

Group Plans for Tea

COMMITTEE MEMBERS planning the annual spring silver tea of the Salem Memorial Hospital auxiliary met this week at the home of Mrs. Merrill D. Ohling to discuss details for the event. Three of the committee are shown here discussing tea plans, also looking over some of the treasured Ohling heirlooms. Left to right: Mrs. Richard Upjohn, Mrs. Harmon Harvey, Mrs. E. L. Gray and Mrs. Ohling.

THE monthly dinner meeting of Salem Business and Professional Women's club is arranged for Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock at Nohlgren's. Program for the evening is to be a surprise one.

The nominating committee headed by Mrs. Mona Yoder has submitted the following slate of officers to be voted on at a meeting in May: President, Mrs. Sue Booth; first vice president, Miss Mildred Yetter; second vice president, Miss Eleanor Roberts and Miss Edna McElhaney; recording secretary, Mrs. Louis Neuman; corresponding secretary, Mrs. George B. Causey; treasurer, Mrs. Frank P. Marshall; directors, Mrs. C. W. Jorgensen, Mrs. Dana Billeter, Miss Helen Hiller, Mrs. Jessie M. Davidson, Mrs. Maxine Lawrence and Miss Minnie Just.

The monthly social meeting of Salem unit No. 136, American Legion auxiliary, is arranged for Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Woman's club. Entertainment is being planned by the child welfare committee with Mrs. E. Jack Simkins in charge. Assisting will be Mrs. Joseph Matujec, Mrs. James Delaney, Mrs. Clayton Steinke, Mrs. Wilbur Lytle, Mrs. Robert Friess, Mrs. Boyd Babbitt and Miss Alice Schmidt.

Speaker is to be Miss Marion Bowen, administrator of the Marion county public welfare committee. She will talk about child welfare. Special musical selections are to be presented by members of Delta Gamma sorority at Willamette university.

Chadwick assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, is to meet at the Masonic temple, Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Following the short business meeting, the members are planning a dress-up party and each girl is to come dressed as a famous character.

Guest here this week was Mrs. Lolita Kron from Bellingham, Wash. Mrs. Kron, a charter member, was present for the 35th anniversary tea given by Hal Hibbard auxiliary, United Spanish War Veterans, Tuesday afternoon. She also visited friends and relatives while here.

Xi Lambda chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will meet at the home of Mrs. Ima Jean Johnson, 1945 Breyman, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. There is to be a speaker on China.

State Federation President to Be Guest at Woman's Club Friday

Guest speaker for Western Woman's club next Friday afternoon will be Mrs. H. M. Zell of Wasco, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs. The meeting is set for 2 o'clock at the club house.

Accompanying Mrs. Zell will be Ernest E. Hall of Portland, first vice president of the state federation and Mrs. D. O. Trexler of Portland, third district president. Others invited are Mrs. H. R. Laslett, president of the Corvallis club, Mrs. James L. Gault and other members from Corvallis; Mrs. R. A. Talbot, president of the Albany club and other members; Mrs. O. D. Raymond, president of Salem Heights Woman's club and all members of the club and Mrs. Ralph Atwood, president of the Junior Woman's club and the members.

A reception for new members will follow the meeting. Mrs. Glenn S. Paxson, membership chairman, is to introduce them. They are Mrs. William H. Foster, Mrs. Rose Evans, Mrs. E. A. Tiesler, Mrs. T. E. Borkman, Mrs. Chris Renschler, Mrs. W. A. Jones, Mrs. Mem Pearce, Mrs. Jack Henningsen, Mrs. Helen Goodenough, Mrs. Leon W. Gleason and Mrs. H. W. Elgin. New members by transfer are Mrs. Harry Sappenfeld from Kansas and Mrs. J. D. Walker from Bend.

Special music, arranged by Mrs. David H. Cameron, will include flute solos by Mrs. James C. Stone, accompanied by Miss Alice Cray Brown.

Tea chairman for the afternoon is Mrs. George Rossman. Assisting her are to be Mrs. George W. Myers, Mrs. Arthur Jones, Mrs. Delores Allers, Mrs. Willis C. Clark, Mrs. Robert D. Gregg, Mrs. William T. Grier, Mrs. J. N. Harper, Mrs. J. A. Jelderks, Mrs. Edith Eyre White, Mrs. Harry J. Wiedmer and Mrs. Clarence Wilson.

Mrs. Zell will be honored at a luncheon at 12:30 o'clock preceding the afternoon meeting. Luncheon is to be at the Marion hotel with state officers and members of the Woman's club board invited. Chairman of arrangements is Mrs. Carl W. Chambers.

