Whether that son or daughter is in kindergarten or off to college . . . you will find everything in back-to-school needs in these pages. Togs for the small fry that will take a beating and still make them look like their big brothers and sisters . . . clothing for the young ladies and gentlemen in the junior high and high school class that will make them the centers of attention . . . and for those young men and women off to college -you will find many wonderful things that will set them up as "Queen of the Prom" . . . the "Beau Brummel of the Ball."
