will meet Wednesday forenoon to review conditions as they may effect plans for the addition of a sizable building to the present Y on Court street.

Several weeks ago the committee decided to forego construction during 1950 but agreed at that time to go into the matter at a later date.

The YMCA will observe 1951 as centennial year of the organization. It will also mark the 25th anniversary of the completion of the present Salem Y.

Next Friday forenoon bids will be opened in connection with contemplated work in the physical plant of the YMCA, to make the building come under fire regulations passed by the legislature.

The project will cost several thousand dollars. Included in the plans are two fire escapes, one on the east side which will take care of the small gymnasium on the third floor and dormitory rooms on the second and third floors.

The second fire escape to be located at the northeast corner, will be a short one for use of spectators in the large gymnasium.

Numerous fire doors opening off the stairways will be constructed.

During the quiet period of August, various improvements have been made, including repainting of the handball courts, the large gymnasium, the dining rooms and the den in the basement. Curtains for the dining room windows are being fashioned by the Y's Menettes.

'Hangover Lodge' Is Suggested by Drys

Washington, Aug. 21 (AP) — A "hangover lodge where motorists would be kept until sober" is advocated for every bar by W. A. Scharffenberg, executive secretary of the American Temperance society.

He told a Seventh Day Adventists meeting yesterday that legislation should be enacted requiring bartenders to collect ignition keys before they serve drinks to motorists.

"After drinking, the customer should be taken to the 'hangover lodge' until simple scientific tests prove his fitness for driving," Scharffenberg said.

Stock Market

New York, Aug. 21 (AP)—Demand for stocks faded this afternoon after a brisk early advance. Closing prices were well under the best marks of the day.

Morning gains running to around $2 a share were cut down and in some cases converted into losses. Declines were mostly less than $1 a share.

Motors were the market's favorites and they held up fairly well.

Trading volume hit a lively pace when the market was rising; slowed as prices backed down. Turnover touched a rate of around 1,850,000 shares for the full session.

Du Pont showed a net gain of more than $2 at one time after word of an increased dividend. The advance was later halted.

Also up most of the time were General Motors, Chrysler, Woolworth, Zenith Radio, American Telephone, Anaconda Copper, Santa Fe, Sinclair Oil and U. S. Gypsum.

Steels, rails and aircrafts were inclined to be sticky.

Chicag Grain

Chicago, Aug. 21 (AP)—After drifting along without any price trend most of the session, grains eased toward the close today. Soybeans slumped the most, while new crop deliveries resisted the selling.

Little pressure developed in new crop corn in view of the continued cool weather in the mid-west.

Wheat closed ¾-¾ lower, September 12.24 33/8; corn was unchanged to ¾ lower, September 11.3¾-¼; oats were ¾-¾ lower, September 76¼-¾; rye was 1¼-1¼ lower, September 11.35¾; soybeans were 1¾-2¼ lower, November 12.42¾-¾, and lard was 10 to 15 cents a hundred pounds over September 14.45.
