

(Josten-Miller studio picture)

Reception Set For Mrs. Starr

Mrs. Clara L. Starr is to be honored on her 90th birthday with an informal reception Saturday afternoon, July 28, in the Carrer room of the First Methodist church. Friends are to call between 3 and 6 o'clock.

Arranging the affair are Mrs. Starr's daughter, Mrs. C. D. Morse of Salem and her son, Chester H. Starr of Los Angeles, Calif. Mrs. Morse and Mr. Starr are to be in an informal reception line with the honoree to greet the guests.

Mrs. Starr was born near Lebanon and is a pioneer in Linn county. She is the wife of the late Dr. I. W. Starr and sister of the late C. P. Bishop. Mrs. Starr has been queen of the Linn county pioneer group for being one of the oldest members of the group.

Assisting with pouring and serving at the reception will be Mrs. Elmer J. Stanard, Mrs. Mason Bishop, Mrs. M. C. Findley and Mrs. B. T. Kumbler, all of Salem; Mrs. Mason Stanard, Mrs. Clarence M. Bishop and Mrs. Robert M. Bishop, Portland; Mrs. S. B. Gillette, of Kent, Wash.; Mrs. L. B. Morse of Brownsville; Mrs. C. F. Morse of Lebanon; Mrs. Mildred McHaman and Mrs. Faye Dedman of Eugene; Miss Lenore Powell of Albany and Mrs. Earl Cochran of McMinnville.

Passing the guest book will be Mrs. Robert Hartley of Salem, daughter of Mrs. C. D. Morse, and Mrs. Winfield Morse of Lebanon, daughter-in-law of Mrs. Morse.

A birthday party is to be given Tuesday afternoon for Mack Lowery on his fourth birthday at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. H. G. Maisson. Mrs. Kelton Lowery and three children arrived from Jackson, Miss., recently to visit Mrs. Lowery's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Maisson.

Invited are Greg and Laurie Barclay, Bobbie and Duff Sullivan, Marilyn Dyer, Jan Steelhammer, Ricky Grabenhorst, Franka McLeod, Tad Arbuckle, Michael Shinn and Jane Kelly, the latter from Fort Townsend, Wash.

The Hayesville Woman's club will hold its annual picnic at the home of the Charles McAllisters, Thursday, July 26, at 12:30 p.m.

MEMBERS of the Past Presidents club of Capital unit No. 9, American Legion auxiliary, and their families will be entertained at the annual club picnic Thursday evening, July 26, at 6:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Palmateer, route 5, box 289.

Assisting the hostess are to be Mrs. Willard Rickey, Mrs. W. W. Woodruff, Mrs. Oscar C. Christensen, Mrs. Onas S. Olson, and Mrs. Edward F. Voight. Those attending are to take table service and picnic basket lunches.

Announcement is being made of the engagement of Miss Louise Thompson to Salwyn Loveless. No date is set for the wedding.

The bride-elect, a student at Salem high school, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Thompson. Mr. Loveless is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chavis. He is stationed with the navy at Norfolk, Va.

Arriving this week-end to be at the home of the George A. Browns is Miss Helen Gordon of Barnesboro, Pa. Miss Gordon, a sister of Mrs. Brown, taught at Chemawa Indian school a year ago and plans to teach there again the coming year. She spent a few days in Spokane, Wash., en route to Salem.

Visitor expected at the E. I. Foster home next week-end is their daughter, Mrs. Clyde G. Herr, Jr. (Jean Foster) of Watsonville, Calif. She will be in Salem until the first of August when the Fosters to return with her to California to make their home at Watsonville.

Miss Gertrude Acheson, executive director of the YWCA, is spending the week in Portland with her sister, Mrs. George A. Perret. Accompanying Miss Acheson is another sister, Dr. Edna Acheson, of Chicago, Ill., who is visiting in Salem for the summer.

"Art Fair" at Kirks Tomorrow

Final arrangements are being made today for the Salem Art association "Art Fair," which is to be given at the Morningside home of the Walter Kirks, Sunday afternoon and evening. The interested public is invited to call between the hours of 3 and 9 o'clock to view the many exhibits which will be on display in the guest house and on the patios and terrace at the Kirk home.

General chairmen from the Art association are Mrs. Kirk, Mrs. William E. Anderson and Mrs. F. W. Poorman. Workers of members of the Creative Art group will be on display and several of the members are to be present during the afternoon and evening to do sketching and painting. Among those at work will be Mrs. Ida Nestell, David Duniway and Mrs. Elva Stanton.

Hand woven articles are to be exhibited by the Weavers guild under the direction of Mrs. Frederick Hill Thompson. Mrs. Hugh Morrow, Mrs. Breyman Boise, Mrs. William H. Burghardt and Mrs. George Bagnall.

