

Rainbows Plan Ball On Dec. 22

Members of Chadwick assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, are busy with plans for their Christmas formal dance, planned for the evening of December 22, in Crystal Gardens. Dancing will be between 9 and 12 o'clock with Glenn Woodry's orchestra playing.

Miss Nora Hamilton, the new worthy adviser for the assembly, is general chairman of the ball. Other chairmen include: Miss Donna Phelps, decorations; Miss Roberta Graham, patrons; Miss JoAnn Ricketts, refreshments; Miss JoAnn Wenger, programs and publicity.

The event will be one of the gala holiday events for the high school crowd.

Holiday Events In Auxiliary Groups

Mrs. Pauline Richards, commander of the Disabled American Veterans auxiliary, Mrs. Blaine Martin, Mrs. Verne Ostrander and Mrs. Neva Levinson, president of the Purple Heart auxiliary, spent Tuesday at Portland Veterans hospital wrapping gifts for the party and for the veterans for Christmas. On Christmas eve they will assist in presenting the gifts to the patients.

Attending the party to do Christmas hospital work at the home of Mrs. Verne Ostrander were Mesdames Pauline Richards, Dennis Stevenson, Stuart Johns, Cal Samuel, Mildred Volpert, Blaine Martin, Evelyn Bremmer, Alma Hatfield, Esther Jennis, Fanny Bard, Lillie Broylis, Cora Hutchinson, Helen Cannon, Miss Estelle Walworth, Miss Mary Bremmer, Miss Vona Richards and Miss Jean Volpert and the hostess.

A Christmas party for the auxiliary of the Military Order of the Purple Heart and chapter, members and families and prospective members, will be held at the West Salem City hall, Thursday, December 14, at 8 o'clock. There will be a gift exchange and a children's gift exchange. On the committee are Mrs. Art Ring, Mrs. Cliff Stephens, Mrs. Elmer Byer and the president, Mrs. Neva Levinson.

Engagement Told

Hopewell—Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Moddemeyer have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Eleanor Moddemeyer, to James T. Kirklin of Salem. The wedding will be an event of next fall. Miss Moddemeyer and Mr. Kirklin are employed in the state offices in Salem.

Office Group Plans Dinner

The staff in the withholding division of the state tax commission is staging a pre-holiday dinner this evening at 7 o'clock in the American Legion club, reservations being made for 67.

E. A. Bamford is to be master of ceremonies. Mrs. Vincent J. Purvis is general chairman for the event with Mrs. E. H. Becker, Mrs. Earl C. Hartman, Mrs. Leonard Schwalen and Mrs. John Brown as co-chairmen. There will be group singing and Mrs. Joseph Reuter and Miss Rosemary Taylor are to give readings.

On December 22 the staff is to hold a Christmas party in the office at noon with exchange of gifts.

Past Presidents in VFW Auxiliary Feted

Silverton—Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary presidents were honored at the annual past presidents' night in a program and presentation of floral gifts. The presiding officials since the year 1934 when the Silverton auxiliary was organized included Ruth McPike, Gurine Standard, Edith Devericks, Marie Solle, Clarice Johnson, Esther Long, Alma Fierst, Marian Tucker, Ida Johnson, Josephine Hartman, Clara Tokstad, Lenna Elliott, Bessie Porter and Edna Walker. Mrs. Ruth Kniess, president, was in charge of the program and business hour. Baskets are to be provided for deserving families.

For the Christmas party Mrs. Walter Geren and Mrs. Carl Specht are to arrange the program; Mrs. Emil Grant, Mrs. L. F. Tucker and Mrs. Lewis Thomas will prepare the treats and be in charge of gift distribution; to arrange for the tree will be Betty Lee Morgan and Enid Elliott; buying the candy, Mrs. Cecil Cox, Mrs. Walter Geren and Mrs. Olaf Tokstad.

A letter of appreciation was read from Camp White acknowledging receipt of stand covers and wheel chair robes for veterans.

During the joint meeting with post members, who had also honored past officers, a featured speaker was Al Clemmens, department defense chairman, Salem, who outlined the need of home defense.

Christmas Party Friday

Mt. Angel—A highlight social event for Court Marion, Catholic Daughters of America, the annual Christmas party, was attended by approximately 200 members on Monday evening in the club rooms. A late supper and program followed in the St. Mary's dining hall.

A short meeting was held with Mrs. J. L. Wachter, grand regent, presiding. Reports given by Mrs. Frank Aman stated boxes of clothing collected in this community for the Korea drive netted 1800 pounds. Sorting this clothing and shoes and packing these into 70 boxes were Mrs. Alois Keber, Miss Elizabeth Keber, Mrs. Frank Aman, Mrs. R. J. Welton and Mrs. Henry Geck for the Daughters, and Mrs. Louis Weissensels and Mrs. Joseph Platz for the St. Anna society. Herman Schwab transported this merchandise to Portland for shipment.

Mrs. J. T. Bauman, chairman on retreats, told of 250 women having made the Day of Recollection held here recently, with breakfast served to 150 of these. The members voted to hold another one this next year. Mrs. Kaiser said the local degree of officers had presented the ritual at Albany and McMinnville when initiation ceremonies were held for new members of Catholic Daughters of America in both cities.

Members decided to dispense with the social meeting in December as it would fall on Christmas day. Mrs. Albert Dieker was awarded the guest prize. Santa Claus in the person of Mrs. Alice Kroll distributed the gifts. Special guests were the chaplain Rev. Cyril Lebold, Rev. Clement Frank and Rev. Hildebrand Melchior.

A comical monologue reading was given by Mrs. Albert Schiedler, assisted by Mrs. W. P. Smith. Members of the committee gave a comedy skit. Taking part were Mrs. Tony Bigler, Miss Louise Butsch, Mrs. Norbert Butsch, Mrs. A. T. Wilde, Mrs. Albert Uhing and Mrs. Alois Humpert.

Mrs. Urban Butsch and Mrs. William Fessler were in charge of games. Serving supper and hostesses for the program were Mrs. Urban Butsch, chairman, and the Mesdames W. P. Smith, Albert Wilde, Norbert Butsch, Alois Humpert, Bernard Schiedler and Gene Barrett and Miss Louise Butsch, members of the yearly social committee, assisted by Miss Mary Anne Toner, and the Mesdames Gordon Aman, Herman Schwab, William Fessler, Tony Bigler, Fred Baumgartner, Alois Keber, Charles Bochsler, Albert Uhing and M. I. Meyers.
