Salem Girl Named to Rally Squad; Plan Homecoming

By CHARLOTTE ALEXANDER

The Oregon-Montana game Saturday, was a big affair. There were loads of spirit, and the high school bands of Oregon provided much entertainment before the game started and during the half. There were 21 bands that marched before the spectators, and during intermission time they all marched on the field.

Our new song queens were not on hand for the game. However, with try-outs over the girls were announced this week. Nancy Miller and Beverly Krueger, formerly of Salem, will be on this year's rally squad.

Six hundred and 91 razors have been neglected since the sophomore men began growing beards for the annual Sophomore Wiskerino which is entitled the "Nine o'clock Shave." Judging for the Betty Coed and Joe College contest has begun, and soon will come before a vote of the student body.

Homecoming along with many activities will bring the dedication of the Erb Memorial Union. Since it was the class of '23 which first foresaw a student union as the center of campus activity, John MacGregor, ASOU president of '23, will help with the dedication ceremonies. Committees are now swinging into action for Homecoming, which will be held November 3-4.

The struggle over rules for the freshmen is still going on. Since this is Oregon's first attempt at freshmen living in the dorms it represents a completely new thing to work out a plan different picture. Committees which will be agreeable to everyone.

The Drama department held a big party Thursday evening, which included all interested theatergoers, and drama students. Horace Robinson, head of the department, introduced the staff members, and later on in the evening dramatic scenes were presented.

A new addition to our library was opened for inspection on Thursday. Many new improvements have been made which will provide more space for studying, more room for books and reference material, and new offices for the audiovisual department.

This week there will be no game to attend, but the radios will be tuned in for the Idaho-Oregon game.

FOUR CORNERS — On the recent social calendar was the bridal shower honoring Miss Martha Beskow, whose marriage to Dan Porkorny of St. Paul, Ore. will be solemnized at an early date. ARMS AND THE MAN

There is no stock answer to that often repeated question: "I want to get a new chair. What kind and color would be best?" The kind of chair will depend on what you expect of it both in a decorative and a functional capacity. Background colors in your room: rug, walls, draperies, will dictate color. You may want to inject a dramatic splash of color contrast into a monochromatic scheme, or play down an existing amount of a certain hue. The style of the room and where the chair will be placed in relation to other furnishings will determine its weight and scale. And function... the amount of use it must bear will dictate fabric and texture. In many homes it is taken for granted that certain chairs are reserved for particular members.

Mothers, Dads Club Elects New Officers

The Mothers and Dads club of Grant school met Tuesday evening and chose officers for the coming year. Dwyn Miller was elected president to replace Dr. John R. Wood. Vice president is Mrs. L. A. Ballmer; secretary, Mrs. James Waite and treasurer, Harry Lucas.

The group voted to endorse bill 306 which is concerned with the basic school fund increase. They also discussed establishment of cub scout, girl scout and 4-H club programs. Leaders are needed for each of the groups. The next meeting of the club will be November 8.

DR. AND MRS. PAUL G. STAPRAN returned recently from a seven weeks vacation trip which took them as far south as Tijuana and Agua Caliente, Mexico. They spent some time in Reno and Carson City, Nevada, San Juan, Capistrano, Santa Catalina Island, Los Angeles and vicinity, San Luis Obispo and San Francisco before driving north along the Oregon coast and back to Salem.

In San Francisco, they were uncle and aunt of Mrs. Stapan, cousin, Miss Jean Farley, who is a soprano under contract to the San Francisco opera company. They visited with an uncle and aunt of Mrs. Stapan, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Farley, in Medford, and with friends, Dr. and Mrs. E. N. Terrill in Ashland.

VISITORS here for the day, Thursday, were H. H. O'Reilly and his daughter, Miss Jane O'Reilly, Portland, who visited with Mr. O'Reilly's daughters, Mrs. Sydney Kromer and Miss Katharine O'Reilly, the group having luncheon at the Kromer

Miss Olsen Recent Bride

Miss Luella Olsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Olsen, was married to Leo Robins, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Robins, Saturday, September 23, in the Foursquare church. The Rev. Roy Worthington officiated.

Candlelighters were Miss Dorothy Shyrock and Miss Katherine Santee who wore matching red dresses. Soloist was Howard Olsen, uncle of the bride, and pianist was Mrs. Delma Callahan.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white suit with blue accessories and carried an orchid on a Bible. Attending the bride was Mrs. Robert Haney, sister of the bridegroom, who wore a green suit with black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Best man was Erwin Raaf.

A reception followed at the First Methodist church. Assisting were Mrs. Harry Santee, Mrs. LaVern Franke, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Mildred Cross, Miss Myrna Boyce, Miss Betty Sorensen and Miss Hazel Engalls.

Following a wedding trip to Vancouver, B.C., the couple are at home in Salem.

church. A reception will follow in the Cascade room of the Albany hotel. Her sister, Miss Blanche McClellan, will arrive from Washington, D.C., to act as honor attendant.

Dear Mary,

Wish you and Ted could have been here for Sue's party. She served barbecued spareribs with a wonderful dip sauce. Turns out the sauce she uses is a sandwich spread called Lunch Box—and yours truly is now one of its greatest fans.

Anyhow, the next day I lost no time in getting a jar of this Lunch Box Spread (Safeway carries it)—and wait till you taste what it does for a sandwich! I want you to try it with peanut butter and crisp bacon tidbits for something really special.

You know what a fussbudget I am about flavor—and this Lunch Box is the best and freshest spread I've ever tasted. It's made with real, pure mayonnaise perked up with pickle relish and sweet red peppers. Honestly, I don't see how it can sell so reasonably, but I'm glad it does—for we go through a quart in no time. You better buy the quart size too for I know you'll want to try it in all your fillings—sauces and spreads.

You must be up to your ears, like I am, packing lunches these days, so I've got a new kind of sandwich for you—no bread! Just spread a slice of cold boiled ham with lots of delicious Lunch Box. Roll it around a crisp green onion and secure it with a toothpick. My boys think it's super—and yours will, too.

Love, Helen