The regular monthly meeting of the club which usually precedes the general meeting, April 30, at 10 a.m. at the club house.

County Federation Meeting
Several members of the Salem Woman's club will attend the Marion county Federation of Women's clubs meeting in Woodburn next Friday afternoon. Woodburn groups acting as hostesses will be the Woman's club, Junior Woman's club and Woman's Rural club.

Mrs. Robert Hutcheon of Salem, president of the County Federation, is to preside. Mrs. Frederick Leupold is to represent the Salem Woman's club president, Mrs. Howard Hunsaker, at the meeting. She will give the reports of the Salem Woman club's.

Also going from Salem will be Mrs. Frank Marshall, Mrs. Earl Andesen, Mrs. W. W. McKinney, Mrs. Charles E. Roblin, Mrs. Paul Grabenow and Mrs. J. A. Brownson, the latter two past presidents of the county organization.

Tri-Y-Teen Mothers club is to meet at the YWCA next Thursday at 1:30 p.m. Speaker will be Miss Margaret Pepper of the Oregon state employment service who will talk on "Teen-Age Employment."

St. Helena's guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church is meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. James C. Stone at 8 o'clock with Mrs. W. G. Phelps and Mrs. Ed Lewis as co-hostesses.

SOJOURNERS club is to meet for its regular semi-monthly social and card party on Thursday afternoon at Salem Woman's club house. Salad luncheon will be served.

On the committee for the afternoon are Mrs. J. S. Bonowitz as chairman, Mrs. John Larwood, Mrs. Richard S. Klover, Mrs. Arthur L. Lewis, Mrs. Clifford Thomas, Mrs. Richard A. Smith, Mrs. Lewis E. Scott.

Opening Monday in the Elfstrom art galleries will be a showing of the pictures of Miss Connie Fowler, formerly of Salem and now on the faculty of Albion college in Michigan. The showing will be up until May 9.

All of the paintings in this show have been done since June of 1950.

Miss Fowler has had her work exhibited in a number of midwest galleries, including Detroit Art institute, Grand Rapids Art museum, University of Michigan, etc., also her work was displayed in the National Academy of Design in New York City.

In past years, Miss Fowler has received awards in wood engravings and water colors. Last year, she had a show of 70 wood engravings, oils and water colors in the Civic auditorium at Gary, Indiana, where she was the principal speaker at the North Indiana Art Education conference. Recently, Miss Fowler was appointed to the board of consultants for the Michigan State Art Education association.

Members of Salem club of Zonta International will meet next Thursday evening at the home of Miss Nellie Schwab, dessert to be at 7:30 o'clock with Mrs. Harold Larsen and Miss Janet Bower as co-hostesses.

At the business meeting, new officers are to be elected.

New members announced for the club are Mrs. Oscar C. Christensen and Mrs. J. Edgar Purdy.

In Everett, Wash., this week-end are five members of Salem zonta club, Miss Genevieve Morgan, who is the district governor for Zonta clubs; Miss Lena Belle Tartar, local club president; Miss Dorothy Pearce, district secretary; Dr. Helen Pearce and Mrs. Harry W. Scott.

Dr. Pearce as chairman will give a report on the international resolutions committee, also on the international president's message; and Mrs. Scott is to give a talk on club finances.

Woodburn—Miss Winona Breuninger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Breuninger of Woodburn, was wed to Douglas Hoppe, son of Mrs. Margaret Hoppe of Seattle, March 17 at 8 o'clock in the evening at the Seaview Methodist church in Seattle.

The bride wore a white wedding gown with overskirt of net which extended into a train. A close fitting veil cup held the fingertip length veil in place and she carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. Harold Livesay of Woodburn, sister of the bride, was matron of honor gowned in green taffeta and wearing a green net headpiece. She carried a nosegay of yellow roses and daffodils.

Miss Willa Jan Reese, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a gown of yellow net and carried a nosegay of lavender daisies.

Charles Hoppe was best man for his brother and ushers were Marvin Norelius and Philip Horrocks.

A reception was held in the church following the ceremony. Serving were Miss Ruth DeGabriele, Lorraine Bolong, and Tiani Dudley. Miss Arlene Rosenfield passed the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoppe are at home in their houseboat on Portage bay at Seattle.

YW Week Opens Sunday; Annual Tea Thursday at Lewis Home

Two major events for National YWCA Week, which starts Sunday, will be the silver tea next Thursday afternoon and the banquet for the Salore and CO clubs on Thursday evening.

The annual silver tea next Thursday afternoon will be given at the attractive Fairmount Hill home of Mrs. Sidney B. Lewis, 340 Lane Place.

All friends of the YW are extended invitation to attend, the tea to be between 3 and 5 o'clock.

