

Junior Bridge Players Vie

Plans for a weekly junior bridge tournament for inexperienced duplicate players are being formulated by the Salem Elks Bridge club, local unit of the American Contract Bridge League.

The tournaments may be held either Monday or Wednesday evening, starting the first week of October.

The Salem group already has scheduled one junior season during the sectional tournament, October 28 and 29, when duplicate experts from all over the northwest will compete in championship play. With nearly 70 members, the local club already has 30 master players and five national masters.

Scoring nearly 67 percent, Mrs. Dewey Howell and Mrs. Leone Taylor were high at the 23-team tournament this week. Others in order were Mrs. Stuart Thede and Walter M. Cline, Mrs. Ward Graham and Ellis H. Jones, Mrs. John S. Bone and

City Buys Two Buildings But No Use for 'Em

Astoria, Sept. 21 (AP)—The city of Astoria snapped up a bargain without knowing what to do with it. Two buildings, a gymnasium and a subsistence structure, at the former naval hospital site here, were offered for $7000. An architect told the council the buildings cost a total of $55,000 so the council approved the purchase. It will decide later what to do with them.

Mrs. Paul F. Burris, L. W. Frasier of Albany and John Pugh of Shedd, and Mrs. C. B. Benson and Mrs. A. C. Eoff.

A new series of five tournaments opens next week with winners being awarded free entry to the sectional meet.

Guests at Boggs Home Gervais — Corvallis visitors over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Trussell, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Henry Hanes, and they visited at the home of Mrs. Hanes' sister, Mrs. Earl Boggs.

HOW DO YOU FEEL?

Health is Wealth!

Yes, health is wealth

All the money in the world can't buy health, and today as never before, we must guard our health.

Scientists report that research indicates there are insufficient vitamins and minerals in our daily diet to insure the health of the American people. Modern cooking methods and the habit of eating foods that are delicious instead of the foods that are nutritious lead scientists to believe that thousands of people are not aware that they are the victims of vitamin deficiency.

Outstanding authorities state

"People do not die of infectious diseases as such, but really from the malnutrition that allows the germ to gain a foothold. In non-infectious fatal diseases, or degenerative diseases, bad nutrition is the real cause in every instance."

Many vitamin deficient people are finding that other ailments, resulting from nutritional deficiencies, have improved when they tried, for themselves, the marvelous hi-potency formula found in Improved Thyavals. And now with "The Amazing Red Vitamin B-12 added, Improved Thyavals offer one of the most complete B complex formulas offered.
