

In The Valley

By MIKE FORBES

Lyons

Mr. and Mrs. David Zimmerman were surprised Sunday evening when friends gathered at their home following the evening service. Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman are leaving the community soon. He will enter Multnomah Bible school in Portland to prepare for full time Christian work. A gift offering was presented to the couple by Miss Norma Miller. Those attending were Miss Vivian Boyce, Miss Marilyn Baltzer, Miss Norma Miller, Mr. and Mrs. John Pridoux, Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Feenstra, Donald Kuiken, Mrs. Joe Zimmerman, mother of David, and Mrs. Alice Huber. Rev. Feenstra has invited the young Zimmermans to take part in the morning worship service at the Methodist church next Sunday.

The first meeting of the new year was held by Santiam Valley Grange Friday evening, with the new officers presiding. George Berry was appointed chairman for social nights. He will appoint his committees later. Mrs. Garnett Bassett and Steve Dark were appointed to select a drill for the Grange. The Home Economics club held a meeting immediately following the meeting of the Grange, with election of officers. Elected were Leora Stevens, chairman; Melvina Franklin vice chairman, and Mollie Dark, secretary-treasurer. It was also voted that the club would assume the responsibility of the kitchen.

Mrs. Myrtle Hester and Mrs. Cora Corbett of Salem are spending this week in Lyons with relatives. They are guests at the Earl Allen, Clyde Bessler and John Worden homes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Chamberlain are receiving congratulations upon the announcement of their 13th grandchild, born to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schoenlein of Stockton, Calif. She weighed 8 lbs. and has been named Lois Marie.

Mrs. Ray Mohler spent last week in Portland with her sister, returning home the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Burgess from Klamath Falls were guests at the home of her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bassett. Mr. and Mrs. Walt Busc and Pat, from Vancouver, Wash., were also visitors at the Bassett home.

Nadine Carr, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Carr, was able to return to school Monday morning after being confined to her home for the last two months due to illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bridges spent last week in Portland, where he went through the clinic for treatment and observation.

Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Feenstra with Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Jull from Mill City Christian church, attended a Santiam district ministers' potluck dinner held in Stayton last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clippell had as their guests over the week-end their daughter, Mrs. Don Sheppard and daughters from Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gerath and family returned home from Long Beach, Calif., after spending two weeks with relatives and friends.

Miss Vivian Boyce returned to school Monday morning after being absent with the chicken pox. Miss Boyce is the music instructor at the Mari-Linn school.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Putnam were called to Eugene for over the week-end by the serious illness of his mother.

The Lyons basketball team Friday evening played three games at the new Mari-Linn gym. The grade school lost to Stayton, 43 to 20. And the girls' volleyball team tied with Stayton 40 to 40. The town team was victorious over the Stayton Baptist church 49 to 43. Monday night the town team lost to Aunsville, 32 to 42.

A 6-foot 6-inch cougar was bagged about Mill City by Everett Limbeck and Leland Manning of Lyons. The animal was treed by their hounds, and brought to the ground by a single shot of a .22 by Manning.

Macleay

Plans for the year were made by the Grange Home Economic club at the meeting held Tuesday afternoon at the Grange hall for which Mrs. I. H. White and Mrs. Albert Mader were hostesses.

A no-host social night dinner was planned for January. A jitney supper for February and a rummage sale and food sale for later in the year.

Besides a charity project the women plan to improve the hall as a work project.

Mrs. W. Welch and Mrs. Lloyd Keene were appointed on the charity project committee and Mrs. Bixler, Mrs. Odom and Mrs. Cornelius Bateson on the rummage sale committee.

Waste paper will also be collected by the group during the year. Mrs. Cyril Parker gave the thought for the day.

Present were Mesdames George Bixler, Ross Wingard,

Archie Shaw, M. M. Magee, Lloyd Keene, Harry Martin, Sr., Harry Martin, Jr., Alpha Michaels, Clarence Johnson, Earl Odom, Cornelius Bateson, W. Welch, Ralph Wilson, A. L. Amort, Cyril Parker, White and Mader.

Independence

City Recorder Harding reports that collections from the parking meters totaled $465 for the month of December, making the total for the six months from July 1 over $2,800, and the total for the year over $5,000. The highest collections for the year was in the month of August when $633.74 was collected. November was the low month with $295.24 being collected.

