

Vikings Relax After 19-6 Lebanon Win Snaps Losses

"Gone fishin'!" That was the explanation on the whereabouts of Coach Loren Mori Saturday morning, and it was a sign that the Viking mentor had relaxed at last after his gridders posted their first victory in five starts.

Salem ended its losing streak Friday night by powering a painless 19-6 win over the Lebanon Warriors.

In assistant coach Hal Peterson's words, the Vikings "were hungry for victory and they wanted to get filled up." He said the team had "an entirely different attitude."

When asked of the mud conditions he replied, "we're better on the ground than we are in the air, which was proven last night." October 20 will long be remembered in Coach Mori's scrap book as it was that day that his four game losing streak was broken.

Salem "caught fire" early in the first period when the Vikings traveled to the Warriors 16-yard line before being held. Then Gene Jones scampered across for the initial TD of the game. Burt Harp stepped in with his educated toe and kicked the extra point. That was the only scoring in the first period.

In the second quarter the Warriors went on the warpath to stage a long drive of their own with Dean Smith carrying the ball across for the lone Lebanon TD.

Salem led 7-6 at the half. Jones again made a long dash to paydirt following a pitchout from field general Buzz Covatt. Harp's kick failed. The score now was 13-6 at the end of the third quarter.

In the final stanza Jones again did most of the ball carrying to get the pigskin on the Lebanon 21. Two power drives over the last stripe were nullified by penalties, but the Vikings were not to be denied.

Burt Harp finally plunged over for that long-awaited Salem touchdown, but his kick was too short.

The last minutes of the game were played in a heavy fog and the 800 spectators could barely see the action.

The Vikings rolled to a grand total of 223 yards compared with the Warriors 180 and the Vikings never tried a single pass during the contest and also never had to punt.

The Mortmen will face the Corvallis Spartans next week in a Big Six clash.

Hollywood Shorts Are Here To Stay Manager Proclaims

Oakland, Calif., Oct. 21 (AP)—Hollywood's baseball shorts won't be any shorter next year but like home runs and beefs with umpires, they are here to stay.

Fred Haney says so. The personable manager of the diamond stars of the movie capital started the Pacific Coast league in particular and all baseball in general when he trotted out his players in the abbreviated uniforms two weeks after the season started last spring.

Although he has done a tour of duty as a radio sportscaster, commendably too, and realizes the value of favorable publicity, Haney makes no pretense of being a fashion dictator.

Haney made his seasonal report on the "Hollywood shorts" while attending the coast league meeting here yesterday.

"They're the most practical uniforms for warm weather. Some of the players were a bit dubious at first," he said. "They didn't know how the public would accept them or how they would look wearing shorts instead of the old established longies. There isn't any doubt they are for them completely now."

"We tested the run to first base in both types of uniform. The players were half a step or more ahead when wearing shorts. That means the difference between a base hit and an out."

Hollywood used the shorts in warm weather games at Sacramento, Portland, San Francisco, and Oakland, as well as at home. In Oakland, advance publicity attracted a crowd of 11,000 for a game that normally would have drawn about half that number.

Several other clubs throughout the country picked up the idea, Haney said. Mobile of the Southern association was the second team to use more ventilated clothing.

Haney said he got the idea for the shorts after reading a column by Braven Dyer, Los Angeles sports writer, who lamented the fact that other sports had made changes and improvements in equipment and ideas but baseball none.

Special Deer Season Is Voted By Game Bosses

Portland, Oct. 21 (AP)—The state game commission has decided to hold three special deer hunts.

They will be in the Silverton Hills country east of Silverton, in the Burnt river district south of Baker, and in the White river country in northern Wasco county.

A special hunt, proposed for Lake county, was not approved after a hearing today.

The seasons for Silverton Hills and Burnt river districts will be Nov. 3 through Nov. 5.

Applications for permits may be made by letter or post card before 10 a. m., Oct. 27. The drawing will be made the same day. Any hunter, including those who already have killed deer this year, is eligible. Applications must include number and type of license and be accompanied by a $5 permit fee, the commission said.

Eight hundred permits will be issued for both does and bucks in the Silverton Hills hunt, and 300 for does only in the Burnt river hunt.

The White river country season was set for Dec. 2 through Dec. 5. Deadline for applying for permits is 5 p. m., Nov. 15. The commission said it would issue 300 permits for killing does only.

