

Seeing Husband Off Is Old Stuff to Mrs. Ike

Denver, Dec. 21 (AP)—Mamie Doud Eisenhower has had lots of experience—34 years of it—in seeing her husband off to the wars. But at Denver yesterday, the wife of the famous General Dwight Eisenhower confessed that she's not much different than any other wife when it comes to saying goodbye.

'Sunset Boulevard' Rated Top 1950 Movie

New York, Dec. 21 (AP)—The national board of review selected "Sunset Boulevard" today as the best American movie of 1950. The board awarded its selection of top actress of the year to the picture's star, Gloria Swanson.

After "Sunset Boulevard," the board rated "All About Eve," "The Asphalt Jungle," "The Men," "Edge of Doom," "Twelve O'clock High," "Panic in the Streets," "Cyrano de Bergerac,"

Said Mrs. Eisenhower, "We're all human . . . naturally there will be tears."

And while he's away, she probably will avoid newsreels because, "the only thing that breaks me up is seeing Ike walk across the screen."

Mrs. Eisenhower said she hopes to accompany the general on his tour of Atlantic Pact countries. If she doesn't, she may wait for him at their newly-purchased 185-acre dairy farm near Gettysburg, Pa.

The couple is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sheldon Doud.

"No Way Out," and "Stage Fright."

Parole Board Gets Young Burglars' Case

Dallas — Two youths who waived grand jury indictment and pleaded guilty to charges of robbery not in a dwelling were certified to the state parole board for pre-sentence investigation by Judge Arlie G. Walker in Polk county circuit court Tuesday.

They are Wesley John Linck, 20, and Etienne L. Watkins, 21, who admitted participation in the burglary of the Farmers Union Co-op. Oil association at Derry about a month ago.

A 17-year-old youth who was also implicated in the burglary had a hearing in juvenile court of Judge C. F. (Jack) Hayes and was placed on probation for two years.

The trio admitted the burglary when they were arrested recently by Joe Shobe, Clackamas county deputy sheriff, in connection with another offense.