Greeting guests at the door will be Mrs. Bruce Spaulding and Mrs. James C. Armprist.

In the receiving line will be Mrs. A. A. Schramm, president of the YW; Miss Gertrude Acheson, executive director of the group; Mrs. Lewis and Miss Berniece DaMoude, the latter representing young people's group in the YW. Introducing guests to the line will be Mrs. George A. Rhoten and Mrs. Wallace Carson.

Assisting about the rooms will be Mrs. Floyd L. Utter, Mrs. A. E. Ullman, Mrs. William Crothers, Mrs. George P. LaBorde, Mrs. Harold O. Schneider, Mrs. Richard Upjohn, Mrs. George W. Alling, Mrs. Robert E. Gangware, Mrs. Robert D. Gregg, Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, Mrs. Bruce F. Pickett, Mrs. Chester A. Downs, Mrs. A. W. Loucks, Mrs. Chester M. Cox, Mrs. Richard Slater, Mrs. Carlton Greider, Mrs. Robert F. Anderson.

Pouring will be Mrs. William L. Phillips, Sr., Miss Doratha Steusloff, Mrs. A. C. Haage and Mrs. Frank H. Spears. In charge of the dining room will be Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers and Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel, Sr. In charge of the serving will be Miss Joyce Lamoreux and Miss Norma Wallace. Willamette university YWCA girls serving will include Misses Marjorie Aldinger, Jane Horn, Shirley Swoboda, Nancy Dough-ton, Patricia Palmer and Marie Dietz.

On the committee arranging for the tea are Mrs. Lester F. Barr, chairman; Mrs. Philip W. Allison, Mrs. John R. Coughlin, Mrs. Robert E. Shinn.

Banquet Event

The banquet to be sponsored by Salore and the CO clubs is to be at the Pine Inn at 7 p.m. Thursday. The event celebrates the World's YWCA Membership Day, business and professional women all over the world in YWCA groups giving similar events. The program will feature the international theme as will the decorations. Folk dances representative of several countries will be presented.

Mrs. Ron F. Buick, who is visiting from Masterton, New Zealand, will be the speaker.

Miss Christine Lang is general chairman and heading other groups in arranging the banquet are Miss June Dunn, Miss Martha Montgomery, Miss Jean Oliver, Miss Joan Scharf, Mrs. Robert Brooks, Miss Nancy Stuart, Miss Dorothy Butts, Miss Mary Jean Orsborn, Miss Carol Sherman, Miss Elaine Gustafson, Miss Virginia Gackle, Mrs. Kenneth E. Martig, Miss Lucille Butts, Miss Kathleen Davies, Mrs. Lee Keis, Mrs. Tom Riches, Miss Helen Tibbets, Miss Rosalie Dalke.

Tri-Y girls are having their special national week event in the form of the annual Cotton Ball this evening in the senior high school gymnasium, between 8:30 and 11:30 o'clock. Highlighting the evening will be the naming of King Cotton.

THREE OTHERS of the hospital auxiliary tea committee and Mrs. M. B. Rudd. The tea is May 17. WILLIAM HUGH ADAMS, Mrs. C. Ronald Hudkins and Mrs. M. B. Rudd. The tea is May 17.

Several study groups in the Salem branch American Association of University Women, have meetings arranged next week.

The Wednesday evening literature group is meeting with Miss Lelia Johnson, Miss Edna Mings to lead the discussion.

The recent graduate group is to meet on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Robert E. Corey. Miss Barbara Causey is to be co-hostess.

International relations group has a special program planned for its luncheon meeting on Wednesday, April 25, in the Copper room of the Senator hotel at 12 o'clock. Mrs. Robert Thornton, state chairman of international relations in the AAUW for the past two years and the newly named vice president for the state group, is to be speaker.

Mrs. Thornton is here from Tillamook with her husband who is in the house of representatives in the legislature. For luncheon reservations for the Wednesday evening, calls should be made with either Miss Eloise Ebert, after 6 p.m. at 22561, or with Gordon Skinner, 33077.

Wednesday afternoon literature group will meet at the home of Mrs. K. B. Kugel, 735 N. Capitol, at 1:15 o'clock. Mrs. Florence Parish will review the book, "The White Witch Doctor" by Louise Stinotors. Assisting hostess is to be Louise, William H. Foster.

Mothers club of Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 43, will meet in regular session Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Masonic temple. There is to be election of officers for the new year.

Luncheon Saturday

An event for next Saturday will be the annual spring luncheon of the City Panhellenic organization. The event is the open meeting for all members of Panhellenic sororities. The luncheon will be at 1 p.m. at the Pine Inn.

