Table Show Due

Salem citizens are advised right now to reserve some time either May 1 or 2 to view the Salem Garden club's table show to be staged those two days at the Izaak Walton league club house.

Certainly it is an ambitious project and will be one of the most spectacular and colorful events of its type ever presented here.

There will be 24 wedding anniversary tables, each set with the colors and flowers appropriate to the occasion.

Twelve birthday tables will be arranged, each to be set with a satin cloth matching the month's birthstone and the flowers of the month.

In addition, there will be nine holiday table themes—patriotic, Valentine, Easter, St. Patrick's, Thanksgiving, Christmas, etc.

General types of tables will feature birthdays, breakfasts, luncheons, banquets, formal dinners, picnics, showers, bon voyage occasions, etc.

Then there will be a series of "colored tables," carrying out color themes, blue, green, lavender, yellow, rose, etc.

Other features will include a May basket tree and other specialties.

Mrs. Walter E. Martin and Mrs. Bryan Goodenough are co-chairmen for the event. Mrs. Ben Maxwell is club president. Hundreds of ribbon bows, colored containers and other articles needed are being made by Mrs. Maxwell and other club members to make all the settings authentic in color and theme.

Hours for the show will be 2 until 9 p.m. each day, May 1 and 2. An admission charge is being asked.
