The health and safety committee was in charge of arrangements. Members of the committee are Mrs. R. C. Equall, Mrs. Donald Equall, Mrs. George Timm, Mrs. Kenneth Thompson, Mrs. George Pardey, Mrs. Jessie Wageman and the president, Mrs. Don Bell. A "dutch auction" followed the program.

UO Students Busy

"Finian's Rainbow" Sell-out; Salem Seniors Visit Campus

By CHARLOTTE ALEXANDER

University of Oregon, Eugene — "Finian's Rainbow," is the talk of the campus, and the box office has been sold out for weeks. In response to popular demand, it will be held over. This production was directed by Horace Robinson, and the dancing of Jane Bowen, the singing and acting of Glenna Hurst and Gordon Howard will long be remembered. This is the first musical to be produced since "Of Thee I Sing" in connection with Junior Week-end.

The blood bank will return to the campus this term and the goal set is 1000 pints. Before it was only 500.

Law week-end plans have been revealed, and preparation for nomination of queen candidates is under way. The fun began with the law school breakfast into song with a resulting uproar among the students. Usually the law school is the quietest place on the campus.

A state building program which would include remodeling and expansion of the university journalism building, remodeling and addition to the business administration, social science buildings, and construction of a medical school teaching hospital was proposed by the state board of higher education.

A special television broadcast in Portland, April 25 to 28, will include two acts by university students. This show will be Portland's first look at TV and is being sponsored by the Greater Portland Industries exposition. It will be sent out from a station temporarily located on the Portland university campus, by television directors from Los Angeles.

The Junior-Senior breakfast,

MRS. ELWOOD A. MYERS AND MICHAEL

TO ENGLAND for a three-month visit with relatives have gone Mrs. Elwood A. Myers and son, Michael, the two sailing last week-end.

McDaniel's Brazen Proposal Of 34 Years Ago Recalled

Thirty-four years ago Ivan G. McDaniel was manager of the Commercial club, the erstwhile Push club that ultimately became Salem Chamber of Commerce. Audacious promotion was his forte. On January 5, 1917, Mr. McDaniel addressed a letter to Henry P. Benson, mayor of Salem, Mass. Mr. McDaniel emphatically told the mayor that Salem, Oregon, was coming to the front, that the Massachusetts town of the same name was detracting from local lustre and that it would be a good thing if Salem, Massachusetts would change its name.

After recovering somewhat from shock Mr. Benson addressed Mr. McDaniel and the Commercial club to congratulate them upon the growth of their Western city (population by the census of 1910 was 14,000) and reminded that all of the many Salems in the United States were named after Salem, Mass.

Continued Mayor Benson: "When your little community reaches a population of 50,000 or more and a valuation that will place you in the same class as our small cities of the east, in short when your city has reached the size that your manager's nerve and confidence has already reached, we will advise you then to change the name of your city . . . and not ask the venerable mother of all the Sals."

Mt. Angel Primrose Show To Be Exhibited Sunday

Mt. Angel—The Mt. Angel Garden club will present the fourth annual primrose show in St. Mary's dining hall here next Sunday, April 22 from 2 to 8 p.m. Miss Juliana Dehler is general chairman. There are no admission fees for seeing the exhibits or exhibiting.

A loving cup donated by the Mt. Angel city council will be given as a sweepstake prize to the exhibitor with the most ribbon points. The blue ribbon or first prize counts five points, the red ribbon three points and the white ribbon one point. The plants and flowers will be judged by two judges who will be chosen by the American Primrose society of Portland, with the same rules followed as the Portland show.

A person who grows primroses for his own pleasure, not for sale and who issues no list or catalogue and who does not advertise is classified as an amateur. Invited to bring flowers to the show, are all commercial growers, who will not compete with the amateur growers in divisions 1 to 12 inclusive.

Commercial growers will have six plants of one variety in a standard flat. All commercial growers will compete for ribbon prizes.

Exhibits will be received at the school from 2 to 5 p.m. on Saturday, April 21, and from 8 to 11 a.m. on Sunday. No entries can be received after 11 a.m. as the judging will begin at that time.

Rules Outlined
The rules are to have one plant to the pot or container, and have name and address attached. The receiving and placing committees will classify the entry.

The division for amateurs include Acaulis, Polyanthus, Juliae, Aricula, Rarities and Oddities, Sieboldi and Candalabra; a junior division for any type of blooming primrose plant, a flower arrangement or a dish garden exhibited by a youngster not over 15 years of age; a cut flower arrangement featuring primroses; and a Garden Club division which calls for six plants of any one variety or mixed colors in a standard flat or smaller.

Coffee and cookies will be served at the roomier quarters of the St. Mary's dining hall. The show committee follows: Miss Juliana Dehler, general chairman; entries — Mrs. Roy Palmer, Mrs. Paul Sliffe and Mrs. Ray Telfer; placing — Miss Anna Duda, Bernard Schiedler, and James Ebner; registration of guests — Mrs. Ben Travis, Mrs. George Schmidt, and Mrs. Joseph M. Wachter; hospitality and information — Mrs. Bernard Schiedler, A. A. Ebner, A. G. Traeger; clerk — Miss Teresa Duda; lunch for judges — Jacob Berchold; cookies — Mrs. A. Ebner; making coffee — Mrs. Bernard Duda, Mrs. Henry Annen, Mrs. A. A. Hauth, Mrs. Fred Baumgartner and Mrs. Ed Zach; pouring — Mrs. O. J. Williams, Mrs. David Travis, Mrs. Joseph Brockhaus, Mrs. Joseph M. Wagner (Theresa); Mrs. Joseph Berchold and Mrs. Joseph Wagner (Violet).

VFW Head Says U.S.-Russ at War

Pendleton, April 21 (AP)—"We are at war with Russia and this is no time to maintain a business-as-usual attitude," rapped Charles C. Ralls of Seattle, VFW national commander, last night.

He said it is time American people woke up. Ralls called civilian defense a joke. He continually spoke of the apathy and said there were too many generals and not enough privates.

On the MacArthur controversy, Ralls would make no comment. He said he may speak on the situation of a national radio network Saturday.

"My position as national VFW commander does not make me an automatic expert on controversial topics," he quipped. "If I knew all the answers, I would be a five-star general instead of a one-time corporal."
