Many Attend Legion Party

A birthday party was given for Capital post No. 9, American Legion, Monday evening at the Legion hall by members of the auxiliary. More than 150 persons were present for the no-host dinner followed by group singing and dancing.

The Rev. George Swift offered the prayer. Mrs. Clara Poland, president of the auxiliary, introduced past and present officers of the group, and James Turnbull, post commander, introduced the post officers.

A ceremony of lighting the 33 candles on a large birthday cake was conducted by Mrs. Mem Pearce and Mrs. Hattie Cook.

Paul Ward, winner of the post's contest on Americanism, was introduced by Rep. Mark O. Hatfield who is a member of the post. The winning entry was entitled "Hello," and concerned the U.S. constitution. Points Mr. Ward brought out are practice patriotism, vote, and take advantage of American privileges. These are the bases of freedom in the constitution, he said. Mr. Ward gave an extemporaneous talk on "Authorizing the Income Tax." Presentation of a money prize was made by Mr. Turnbull.

Mrs. George Gabriel introduced the members of her committee who served the dinner. Several songs were sung by Mrs. David Campbell accompanied by Miss Marjorie Johnson. The group joined in singing and dancing to close the evening's entertainment.

CHRISTENING ceremonies for John Philip Maulding II, five and one-half months old son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Maulding, will be next Sunday afternoon, Easter day, in St. Paul's Episcopal church at 3 o'clock, the Rev. George H. Swift officiating. Godparents will be the baby's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Cooley, and Edwin Allen of Eugene. The baby is to wear the christening robe of his cousin, Christine Cooley, who was christened in St. Paul's on Easter Sunday three years ago. Following the service, a small reception is planned at the home of the baby's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley. Also to be here for the occasion are the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Maulding of Tillamook, and an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Plato of Portland.

KAPPA DELTA alumnae announce their meeting planned for this Wednesday has been postponed until March 28, the group to meet then with Mrs. F. G. Rankin.
