Senators Clip Athletics, 4-2; Shoot for .500 Mark

Victoria, B.C.—The suddenly-potent Salem Senators won their third straight Western International league game from Victoria Wednesday afternoon, but they had to go 11 innings to do it. The score was 4-2.

The victory brought Salem to within one game of the .500 percentage they've been striving to reach for so long. Salem will have a chance to reach that mark Thursday, in the final game of the Solon-Athletic series.

The third-place Senators then head for home to open a four-game series opposite Wenatchee Friday night. Friday has been designated as Keizer night at Waters park in Salem, and about 2000 residents of the Keizer area are expected to be on hand for the game.

Salem's Ray McNulty and Victoria's Ron Smith each gave up eight hits in 11 innings Wednesday.

day, but Smith weakened in the 11th, allowing Salem three singles good for two runs and the game.

In the 11th, Dick Faber singled, Richie Myers also singled, sending Faber to third. Salem went out front when Pete Tedeschi singled, scoring Faber. Myers went to third on the play, and scored when Dick Bartle lofted a skyscraper to left.

Myers was the offensive hero of the day for Salem. The other two Solon tallies came by virtue of a home run by Myers in the sixth inning with Faber on base.

Catcher Bill Martin of the Athletics forced the game into extra innings with a lead-off homer that tied the game in the seventh.

Spokane cut Vancouver's lead to 3½ games by trouncing the Capitanos 7-1. Bill Brenner, Yakima manager, batted in seven runs, four of them on a grand slam homer, as his team downed Wenatchee, 9-1. Tacoma beat Tri-City, 7-3.

Salem and Oregon City Score Legion Victories

The American Legion junior baseball district 2B first half title race narrowed down to a two-team affair Wednesday. Only Salem and Oregon City are in a position to cop the first-half bunting. The first half closes with a round of games next Sunday.

Salem's Capital Post No. 9 team assured itself of at least a tie for the first half crown by defeating Stayton 4-3, at Waters park.

Meanwhile, Oregon City stayed in the running by taking the measure of Woodburn, 11-1, at Woodburn. The Oregon City club trails Salem by one full game.

Salem needs only a victory over Mt. Angel Sunday to cop the first half title.

Silverton dropped all alone in the league cellar when it dropped a 10-2 tilt to Mt. Angel at Mt. Angel. The victory was the first for the Angels in league play this season.

Coach Vince Genna's Capital Posters, sponsored by Valley Motors company, continue to win the close ones. Prior to Wednesday's game with Stayton, they had won their last two games in extra innings.

Wednesday they choked off would-be Stayton rally after one run had scored in the final inning.

Steve Merchant, lanky Salem righthander, limited Stayton to four hits, all singles. Salem swatted six hits off Dick Cox of Stayton.

Bill Nelson was the offensive star for the winners. He banged out a triple and single, batted in one run, stole home for another and scored on a squeeze play for still one more tally.

Cox displayed amazing control. He struck out six Salemites, and issued no walks.