Pancho Worries About Net, Gussie Over Pants

New York, Oct. 21 (AP)—Pancho Segura is sure he'll knock over Jack Kramer in their professional tennis opener next Thursday, but Gussie Moran's in a dither—she doesn't know what in the world she'll wear.

"I think I take this Kramer," Pancho, the 29-year-old pride of Ecuador said last night as Bobby Riggs' troupe gathered to launch another swing.

"I bet Jack two of the last times we played—in the nationals and at Paris. I think I got his number."

"In this you win quick or get beat quick. The man in condition wins. I'm in best condition."

The 1950-51 tour opens at Madison Square Garden with Kramer, the touring champion, facing Segura, who whipped him for the pro title.

The preliminary principals—Gorgeous Gussy Moran, under a $75,000 contract, and Pauline Betz Addie—spent the evening discussing what they'd wear.

"I can't wear those leopard skin things," said Gussy, eye-catching in a white sweater and black skirt. "They're kinda old now."

"I wouldn't think of it either," put in Pauline, her blonde hair in ribbons.

Gussy, who shocked Wimbledon with white lace panties more than a year ago and did the same for Egypt with a daring black number, disclosed she would have about 20 different costumes for the nation-wide tour.

"Each will cost about $20," she said. "I'll have college colors for the college towns."

Coast Baseball Slate Cut to 172 Games in '51

Oakland, Calif., Oct. 21 (AP)—Pacific Coast league baseball teams will play 172 games next year, as contrasted to the 200 game 1950 schedule.

Directors of the AAA league yesterday voted to open the 1951 season March 27 and close it Sept. 9. This year the season ran until Oct. 8.

Attendance, none too good, dropped sharply after the football season opened a month earlier.

Post-season governor's cup playoffs were reinstated in abbreviated form. Semifinals will be on a two out of three basis and finals on three out of five games.

Directors also voted a 12:50 a. m. curfew for night games, a one hour extension.

Spring training will open March 1.

Directors will take up player salary limits today.

They cut the team roster limit to 23 yesterday, saving each club about $10,000 a year.

Hawaii Erupt To Defeat Idaho College, 43-14

Caldwell, Idaho, Oct. 21 (AP)—Erupting like their island volcano, Mauna Loa, the University of Hawaii Rainbows broke a 14-14 halftime deadlock and buried College of Idaho under a hot flow of touchdowns last night, 43-14.

Bob Moore touched off the third period three-TD parade for the Rainbows with a 56-yard gallop. They added a safety in the same quarter and tallied once more in the fourth.

The visitors opened the scoring in the second period when Jimmy Asato rambled 65 yards to the goal line. A few minutes later they counted again on Ken Kahooloie's 45 yard pass to Dick Carpenter. The Coyotes tied it up on Lavon Scott's 29 yards run to pay dirt and Herb Imanaka's heave to Ted Martin, good for 68 yards and a touchdown.

The Leslie Blues and Parrish Cards romped over all opposition Friday afternoon to post their third consecutive wins in the Salem junior high circuit.

The Blues downed West Salem's Giants 34-0 and the Cards beat the Parrish Greys 31-7. The two leaders clash next week in the final round of the regular schedule, after which a five-team playoff will be launched.

The Blues displayed plenty of power Friday as they scored TD's in every stanza over the helpless Giants. The Greys were more fortunate in being able to score a lone TD.

Cardinals Turn Back Stayton, 13-7, in Fourth

Sacred Hearts Cardinals looked impressive Friday night as they came back in the final period to break a 7 to 7 deadlock and turn back the Stayton Packers, 13 to 7. The game was a Marion-Polk league affair.

In the first quarter the Cardinals drove deep into Packer territory only to lose the ball on downs. Then, a fumble by Stayton in the end zone gave Jim Dempewolf, an opportunity to fall on the slippery pigskin for a touchdown.

Stayton tied it up on a 75 yard march with Don Kirsch going the final 25. The Cards nailed the contest in the fourth on a 30 yard pass maneuver from Terry Cooney to John Hoy.

Sacred Heart's next game will be with Cascade at Cascade next Friday.

Academy Crusaders Break 17-Game Streak with Win

Salem Academy was just about ready to challenge Reed college for a chance in Fum Bowl when the Crusader up and won a ball game for themselves Friday afternoon. Their victims were Gaston high gridders—25 to 7.

