Auxiliary Starting Subscription Drive

McMinnville — The American Legion auxiliary, unit No. 21, McMinnville, is starting its third annual subscription campaign. The commissions which they derive through sponsoring the sale of these publications will be used to purchase more new portable type hospital beds, much needed equipment for use in the homes of the residents of this area. When received, these hospital beds will be placed throughout Yamhill county and will be available for use in the homes without charge.

Through this same plan in the past two years they have placed a new portable polio-pak heater, two portable hospital beds and a new portable type oxygen tent in Yamhill county, all of which are now available to all residents free of charge.
