

Wedding at St. Paul Saturday

St. Paul—A wedding of last Saturday was an event of interest here when Miss Laura B. Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Davidson of St. Paul, was married to Fred J. Gooley, son of Mrs. Arthur Gooley of Mt. Angel. The 9:30 o'clock nuptial mass was solemnized in St. Paul's Catholic church with the Rev. James Maxwell officiating. Ray Davidson and Gene Ferschweiler, brother and nephew of the bride, served the wedding mass.

The altars were decorated with arrangements of chrysanthemums and candles. The center aisle was outlined with the pink and white chrysanthemums, tied with white satin ribbon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace and slipper satin designed in princess style. The lace bodice was back closing with small satin buttons and the skirt was fashioned in train. The tapered veil of illusion was secured to a Juliet cap of satin and seed pearls. The bride carried a white prayer book on which was a single orchid.

Mrs. William Mitzloff served as matron of honor for her sister. Her gown was wood-violet taffeta with a velvet top and Mandarin styled bolero of velvet. Her mitts were of velvet and her headpiece was a semi-halo of matching taffeta with an orchid plume. She carried a nosegay of yellow and orchid chrysanthemums on a background of yellow satin petals and tied with yellow satin streamers.

Miss Zeta Kirk, niece of the bride, and Miss Shirley Beeler of Newberg, were of the bridesmaids. Their gowns of spring-violet were identical to that of the honor attendant's, as were their headpieces and flowers.

Marilyn Gooley, niece of the bride, was the flower girl. Her floor length frock was fashioned of taffeta and velvet, in the same colors as those of the bridesmaids'. Her velvet headpiece was trimmed with small yellow chrysanthemums and she carried a basket of yellow blossoms.

Virgil Gooley served as best man for his brother. Groomsman were Joseph Gooley, brother of the bridegroom, and James Welman. Ushers were Joseph McKay and Donald Davidson, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Ross Coleman at the organ, played the nuptial music and accompanied the vocalists, Mrs. Lester Kirk, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Ray Kerr.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Davidson chose a suit of navy blue with a purple and a spring-violet cloche and dark accessories. The mother of the bridegroom chose a rose colored frock with black accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of purple orchids.

Following a wedding breakfast for the bridal party at the home of the bride's parents, the newlyweds were honored with a reception and dinner at the St. Paul community hall.

Covers were placed for more than 250 dinner guests in rooms beautifully decorated in orchid, white and yellow. Mrs. Leonard Ferschweiler, sister of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Donald Davidson, sister-in-law of the bride, and Delphian Gooley, sister of the bridegroom, poured. Mrs. Lloyd Ferschweiler passed the guest book and those who were in charge of the gift room were Mrs. Michael Welton and Luella Raymond. Friends of the bride, who served at dinner were Eileen Wolf, Mary Ellen Coleman; Gayle Davidson, Jane Davidson, Ethel Van Dyke, Jackie Gooding, Joyce McKillop, Maxine Ernst, Frances Bernard, Charlene Buyserie and Darlene Ferschweiler.

Following the reception and dinner, the newlyweds and bridal party motored to Maryhurst college, where in a traditional ceremony of former students, the bride placed her bouquet on the altar of the Blessed Mother.

For a honeymoon trip to Canadian points of interest, the bride chose a brown and white suit with a beige top coat and brown accessories. When Mr. and Mrs. Gooley return, they will be at home in Mt. Angel.

Turkey Twists Roll Idea For Thanksgiving Dinner

Here's a suggestion for Thanksgiving from the poultry and egg national board. It's a brand new roll shape putting turkeys in your bread basket as well as on the table. Turkey twists look tricky when you serve them, but with a good recipe and a moment's practice you'll find the new shape easy and fun, as only shaping yeast rolls can be! These rolls are so new and unusual they'll make conversation at any dinner table.

Turkey Twists
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup sugar
1 1/4 teaspoons salt
6 tablespoons shortening
2/3 cup warm, not hot, water (lukewarm for compressed yeast)
3 tablespoons sugar
3 packages or cakes yeast, active dry or compressed
3 eggs, beaten
6 cups sifted enriched flour
Scald milk and stir in 1/2 cup sugar, salt and shortening. Set aside to cool to lukewarm. Measure water and 3 tbs. sugar into large mixing bowl (warm, not hot, water for active dry yeast; lukewarm water for compressed yeast). Sprinkle or crumble in yeast. Stir until dissolved. Add lukewarm milk mixture and eggs. Add and stir in half the flour. Beat until smooth. Stir in remaining flour, or

Wedding at Rockaway

A wedding of last Saturday was that of Miss Florence Mae Samuel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie C. Samuel of Wheeler, and Richard Francis Brentano, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Brentano of St. Paul. The service was solemnized at 10 o'clock in St. Mary's-by-the-sea church at Rockaway, the Rev. Father Victor officiating. Pink and white chrysanthemums decorated the church for the service.

The bride wore a wedding dress of white satin and lace and with it a fingertip illusion veil arranged from a pearl headdress. For her flowers the bride carried a cascade of white carnations with red roses in the center, and she also carried a white rosary. Mr. Samuel gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. James W. Garlock was matron of honor for her sister. She wore an orchid taffeta gown with matching mitts and a headdress of orchid chrysanthemums. Her flowers were a nosegay of the orchid chrysanthemums. Miss Bernita Brentano, sister of the bridegroom, was the bridesmaid. She wore a yellow taffeta frock with matching mitts, and her headpiece was of yellow chrysanthemums and her nosegay of yellow roses and chrysanthemums.

Diane Samuel was her sister's flower girl. She wore a blue taffeta frock with headdress of white chrysanthemums and she carried a basket of assorted pastel colored flowers.

Merle Kirk was best man. for 500, Miss Dorothy Hagenaer at canasta, and the special to Mrs. Ray Hagenaer. Supper was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Frank Kahut of Woodburn, and Mrs. Joseph Obersinner.

Nuns Aid Fight Against Flood—Black-robed nuns fill sandbags for an emergency dike as residents of Adria, marooned by the floodwaters ravaging northern Italy, try to stem the rising tide. Relief boats with supplies helped the threat to Adria's inhabitants, but heavy rains are creating new flood menaces in the already devastated Po river delta. (AP Wire-photo via radio from Rome)

Snow Falls In Plains States

(By the Associated Press)
The nation's weather for Thanksgiving day, it appeared today, may bring expressions of thankfulness from most of the eastern half of the country. Warmer weather is forecast.

But it looks like a cold and snowy holiday for many western areas. Cold air from Canada spread southward over Montana and North Dakota today. Temperatures were far below freezing. Light snow fell in the plains states. Temperatures also were below seasonal levels in the far west.

Brisk southerly winds promised a break in the cold snap from Texas northeastward to the middle and upper Mississippi valley to the upper Great Lakes region. Some warming also was forecast by tomorrow for the eastern and southern states. But weather forecasters said the mildest weather would extend west of the Appalachians to the Mississippi valley. It was below freezing again today in southern states, except in Florida. Readings also were sub-freezing in eastern states with a low of 13 at Burlington, Vt., and 17 at Caribou, Me. It was 21 in Augusta, Ga., 20 in Pittsburgh, 27 in New York, 31 in New Orleans and 29 in Atlanta.

Snow flurries were reported in coastal sections of New England. Rain fell in southern Texas but fair weather was reported in other parts of the country.