The game, played on the Gaston field, constituted the first win for Salem Academy in 17 attempts over a period of three years.

Coach Dale Farnell reports the Crusaders have been improving week by week and will be primed for action against Stayton next Friday.

There was no scoring in the first period, but in the second Charles Schmidt, right halfback, got away for 20 yards and a touchdown off the Statue of Liberty play. In the third Schmidt intercepted Gaston pass in mid-field and with the help of some excellent downfield blocking by Peterson and Friesen, went all of the way.

Harvey Wall, fullback broke through guard for a touchdown in the fourth, while a few minutes later, Quarterback Dave Doerkens found his brother Jim in the end zone with a 36 yard pass. One conversion point was made — by Dave Knaupp.

Gaston tallied in the third when Holloway skirted the Academy end. Koverstein converted.

Bob Johnson and Evan Starkey were standouts on defense for the Crusaders.

Players Released

Although no public announcement has been made, it's a fact that Ad Liska manager of the Salem Senators last season and three members of the club have been released by the Portland Beaver management. Those released are Catcher Bill Beard, Pitcher Bob Costello and Infielder Gene Gaviglio. Wally Scott, recently involved in a deal with the Spokane Indians, finished the season with a defensive mark of .931, just five percentage points below Bud Peterson, who played the short patch for Tri City. Scott was involved in 91 double plays, which gave him a tie with Bache of Tacoma for second place. W. Tran of Vancouver whose defensive mark of .963 gave him first place, checked in with 104 twin killings. One of the remarkable bits of Western International statistics is Mel Wasley's showing at third base where his percentage of .952 led all players at this position. Wasley never claimed to be a third baseman, which makes his record of only 10 errors while accepting 198 chances the more remarkable.

Western International Records

On April 21, Yakima batters drew 20 walks for a new league mark. On April 30, Spokane turned in 10 errors during a seven inning game. Vancouver tied the club fielding mark when the Caps made six double plays on June 27 with first baseman Bob McLean and second sacker Leonard Tran trying the individual game mark with six and five, respectively. Al Spaeter of Tri City established a new record for high percentage at second base with .975, as did William Tran of Tacoma for shortstop fielding with .963. Wenatchee's Donald Fraechia broke the record for most double plays at third base in one season with 42 as did Dick Greco of Tacoma when he posted 10 double plays from the outfield. Joe Bache of Tacoma made two putouts and 13 assists on July 14 to tie a new record for a nine inning traacs.

Tierney Adds New Mark

John Tierney of the Senators broke into the record department with his 18 wild heaves and 15 hit batters. Tom Breisinger of Wenatchee, was the losingest pitcher with 18 setbacks. He hung up a record in the balk department with 15. Al Treichel of Wenatchee committed five balks in a single nine inning game April 19 against Yakima. Ferrarese issued 209 walks, another new mark.

Michigan State Remembers

Coach Biggie Munn and his associates at Michigan State have not forgotten the hospitality they enjoyed while in Salem two years ago. Ted Chambers found this out when he was on the East Lansing campus when Oregon State played the Spartans early in the month. "Tell those folks back in Salem we have never been treated as royally as we were while in your city in 1948," was one of the first statements issued by Coach Munn when he encountered Ted. He indicated they would like to come back and in this connection it may be pointed out that Michigan State will be in Oregon in 1952, for a meeting with the Beavers. Whether the game will be played in Portland or Corvallis, has not been determined.

Still on the Pan

Few athletic coaches can do everything right in the minds of the critics and in most instances they are accused of using poor judgment most of the time. Down at U.S.C., Coach Jeff Cravath had been placed on the pan for not using Ed Demirjian with greater frequency during the season. To which Cravath had explained, "Ed is a most promising man, but he isn't yet grooved for varsity attack. You don't know what he's going to do." After what happened in the California game, the experts may now criticize Jeff "for failure to take him out" as Bill Leiser of the San Francisco Chronicle puts it. Late in the contest, Demirjian found himself in charge of the Trojans on the Cal 3 foot stripe, four downs to make it in 35 seconds. He called the right play, a drive by Fullback Pucci to the middle. But he forgot to give the football. Russing backward, wide and deep to his own left, he found he still had the football in his arm and no where to go, except down, as Bartlett and LeMon hit him. Apparently Cravath knew whereof he spoke when he said Demirjian was not yet ready. You can't win for losing.
