

High Requiem Mass Honors Memory of Father Heade

Mt. Angel—Solomon requiem high mass was celebrated for Rev. Father Raymond Heade, OSB, in the recreation room at the Mt. Angel preparatory school on Tuesday morning at the request of the Mt. Angel Prep Mothers' club.

Rev. Father Gabriel Morris, principal, was the celebrant, Rev. Edward Spear was deacon, Rev. Father Brendan Shea, sub-deacon, and Rev. Father Anthony Terhaar served as master of ceremonies.

The Right Rev. Abbot Damian Jentges was present and preached the sermon. Rev. Father James Koessler and Rev. Father David Nickolson attended the service, and the monastery choir sang the mass.

The entire student body and all their mothers present received communion as a spiritual bouquet. Following church services the students and members of the Prep Mothers' club were served breakfast in the dining hall.

Rev. Father Raymond Heade, a faculty member at Mt. Angel Prep, was drowned while fishing in Yaquina Bay. While on a visit with other clergy at Newport on Monday, September 4, he rented a boat and outboard motor to go fishing. When he did not return Monday night, a search was started, but due to fog Tuesday his boat was not found until nearly noon on the south jetty of Yaquina Bay bar, with large holes in the bottom, apparently having run into rocks. In the boat were two of his three fishing poles, a life preserver and a compass.

Father Raymond Heade was born in County Louth, Ireland June 22, 1891, to Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Heade, who came to Portland when Father Heade was a child to make their home where his parents still reside. Father Raymond was educated in Portland, and attended the Redemptorist college in Oakland, Calif. He entered Mt. Angel seminary and college on August 14, 1939, and was ordained at the abbey chapel on May 10, 1945, by His Excellency Archbishop Howard of Portland.

During all this time he had served as treasurer and bookkeeper at the abbey. Father was teacher at the Prep school for radio and electronics, where he built and operated a television set, which was receiving successfully from Seattle broadcasting stations.

Father has two sisters, Imelda and Sodelia, and two brothers, Nicholas Patrick Heade, Jr., and James, residing in Portland, and an uncle, the Rev. James Heade, pastor of St. Frederic church in St. Helens.

33 Marion Co. DHIA Cows Top 75 Lbs. Fat in August

Thirty-three Marion county DHIA cows topped 75 pounds of butterfat in August. Despite dry hot weather, a combination of silage, irrigated pasture and good feeding practices by dairymen have kept production up.

Walter and Clarence Duda of Mt. Angel kept their No. 1 Holstein at the top of the list with 121 pounds of fat in her fifth month. She produced 2161 pounds of milk in the 31-day period. Andrew Kehrl & Son, Woodburn, rated second with a registered Jersey making 108 pounds of fat and 1934 pounds of milk.

Cows with over 90 pounds of fat were tested in the Sisters herd at Mt. Angel at 94.4 pounds and St. Benedict's Abbey with 96.2 pounds and 93.9 pounds of butterfat.

C. J. Berning of Mt. Angel had two Holsteins in this group. No. 41 made 98 pounds of fat and No. 557, 90 pounds of butterfat. Berning also had two cows in the 80 pound group at 88 and 81 pounds. Henry Zorn, Aurora, had a Jersey with 99 pounds and H. C. Stuwe, a Guernsey with 93 pounds.

George Kruse, Mt. Angel, came in with one Holstein over 70 pounds. I. O. Williamson of Aurora had two at 76 and 77 pounds and Marcus Wampac, Mt. Angel, two at 77 and 88 pounds. E. S. Coates & Son, Salem, had one Guernsey with 72.5; St. Benedict's Abbey, two Holsteins with 76.8 and 79.9 pounds, and Bern Brothers, Mt. Angel, one Holstein at 77.9.

Ben Vandecovering, Mt. Angel, placed one Holstein with 77 pounds. H. Mikkelsen, O. A. Parton and H. C. Stuwe, all of Woodburn, all had cows with over 70 pounds.

E. W. Christopherson of Aurora had a Holstein with 75 pounds of fat and Walter Dreher, Newberg, a Guernsey with 79 fat. Andrew Kehrl and H. Mikkelsen, Woodburn, reported registered Jerseys with 75 and 76 pounds.

Top 305-day record reported this month went to H. A. Barnes & Sons of Silverton in the 2-year-olds. Midget, a 2-year-old Jersey, made 524.4 pounds of fat and 7616 pounds of milk. Three-year-old honors went to O. A. Parton's Jersey, "Babe." She produced 529.4 pounds of fat and 8545 pounds of milk in 10 months.

William Frith, St. Paul, had the top 4-year-old, a registered Guernsey, with 537.2 pounds of fat and 10,380 pounds of milk. Five years and over honors went to St. Benedict's 6-year-old Holstein with 579.3 pounds of fat, 17,230 pounds of milk.

Scholarship to Mary Bennett

Miss Mary E. Bennett, 855 E street, Salem, has been awarded a scholarship in physical therapy under the nationwide professional training program of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, J. F. Kievit, Oregon representative for the foundation announced.

Miss Bennett is one of 15 Oregon residents to receive a scholarship since the National Foundation expanded its physical therapy program in 1945 to help combat a critical shortage of qualified personnel in the physical therapy field.

While 1,387 scholarships have been awarded to date through the National Foundation alone, it is estimated that 15,000 physical therapists are needed to meet the ever-increasing demand for their highly-skilled professional services. Since the first physical therapy appropriation of $55,000 was made in 1942, the organization has allocated more than $2,000,000 in March of Dimes funds to support the program.