Gaiety Hill Garden club members are planning arrangements of cut flowers, vases and garden tools. Members assisting are Mrs. Lester Barr, Mrs. J. N. Bishop, Mrs. Ronald E. Jones and Miss Edith Schryver.

A coke and refreshment concession will be another feature of the fair sponsored by the Spinners club with Miss Charlotte Alexander in charge.

No admission is being charged but a volunteer offering will be taken.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene I. Foster left by train this morning for Seattle, Wash., where they will visit Mrs. Foster's nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Stevens and two children. They will spend the week-end there and on Monday take a boat trip to Victoria, B.C., and the San Juan Islands. The Fosters plan to be gone a week.

Coollette club No. 140 is to meet at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall, Friday, July 27.

(Josten-Miller studio picture)

SEVERAL MEMBERS of the Weavers guild (at upper left) are looking over articles which they will display at Art Association "Art Fair" tomorrow at the Walter Kirk home. From left to right are Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Mrs. Frederick Hill Thompson, Mrs. Hugh Morrow and Mrs. George Bagnall.

IN THE GARDEN HOUSE at left are (left to right) Mrs. Lester F. Barr, Mrs. J. N. Bishop and Mrs. Ronald E. Jones, members of the Gaiety Hill Garden club. They are planning arrangements of cut flowers, vases and garden tools for the "Art Fair."

THE QUARTET above on the patio off the living room of the Kirk home include (left to right) Miss Jean Voigt, Miss Ruth Holtzman, Mrs. Kirk and Miss Charlotte Alexander. Miss Voigt, Miss Holtzman, and Miss Alexander are members of the Spinners club which is sponsoring a coke booth at the "Art Fair."

COSMIS Dance club is planning a sport dance for Saturday evening, July 28, at the Izaak Walton hall. Dancing will be between 9:30 and 12:30 o'clock to the music of Chet Mulkey's orchestra.

Arranging the affair are Mr. and Mrs. John Bostrack, chairman, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Munson Mr. and Mrs. Richard King and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Dumler.

Invitations are in the mail for the wedding of Miss Patty Jo Hammond and Gilbert V. Oliver, both of Portland. The ceremony will be performed at 8 o'clock, Saturday evening, August 11, in the Sunnyside Methodist church in Portland. A reception will follow in the church parlors.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. P. M. Hammond and Mr. Oliver is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Oliver, all of Portland. The engagement of the couple was announced in February on the Willamette university campus. Both were graduated from Willamette university in June.

Mr. and Mrs. David L. Scott gave a surprise housewarming for Mrs. Scott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Peters Thursday evening, at their new home at 3380 Willa Lane. A buffet supper was served and gifts presented the guests.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Donald Brazie, Mrs. Cora Scott, Mrs. Pauline Muller, Mr. and Mrs. George Bell, Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Williams, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Voigt, the Rev. and Mrs. Brooks Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Thompson, Mrs. Agnes Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hockett, Mrs. Myrtle Reaney, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hoy, Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Scott and the host and hostess.

Wedding Date Set

The wedding date of Miss Joan Chastain and George Knox has been set for Friday, August 24. The ceremony is to be performed at 7:30 o'clock that evening in the First Church of God at Hood and Cottage streets.

Following the wedding the couple will make their home in Salem where Mr. Knox is employed.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. F. R. Groat and Mr. Knox is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Knox. Both attended Salem schools.

Visitors in Salem this week are Mrs. Ada Baker and her granddaughter, Beverly Slentz, of Caldwell, Kansas. They are house guests of Mrs. Baker's niece, Mrs. B. M. Bennett. Mrs. Baker is also visiting her brother, Hugo Czaplinski, who makes his home with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Woodruff and Richard and Miss Hazel Stump drove to Molalla Wednesday evening for dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Parsons, son-in-law and daughter of Mrs. Baker. Mrs. Baker and Miss Slentz spent several days with the Parsons before coming to Salem Wednesday night with the Woodruffs. They plan to be house guests of the Woodruffs as well as the Bennetts for several days while here.

Word has come from Stockton, Calif., of the birth of a daughter, Katrin Louise, to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar C. Christensen, Jr. (Shirlee Marie Reimann), Thursday, July 19. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Leo Reimann and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar C. Christensen, all of Salem. The baby is the first grandchild in the two families.

Santee-Simpson Wedding Tonight

A wedding in Portland this evening is to be that of Miss Ramona Jean Simpson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. Simpson of Portland, and Edwin Eugene Santee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Santee of Salem. The ceremony will be performed at 8 o'clock at the Foursquare Gospel church by the Rev. Harold W. Jeffries.