Mrs. W. C. Frantz, who recently purchased the Williams Apparel shop, took possession Jan. 1. The store has been operated by Mrs. Williams for several years, and Mrs. Williams will remain in the store throughout January assisting the new owner. Mrs. Frantz, who has been employed as secretary to School Superintendent Henry E. Tetz, will continue to devote part of her time to that work until her successor has been named.

Figures released this past week by Glen C. Smith, postmaster, reveal that the postal receipts for the year 1951 were the largest in the history of the post office. The total postal receipts were $19,401.20 for 1951 as against $18,044.34 for 1950. New modern fixtures and equipment were installed in the Independence post office during 1951.

House guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. V. O. Eggebraaten are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Turnidge and two children. The Turnidges are conducting a "Youth Crusade" at the First Baptist church while here.

Mrs. Eva Mae Snodgrass, owner of the Independence Nursing home on Monmouth street, was married on Dec. 26 at Vancouver, Wash., to H. W. Burch of Jennings, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Pippin and family spent the holidays in southern California. They visited Mrs. Pippin's sister and family at Klamath Falls, and her brother and his family at Tulelake, Calif., and also a sister and her family at Oakland, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Woolhiser and family who have been visiting relatives at Campbell River near Vancouver Island in Canada, have returned home.

The Men's Fellowship of the First Baptist church held a dinner meeting in the church dining hall last week and observed "Guest Night." The chicken pie dinner was served by the women of the church.

The Gospel Light Trio of Lebanon entertained with several musical numbers. Guest speaker for the evening was Rev. W. W. Whitwell of Eugene. A travelogue movie was shown during the evening.

A prize for bringing the most guests was awarded to Roy Hilbert. Clyde Mills received the second prize.

The next meeting of the group will be held Jan. 31. Rev. and Mrs. Paul Turnidge and two children, David and Danny, were honored guests at a covered dish dinner held in the dining room of the First Baptist church on Sunday after the morning service.

The Turnidges will continue meetings at the church each evening at 7:30 except Saturday night. The closing meetings of the "Youth Crusade" will be held Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. The meetings, which started Dec. 31 have been well attended. Mr. Turnidge, a ventriloquist, appears with "Joe" every night at the services. Mrs. Turnidge preaches.

Fruitland

Mrs. Roy Jones was hostess for the Fruitland home extension unit meeting at her home Tuesday at an all-day meeting.

Mrs. Arthur Dalke explained glove making. Mrs. Riney invited the group to her home for the February meeting.

Jacob Gerig was taken to the Salem General hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Langan have returned to their home at Fruitland, having spent some time visiting in California.

At Venice they visited Mrs. Langan's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McArthur, and at San Marcos they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Anderson. They also visited Miss Lela Bishop at Los Angeles.

J-B DRIVE-IN

2230 Fairgrounds Rd.

Open DAY & NIGHT

Breakfast - Lunches

Sandwiches

CLOSED WED.

Unionvale

August Auer who has been quite ill has been able to go out to his mail box each day for several days.

Miss Jeannie Sweetwood returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Turner Sunday after two weeks spent at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sweetwood at Hopland, Calif. She is a senior at Dayton high school.

Mrs. Ed Howe and daughters of Albany were guests for a brief call at the home of her sister, Mrs. Carl Launer and family enroute to visit her other sister, Mrs. John Hibbs, at the McMinnville convalescent home.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Turner and two daughters and his mother and sister, Mrs. Harvey Turner and Mrs. Orval McCandless of Unionvale were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Dixon and family near Dundee.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Church and family of Salem were Sunday guests of his mother, Mrs. J. C. Church, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Church and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Magee of Unionvale were week-end guests of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Herigstad of Silverton.

Rev. and Mrs. Clark Robb and daughter, Rebecca, of Roseburg, left for Salem where they were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Robb, Sr., en route to their home. Mrs. Robb and Rebecca have been guests of her parents since Dec. 24, caring for Mrs. Robb after an operation. Rev. Robb has been a guest here since Jan. 2.

Daily shipments of 250,000 pounds of processed beans are being made this week from the U. S. Alderman farm in the Unionvale district. The beans were processed at the large modern new freezer Alderman plant. The beans are in five-pound cartons, Adolph Hrabha, manager of the local establishment, reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wood and sons of Fairview were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Siltton in the Pleasant Dale district.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stephens of Fairview district had as their recent guests: Miss Mary Ann Stephens of Portland, who spent one week with them, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Murphy of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Midget of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Stephens and family; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stephens and family.

