Boots and Spurs

By GRAHAM SHARKEY

Wednesday, the Oregon Mounted Posse left for the big indoor horse show in Vancouver, and it was regrettable that the doctor insisted Lee Eyerly stay here, for his horse and equipment lend a lot to the posse. To make a slight digression back to the Oregon State Fair, I believe one of the best drills of the week was the Salem Saddle club drill and in comparing it with any other drill with girls, it is by far the best of them all. It is a credit to the group that goes to so much trouble to put it on. Of course, I am a little biased, for I have ridden in every drill up to this year.

The next show will be the Pacific International in Portland. This coming week-end, however, there is a show at Puyallup, Wash., with Christanson's Rodeo stock as well as their clown, Bill Markley, in exhibition. The Grant county fair at John Day is also this week, so there are any number of places to go. In fact, there is even a fair on at Woodburn.

The Livesley's palominos continue to win in Canada. Bonito placed second in the jumpers, won first in the pairs and first in the western class. They have sold their saddlebred bay gelding, Pete, so they are now in the palomino horse business. Orval Shryder has asked all the calf ropers and others to meet at 8 o'clock in the evening at the A. C. Haag company on the Silverton road, across from the fairgrounds, with the idea in mind of a little better organization than last year and incidentally reducing the price of roping and tying calves.

SALEM CHAPTER, Order of Eastern Star, is holding its regular meeting Saturday, September 23, at 8 o'clock in the Masonic temple. Presiding will be Mrs. Russel Beutler, worthy matron, and James Darby, worthy patron.