A standard of white gladioluses before a blue velvet curtain, palms and candelabrum will be used in decorations. Linda Shiley in a yellow frock and Jerry McConnachie in white, four-year-old cousins of the bride, are to be candlelighters.

Organist for the nuptials will be Josephine Sanders and soloists, Helen Beale and Daniel Barron.

The bride's father will give her in marriage. She has chosen a gown of snow white satin trimmed with fine handmade Irish lace. The dress is fashioned with over-shoulder cuff of white satin, and long sleeves. A crown trimmed with seed pearls holds the fingertip veil which is trimmed with lace to match the gown. The bride will carry a cascade bouquet of three orchids and stephanotis with large white satin bow.

Miss Kathryn Santee, sister of the bridegroom, is to be maid of honor, wearing a soft green gown and a head-dress of carnations with green doiley background. She is to carry a nosegay of orchids and carnations with doiley background and green satin ribbons.

Bridesmaids will be Miss Doreen Bisceglia of Tigard in chiffon pink, Miss Doris Cole of Portland in soft yellow,

Miss Lorraine Blodgett of Huntington Beach, Calif. in orchid and Miss Gayle Albert of LaGrande, in ice blue. They will carry nosegays of Vanda orchids and carnations with trim to match their formal and wear marquisette mitts in matching colors. All the gowns are of marquisette over tulle.

David Simpson, younger brother of the bride, and Doreen Worthington of Salem are ringbearer and flower girl. They are to be dressed as miniature bride and bridegroom.

Donald Simpson and Harry Santee, Jr., younger brothers of the bride and bridegroom are junior ushers and will escort the mothers to their seats.

Best man will be Kenneth Hay of Oregon City and ushers are Harold Goshen of Salem, Gilbert Frey, Robert Styles and Bud Jeffries of Portland.

The bride and bridegroom's mothers will wear matching dinner gowns of soft aqua and corsages of Vanda orchids.

A reception is arranged for the reception hall in the church. The bride's aunt, Della Jeffries, will cut the cake, assisted by the bride's cousin, Miss Mary Lou Mayer. Pouring will be Mrs. Roy Worthington, Mrs. Harold Jeffries, and Miss Jean Schwartz. Miss Joyce Robinson and Miss Sharon Simpson, sister of the bride, will attend the guest book.

A wedding trip to Canada is planned following which the couple will make their home in Los Angeles, Calif., where both will attend Life Bible college. For going away the bride has chosen an orchid suit with white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Allport Feted

Mrs. Dean Allport was honored at a shower this afternoon in the gardens of Mrs. L. L. Hansen on Miller street, assisted by Mrs. D. L. Lovell and Mrs. LeRoy J. Stewart. A dessert luncheon was served at small tables centered by arrangements of summer flowers.

Those invited were Mrs. Norman Acoff, Mrs. George Emigh, Miss Diane Emigh, Mrs. Rex Kimmell, Miss Dorothy Kessell, Mrs. Albert Blankenship, Mrs. E. Burr Miller, Miss Rita O'Brien, Miss Lynn Egan, Mrs. Emma Lou Carrow, Mrs. Donald Reinke, Mrs. B. M. Donaldson, Mrs. Joseph Di Filippo, Mrs. Curtis Hale, Mrs. Augusta Allport, Mrs. John Lockard, Mrs. Adam Lefor, Mrs. Hubert Williamson, Miss Gail Lockard, Mrs. Jim Kribs, Mrs. Howard Houck, Mrs. Frank Waldorf, Mrs. Reid Hamilton, Miss Kay Lovell, Miss Jackie Allport, Mrs. Carl Allport, Mrs. Paul Hale, Mrs. Lloyd Demarest and Mrs. Ted Bussell, all of Salem, and Mrs. Lawrence Lister, Miss Patricia Lister and Mrs. Robert Bitar of Portland, the honored guest and the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moxley have returned from a month-long vacation to Columbus, Ohio, where they were house guests of their daughter, Mrs. John Miller. They returned to Salem via the northern route, stopping in Livingston, Montana, to visit Mr. Moxley's sister, Mrs. E. T. Lake.

Leaving for Camp Westwind, YWCA summer camp at Three Rocks, Ore., next Wednesday to spend a week will be Misses Laura Parsegian, Thelma Cook, Shirley Jones and Janet Mayfield.

Physical examinations are given for the YWCA girls, Camp Fire Girls and Girl Scouts each Thursday evening during camp sessions at the YWCA. The examinations are sponsored by the community chest agencies and the medical society.

MISS SARAH JANE BACKSTRAND

THE ENGAGEMENT of Miss Sarah Jane Backstrand, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Jerald S. Backstrand, to Blair McCabe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. McCabe, was announced recently. No date is set for the wedding.

(Josten-Miller studio picture)