Whistler Terrifies Jacqueline Cadow (above), 18-year-old Paradis, La., bride-to-be and her family have been tormented nightly by a mysterious man who appears outside the Cadow residence and whistles the funeral march. She is now under police guard in New Orleans, awaiting her marriage, Oct. 1, to a state trooper. (AP Wirephoto)

Posses Hunt Dirge Whistler

Paradis, La., Sept. 21 (AP)— This little bayou community bustled with excitement today watching for a phantom whistler whose weird serenades have terrorized an 18-year-old bride-to-be.

Nearly all of the village's 200 population peered out of windows last night while a cordon of sheriff's deputies guarded the home of Jacquelyn Cadow.

For the past few days the townspeople have talked of little except the intruder who threatened the girl's life and vowed to prevent her marriage to a young state trooper. Opinion is divided over whether the nocturnal whistler is a prankster, a would-be killer or a lunatic.

His whistler is a shrill interpretation of a funeral dirge.
State police, who were drawn into the investigation by State Trooper Herbert Belsom of New Orleans, Jacquelyn's husband-to-be, said they were stepping out of the case.

"We are convinced it is the work of a prankster," Trooper Vincent B. Ebeier said.
State Police Sgt. N. J. Khoury said the Cadow home yesterday looked on the appearance of a mecca. Hundreds of curiosity seekers in automobiles paused for a look at the scene of the whistler's visits—a cottage surrounded by moss-draped oaks.

A doctor attended the young bride-to-be who collapsed Tuesday night after she and her mother, her mother's sister and a New Orleans States reporter all said they twice heard the intruder's funeral whistler.

Barge Delay Short

Portland, Sept. 21 (AP)—River Portland, Sept. 21 (AP)—Up-river Columbia barging will be affected only 60 to 90 days by work at McNary dam, the corps of engineers reported today. An earlier report had indicated river traffic would be halted until the project was completed. However, temporary locks are planned.
