Cinci, Yanks Win Cheap Games from Leaders

By CARL LUNDQUIST
(United Press Sports Writer)

New York, June 21 (U.P.)—Pitcher Johnny Schmitz can't beat the Dodgers any more because he is one of them now—but that doesn't stop the Dodgers from beating him.

Schmitz used to have an incredible charm over the Dodgers, beating them in key games, time after time, when he was with the Cubs. So the Dodgers bought him to put a stop to the nonsense, but things certainly didn't work out any better for them in his first brilliant start for Brooklyn last night.

He pitched two-hit ball for seven innings in a duel of lefties in the Cincinnati Rhineland with big Ken Raffensberger, but lost it 2 to 1 when defensive lapses gave the Reds two cheap runs.

Misjudging a drive by Bob Usher, which went for a double in the third inning, Rookie Left Fielder Dick Williams, then played the relay so awkwardly that Bobby Adams scored from first with Cincy's first run. A homer by Roy Campanella in the fifth tied it up at 1-1, but Raffensberger himself scored the winning run in the Cincinnati half of the inning.

A wild throw by Rocky Bridges on Raffy's grounder put the pitcher on second and he went to third on a passed ball. Usher, who made two of the three hits off Schmitz, fled out to bring in the second run. Raffensberger gave up only four hits in winning his sixth game.

The Yankees also won a game cheaply, 2 to 1, from the White Sox in New York, cutting their American league lead to 2½ games, when Hank Bauer blooped a single just past Shortstop Chico Carrasquel in the eighth to score the deciding run after Lefty Bill Pierce had walked two batters. Ed Lopat gave up 10 hits but won his 10th game, while Pierce yielded only five and had to settle for his fifth defeat.

In other American league games, Cleveland walloped Boston, 14 to 8, Washington defeated St. Louis, 5 to 1, and the Athletics won from the Tigers, 5 to 4 after Detroit took the opener, 7 to 2.

The Phillies topped Pittsburgh, 1 to 0, as Bubba Church shaded Bob Friend in another fine duel, Warren Spahn blank-pitching a strong five-hitter over the Browns.

Philadelphia made full use of four hits to win the second game from Detroit. Steve Souchock got the most productive blow off Winner Bobby Shantz, a two-run homer. In the opener, the Tigers picked up three runs in the first inning and that was enough for Freddie Hutchinson, whose shut-out was destroyed only when Lou Klein hit a ninth inning two-run homer.

Church received brilliant center field help from Richie Ashburn, who made one fine catch after another. In winning his seventh game, Church gave up nine hits, while Friend yielded only four in defeat, but two of these came in the sixth when Ashburn bunted safely, went to second on a sacrifice, to third on Granny Hamner's single, and scored when Ralph Kiner's throw the plate was too late after he juggled a drive by Bill Nicholson.

Spahn not only pitched five-hit ball and struck out eight, but blasted a three-run homer.

Munger, registering his third triumph, was given a 3 to 1 margin over ex-Cardinal Pitcher Jim Hearn in the first two innings as Stan Musial doubled home a run in the hello inning, then Del Rice's single and a fly by Solly Hemus provided the other two in the second.

Oaks Show Big Inning Power in 5-4 Victory

By PAUL CANE
(United Press Sports Writer)

San Francisco, June 21 (U.P.)—The Oakland Acons, unobtrusively tiptoeing around the Pacific Coast league first division, have the slugging potential of a knockout fighter—one big punch and the contest is over.

Coddled along by their mild-mannered manager, Mel Ott, the defending-champion Oaks aren't conceded much chance to make a repeat conquest of the PCL flag this season.

They've won more than they've lost and they are only 3½ games away from Seattle's lead. But the baseball sharpies won't pay much attention to them as pennant material.

Yet the Oaks have the kind of a team that can erupt with big innings to win ball games. They got 11 in one frame earlier this year to wax Portland. And they teed off on Sad Sam Jones last night to score five times in one stanza and defeat San Diego, 5 to 4.

Newcomer Lorenzo Cabrera's double was the big blow of the big frame.

Sacramento stayed two games off Seattle's pace with a 4 to 3 decision over Los Angeles in 14 panels. The Solons won when Angel shortstop Gene Baker cut loose with a wild throw.

Elsewhere, Seattle gave a 5 to 0 message to San Francisco, and Hollywood nipped Portland, 4 to 3.

Baker's errant toss, his second miscue of the contest, permitted Sac Joe Marty to score from second base with the winning run. The error brought a halt to a fine pitching duel between Solon lefty Glenn Elliott and Angel Doyle Lade.

Marty, who socked his 10th homer and two doubles in the affair, was the second-place Solons' batting star.

Front-running Seattle built up a two-run lead off San Francisco's Lou Burdette on Al Lyons' double and his outfield fly. But when reliever Hank Behrman took over for Burdette in the ninth, the Rainiers greeted him with swinging bats.

Blond Chuck Stevens tripled home Hollywood's winning run in the eighth frame.

The Stars trailed Portland at that time because big Joe Brovia had poled a home run. But the Hollywood Catcher Cliff Dapper walked, scoring eventually on Lou Stringer's single. Stringer rushed home
