Dorcas Group Assists Many

Less than a year ago the Dorcas Society of the Johnson Memorial Seventh Day Adventist church opened a welfare center at 1939 North Commercial street. The building as well as materials and services were donated by local business men. The society is the women's home and foreign mission organization of the church and its members engage in a variety of activities. They respond to emergency calls, assist needy families or individuals, ship food packages to Korea, blankets to Alaska and food baskets on the local level during the holiday season. The organization works closely with the Red Cross, the Marion county welfare and the Marion county department of health.

In addition to local activities the society sends quantities of cleaned and mended clothing to the denominational overseas depot at Watsonville, Cal. For the quarter ending September 30, the society had distributed 3746 articles of clothing, 803 persons given assistance, and 34 packages sent overseas.

Persons interested in contributing to the cause are asked to dial 4-1193 during the day or 4-4135 in the evening.

Unitarians Plan Family Party

The Unitarian Fellowship of Salem will hold their annual family Christmas party at the Salem Memorial hospital chapel on Sunday. The party is scheduled for 4:00 p. m. and will consist of games, light refreshments and the singing of Christmas carols. The usual 8:00 p. m. services will not be held. All interested persons are cordially invited.

Englewood Choir Gives Musical

In a candlelight setting the Englewood Evangelical United Brethren church choir will sing the Christmas cantata this Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Special solo parts will be sung by Mary Jo Hall, Leslie James, Joan Hamman and Dwight Gralap. The choir will be directed by Berwin Murray and accompanied at the organ by Lola Murray.

Macleay—Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theo Olson Sunday will be Mr. Olson's mother, Mrs. Carrie Reihen of Salem and her sister, Mrs. Margaret Swanson of Swegle.

Children Make Home Nativity Crib Scenes

Woodburn — Children of St. Luke's Catholic church are taking part in a parish contest in which each will build and erect a crib of Bethlehem in their homes. It was announced last Sunday by the pastor, Father V. L. Mollenbeir. The home creations of the children will be reassembled for display in St. Luke's parish hall on January 7, where the general public may view them.

The contest is sponsored as part of the effort to "Put Christ back into Christmas."

Court St. Church Vesper Service

A Christmas cantata, "The Wondrous Story," by Kountz, will be presented at a 5 o'clock vesper service Sunday, December 23, by the choir of the Court Street Christian church, under the direction of Philip McHarris. Following the cantata the young people of the church will present a special showing of "The Living Picture" of the nativity scene, 6 to 7:30 p. m. This picture is presented on a specially prepared stage in front of the church building. These services will take the place of the regular Sunday evening service.

Fourth Sermon on Christmas Theme

At the Christian and Missionary Alliance church, the pastor, Rev. Paul W. Gunther, will preach the Christmas sermon at 11 a. m. on the theme, "The Shepherds See Jesus." This is the fourth of six sermons on "The Christ of Christmas." At 7:30 p. m., the Sunday school will present the Annual Christmas program.

Reorganized LDS Church Services

The Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, 17th and Chemeketa streets, will hold its Christmas worship service Sunday, December 23. Guest organist will be Miss Hazel Brockhoff and Miss Jodi Johannaber will be vocalist. They will present yuletide reveries.

The church extends an invitation to the general public to hear a radio presentation of "The Messiah" over KOIN at 10:30 Sunday night. The program is described as "A gift to the nation by the Independence choir of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints."

Grace Lutheran Yule Festivities

Special Christmas festivities at Grace Lutheran church, Sunview and Lansing avenues, will take place on three consecutive days beginning with the Sunday school program next Sunday night at 7:30. A service of carols and candle-lighting will be conducted at 11 o'clock Christmas eve. The climactic service will be the festival program on Christmas day at 11 a. m. The Rev. L. W. ### 4 THINGS God Wants You to Know —

1 YOU NEED TO BE SAVED

Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.—John 3:3. For all have sinned.—Titus 3:5. By the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.—Galatians 2:16. For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.—James 2:10. There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.—Proverbs 14:12. Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.—John 14:6.

2 YOU CANNOT SAVE YOURSELF

Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us.—Titus 3:5. By the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.—Galatians 2:16. For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.—James 2:10. There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.—Proverbs 14:12. Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.—John 14:6.

3 JESUS HAS ALREADY PROVIDED FOR YOUR SALVATION

Who (Jesus) his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.—1 Peter 2:24. For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God.—1 Peter 3:18. Him (Jesus) who knew no sin he (God) made to be sin on our behalf; that we might become the righteousness of God in him.—2 Corinthians 5:21. R. V. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.—John 3:16.

4 JESUS WILL ENABLE YOU TO OVERCOME TEMPTATION

The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished.—2 Peter 2:9. There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape.—1 Corinthians 10:13. If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.—2 Corinthians 5:17.

Believe — Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved and thy house.—Acts 16:31.

Repent (turn from your sins)—Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.—Luke 13:3.

Confess Your Sin to Jesus — For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus.—1 Timothy 2:5.

Confess Jesus Before Men — If thou shalt confess with thy mouth Jesus as Lord, and shalt believe in thy heart that God raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. — Romans 10:9, 10.

Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near.—Isaiah 55:6.

Behold, now is the day of salvation. — 2 Corinthians 6:2.

How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation? — Hebrews 2:3.

Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. — Matthew 6:33.

Boast not thyself of tomorrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth. — Proverbs 27:1.

For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? — Mark 8:36.

REMEMBER

Every one of us shall give account of himself to God. — Romans 14:12. It is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment.—Hebrews 9:27, but he that believeth on him... shall not come into judgment.—John 5:24. Choose you this day whom ye will serve. — Joshua 24:15. Being convinced that I am a sinner, and knowing that "Christ died for the ungodly." I NOW accept Jesus as my Savior and with His help I intend to confess Him before men.