Peppermint farmers of the Unionvale and Grand Island districts attended the annual meetings in Corvallis Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Noble were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Solberg at Portland Monday evening, where a family gathering honoring the nephew, Wesley Solberg, was held. He reported for service in the United States armed forces Wednesday and will receive his classification and assignment at that time. He is married.

Fourteen women attended the weekly work day of the WSWs, held all day Tuesday at the Unionvale Evangelical United Brethren church. A quilt for Mrs. Kenneth Coberly was finished.

Hopewell

Miss Bertha Magness was honored on the occasion of her birthday Jan. 6, during the Sunday school hour at the Hopewell E.U.B. church, with all the Sunday school gathering in the primary department for the opening exercises of the Sunday school.

On Sunday evening, a report of the missionary conference in Salem was given by Mrs. Ross Rogers and Miss Bertha Magness.

Prayer meeting was held at the W. O. Madsen home on Wednesday evening, Jan. 9.

The Hopewell Missionary society held its January meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Pearson Jan. 8 at 8 p.m. Mrs. Howard Stephens was the leader, beginning the study book on South America, and Mrs. Chas Stephens was assistant hostess. About 20 members and friends were present.

Rev. H. E. Widmer announced that Jan. 13 would be Membership Sunday, with baptismal service.

The Hopewell Community club held its January meeting at the schoolhouse Jan. 10, with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Legg in charge of the program.

Gene Jaenicke, son of Mrs. John Geisler, is still seriously ill at the Veterans' hospital in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Geisler visited him Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Carl Pershall, Kennen and Glenn, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Laferty for awhile until Rev. Per-shall gets established in his new pastorate in DuBois, Idaho. He has not been able to find a suitable house for the family.

Stephen Reed, who is employed in Olympia, was home for the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Art Reed are in Portland for two weeks visiting his brother, August Reed, and Art Reed is having medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. LaRue Jackson of Huron, S. D., and Mr. and Mrs. William Shinn of Salem were callers at the Clarence Legg home Thursday.

LeRoy Ketchum is home for a visit from his work at Beiber, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ketchum were hosts to a family gathering recently, when Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Stelwer of San Francisco were house guests for a week. Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Douglas of Seaside and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bamford and children of Salem were dinner guests.

Mrs. H. D. Hewitt returned last week from Bell Fourche, S. D. She took her mother, Mrs. Bertha Sickenger, to live with her sister, Mrs. Ellen Browning.

Four-H sewing and cooking clubs were organized last week in Hopewell. The Willing Workers' sewing club elected officers Jan. 1, with Shirley Ellenberger, president; Sylvia Warnock, vice president, and Sharon McKenney, secretary, and leader, Mrs. N. O. Pearson. Phyllis Fleming, Gayle Larson and Ellen Widmer also are members.

The Corny camp cooking club was organized Saturday, Jan. 5, with Gary Polvi, president; Dean Brown, vice president, and Robert Pearce, secretary. Harold Widmer is a member. Mrs. N. O. Pearson is the leader.

Dallas

Dallas — Mr. and Mrs. Mars Slack have returned from a vacation trip that took them to Guyanmas in Lower California, where they enjoyed deep sea fishing. The holidays were spent in Los Angeles with friends and relatives. Mr. Slack is an inspector with the state forestry board, located in Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Block and two children who have lived in Dallas for about five years are moving to Fresno, Calif., where Mr. Block plans to enter the Pacific Bible institute. They have sold their home on Washington street.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Rockford of the Oakdale district have returned from a holiday trip to visit relatives in California, going as far south as Long Beach.

Miss Anna Elsie Fischer who has been on general duty as a nurse at the Dallas hospital has been appointed as health nurse and director of student health services at Oregon College of Education for the balance of the year.

J. C. Tracy returned Friday from Honolulu where he spent the holiday season with his daughter and family. Mrs. Tracy remained for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Crider left for their annual winter vacation at Acapulco, Mexico. They drove to Los Angeles but will complete the trip by air.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Eakin, Jr. have as guests Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Childs of Creston, Iowa who are en route to spend the rest of the winter in California. Dr. Childs is a brother of Mrs. Eakin.