Miss Bennett will study at University of Southern California, Los Angeles, one of many schools and institutions throughout the country approved for this type of training by the American Medical Association's council on medical education and hospitals.

In announcing her award, Kievit explained that physical therapists trained under the National Foundation program are not obligated to confine their work to treatment of infantile paralysis exclusively. He pointed out that best protection against the disease, since no one can anticipate where it will strike, is to have trained physical therapy technicians readily available at all hospitals and agencies where polio patients may be treated.

Big Shot Gambler Won't Spot Coppers

New York, Sept. 21 (AP)—Harry Gross, head of a $20,000,000 a year gambling syndicate, has hired a lawyer, dashing the hopes of a prosecutor that he will reveal immediately any tie-up with high-ranking policemen. Gross yesterday hired Hyman Barshay, a criminal lawyer, who has defended many policemen. Held in $250,000 bail in King's county civil prison, Gross has refused thus far to identify police with whom he said he was "associated" in the bookmaking business.

The stocky, worried bookmaker told Judge Samuel S. Leibowitz in a private conference Tuesday night that if he identified any of the policemen there would be "a terrible scandal."

Woman's Club Sets Reception, Bazaar For Aircraft Warning

Gates — The Gates Woman's club met in regular session at the home of Mrs. Joe Joaquin. A business session was held, Mrs. Edward Chance presiding. Plans were made to sponsor a reception for the teachers in the recreation rooms of the high school, Thursday evening, Sept. 27. Mrs. Harold Wilson was appointed to issue invitations to the teachers and parents of the school. Mrs. W. R. Hutcheson will be in charge of the entertainment and Mrs. Joe Joaquin and Mrs. Albert Millsap will arrange the tables and refreshments.

It was decided to hold the annual bazaar the evening of October 20 and committees were appointed by the chair to start arrangements. Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon by the hostess, Mrs. Joaquin, assisted by Mrs. Chance to Mrs. W. R. Hutcheson, Mrs. Albert Millsap, Mrs. Laura Joaquin, Mrs. Norman Garrison, Mrs. Wilson Park, Mrs. Harold Wilson and two guests, Mrs. Thomas Hall and Mrs. Fred Smith.

Marooned Fliers Await Rescue

Reykjavik, Iceland, Sept. 21 (AP)—Six men and a girl, marooned seven days atop a 6,000-foot glacier after their Icelandic Airline Skymaster crashed, prepared today to descend the frozen peak by ski and jeep. A U.S. army ski plane which was to have flown the survivors off their icy perch yesterday crashed in an attempted take-off. No one was hurt, but the plane's rudder and wingtip were broken.

A ground party, which worked its way up the glassy slopes of Vatnakoell glacier yesterday, will guide the survivors and their would-be air rescuers down the peak. The trip, which will be made with the aid of skis and jeeps, will take two days.

The Skymaster crew included a young stewardess, who was slightly injured in the crash. The plane, en route from Luxembourg to Reykjavik, carried a cargo of 10 sled dogs.

Runyon Leaves $101,360 New York, Sept. 21 (AP)—Author Damon Runyon left a net estate of $101,360, an estate tax appraisal showed yesterday.

The writer named his children, Damon Runyon, Jr., and Mrs. Mary R. McCann, beneficiaries of proceeds from a $79,768 annuity contract, constituting the bulk of the estate. He died Dec. 10, 1946.

Geddes Supervisor For Aircraft Warning

Announcement of the appointment of Robert F. Geddes as chief supervisor for the Salem aircraft warning observation post was announced this week by the acting coordinator of civilian defense for the city, Charles Barclay.

Barclay has received instructions from the air force on the operation of the tower and arrangements have been made to have a telephone installed at the post as soon as it is needed.

Next week at a meeting with Mayor Robert L. Elstrom a central council for civilian defense will be formed.

Notes from Nancy Haven's BEET SUGAR KITCHEN

Games Over-Cakes On

Gridiron Cakes: Frost a sheet cake with chocolate icing. Sprinkle top with green colored Beet Sugar (blend 12 drops vegetable food color with 1/4 cup Beet Sugar; then dry). Line field with stripes of white granulated sugar or frosting. Make goal posts of stick candy. Add a tiny toy football or make one, shaping it from a 2-inch piece of banana dipped in melted chocolate.

Toast With A French Accent

No fuss to this oven fixit. Cut 6 slices of day-old bread in halves; dip both sides into mixture of 2 eggs beaten with 2 tbsps. cream. Dip next into mixture of 1 cup Beet Sugar, 1 tsp. cinnamon and 2 tbsps. flour. Place in single layer in shallow pan containing 2 tbsps. melted butter or margarine. Brown in moderate oven (375° F.) 20 min. Turn once. Serves 6.

Table This For Autumn

Make your own centerpiece with apples or acorn squash for candleholders. Around their base, tuck in wheat, chrysanthemum heads and/or maple leaves.

Vegetables Go Formal

Glaze cooked carrot sticks, parsnips or onions. Garnish each serving with parsley or mint. Here's how! (Makes syrup for 2 lbs. of vegetables.) Brown 4 tbsps. butter or margarine in frying pan. Add 1/2 cup Beet Sugar and 1 tsp. lemon juice; mix thoroughly by constant stirring. Add cooked vegetables and let syrup bubble up around them. Allow about 15 min., turning occasionally so all sides are glazed.