Mrs. Regina Ewalt, dean of women at Willamette university is to report on the state conference she attended in Portland for deans; and Miss Mary Bash, dean of women at Oregon State college, is to talk on the Panhellenic conference at Spokane.

Reservations for the luncheon should be made by next Wednesday evening, April 25, telephoned to Mrs. George C. Huggins, Jr., 41430.

Mrs. W. C. Dyer, Sr. and Mrs. George L. Hill are in charge of decorations.

Past presidents of American Legion auxiliary, Capital unit No. 9, are to meet at the home of Mrs. Walter J. Kirk, 2995 South 12th, Thursday evening for a 7 o'clock dinner. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Laura Cleveland of Dallas, Mrs. J. H. Boening, Mrs. H. G. Kottke, Mrs. Florence Ames and Miss Letitia Abrams. Mrs. Leon Brown is to give a book review.

Members of Bethel No. 35, Job's Daughters, are planning to attend friendship night of Bethel No. 34 in Independence, Monday evening. A chartered bus will leave Beaver hall that evening at 6:30 o'clock to take the girls to Independence.

The Salem Music Teachers association is presenting Miss Hope Jaquith, violinist, in a concert on Sunday afternoon, April 29, at 3 o'clock in Walker hall on Willamette university campus. Miss Margaret Steinmetz is to be the accompanist.

Miss Jaquith was graduated from Salem high school and Lewis and Clark college of music. She has studied with Boris Sirpo for the past eight years and previously studied with Mary Headrick in Salem. Miss Jaquith has been soloist several times in Portland and four times with the Lewis and Clark college symphony orchestra. Also, she has been soloist with the Portland Chamber orchestra of which she has been a member since it was organized five years ago. Miss Jaquith also assisted in the Hood River concerts and festivals.

Coffee is much on the mind of a large group of Salem women the next three weeks with the "coffee hour chain" sponsored by the Salem YWCA getting underway Monday with the first series of parties.

About 50 women launch the chain Monday, entertaining a group of four each for coffee. These four in turn each entertain four more, and the guests at the second round entertain four each later for the third and final party.

The series is arranged as one means to build up funds for the proposed new YWCA general in Salem. Mrs. Richard Upjohn is general chairman for the series, Mrs. G. Herbert Carson, co-chairman, and Mrs. Wallace Carson on the committee.

Town and Gown Club's Final Tea And Program of Year, Thursday

Final meeting of the season for Town and Gown club is announced for next Thursday afternoon, April 26.

The musical program is to be presented at 2 o'clock in the recital hall at Willamette college of music. The tea following will be in Lausanne hall.

Musical numbers will be presented by Prof. Ralph Dobbs, pianist; Mrs. Clorinda Topping, vocalist; Thomas Facey, violinist. Miss Jean Farquharson is to accompany Mrs. Topping and Mr. Facey.

Invitation is extended to all interested women to attend the program and tea.

Mrs. Brooks H. Moore is chairman

St. Elizabeth's guild, St. Paul's Episcopal church, is to meet next Tuesday at 4 p.m. in the parish house for its regular luncheon.

Mrs. Prudence W. Byrd, Mrs. Rex Sanford, Mrs. Philip W. Allison, Mrs. Arthur D. Hay, Mrs. T. W. Creech and Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley are on the committee.

Members of the Junior Woman's club will be entertained at a party Monday evening at the club house by the new members. Mrs. Harry G. Ewing is in charge of the affair.

for the tea committee and is being assisted by Mrs. Henry Carl, Mrs. Walter B. Minier, Mrs. Donald Brazie, Mrs. John Nees, Mrs. E. C. Richards, Mrs. H. G. Smith, Mrs. William Thielsen, Mrs. E. A. Tiesler, Mrs. Lillian J. Watts, Miss Lorena Jack, Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. E. J. Scellars, Mrs. Ervin W. Potter, Mrs. D. H. Schulze, Mrs. J. B. Bywater, Mrs. W. I. Needham, Mrs. Klonny Smith, Mrs. Charles Strickfaden, Mrs. Merle D. Travis, Mrs. Floyd L. Utter, Mrs. J. E. West, Mrs. B. F. Williams, Mrs. Gus Moore, Mrs. Charles A. Ratcliff.

Mrs. G. Herbert Smith and Mrs. R. H. Baldock will pour.

American War Mothers are entertaining with a tea next Thursday afternoon in the Carrier room of the First Methodist church.

Members of other patriotic organizations are being invited. The tea is planned between 2 and 5 o'clock. Mrs. M. A. Viesko is in charge of arrangements and Mrs. Glenn Prather is chairman of the program.

Regular luncheon meeting for Sororist club is to be next Wednesday noon at the Golden Pheasant.