Eric Adolf of Seaside visited in Dallas for a short time this past week with his brother, Otto. He was enroute to Ashland for medical treatment following a long illness.

The local archery club, The Beaver Bowman, met at VFW hall Friday evening for their regular monthly meeting. Featured was a film, "Realm of the Wild," by Lyman Oliver of Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Norton of Salem gave a demonstration of archery equipment and arrow making. The group meets the first Friday of every month and any one interested in archery is invited to attend. A state-wide meeting of two days was held on the range near Dallas last fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Richter, who have taken over operation of the Richfield service station at the corner of Levens St. and Ellendale Ave., have added a stock of groceries, soft drinks, ice cream and candy to the gas, oil and lubrication business. Hours will be from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily.

Dr. Robert E. Brinker has moved his office from the National bank building to a downstairs location at 518 Mill street.

The regular meeting of the Polk County Red Cross board of directors has been postponed from Jan. 14 to Jan. 28. At that time the 1952 fund drive quota for March will be discussed for the 15 districts also chairmen and sponsoring groups. Mrs. H. D. Peterson, who was fund drive chairman last year, will serve again in the same capacity.

Hubbard

The executive committee of the Hubbard Parent-Teachers association will meet Monday, Jan. 14, at the home of Mrs. W. T. Lord at 8 p.m.

The Pythian Sisters of Arion temple, Hubbard, will install officers for 1952 and initiate new members Tuesday evening, January 15.

The Hubbard extension unit will meet Wednesday, Jan. 16, all day beginning at 10:30 a.m. in the Rebekah hall, as announced by the president, Mrs. E. T. Rose. A hot dish will be served bringing a sandwich. The meeting is open to the public. "Step-Saving Kitchens" will be presented by a home demonstration agent from Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bridge and Bonnie returned home Friday last week after spending a month traveling and visiting. They spent Christmas with Mr. Bridge's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Bridge, in Scotts Bluff, Neb. They came home through Idaho.

Mrs. Hugh Wells and her father, C. G. Wallin have returned after spending a month visiting her sister, and his daughter, Mrs. J. R. Mandek, in San Francisco.

B. Dale Bower, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bower of Hubbard, and Miss Nellie Seifert of Portland were married in Vancouver, Wash., Sunday, Jan. 6. They are living in Portland.

Mrs. Marie Axtell was ill Thursday and Mrs. John Sholey of Woodburn taught the fourth grade for her. Friday, Mrs. Dora Firth was ill and Mrs. T. M. Baxter of Woodburn substituted in the second grade room for her.

Friday a clinic for immunization and vaccination was held at the grade school with Miss Evelyn Krieger, county health nurse in charge. Mesdames Russell, Roloffson, Verl Cochran and John Wait assisted.

Enrollment of the grade school just before the holidays was 193. Bill Chase entered the fourth grade here Jan. 2. He moved here with his family from Oak Grove and they are residing at the Mineral Springs.

Don Priest of Priest Hatchery here has announced that he is constructing a new unit to house 1,000 more laying hens, to make room for 2,500 breeders, and that special eggs were on order from Massachusetts to improve hatchery stock.

Dayton

The Dayton Civic club met at the high school Monday evening, January 7.

It was reported that nine baskets of food had brought Christmas cheer to as many families, and that for the 19 children in those families, each child received a toy and a piece of clothing.

A permanent committee of three has been appointed by the president, Mrs. H. W. Frink, to take care of such cases.

The Misses Coby and Riet Vros recently of Holland, but for the present McMinnville, who are visiting in the United States, spoke to the group of their country. The girls, who are sisters, are making their way at various jobs, while visiting here.

Word has been received here that Everett Wise of Lafayette submitted to surgery Monday morning, in McMinnville. Wise was a former employee of the Dayton Warehouse and is well known in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Brown have returned from Potosi, Mo., where they spent the holidays with relatives.

Mrs. Barium Krake had as dinner guests Sunday, her sister, Mrs. Cora Wirfs, Mrs. Eva Carter and her daughter, Miss Alice Ballentyne.

Mrs. Harry Gray entertained members of the Krowledeen Bridge club last week. Honors were won by Mrs. Oscar Dower and Mrs. Herman Louie.

Mrs. Anna Slon returned to her home Monday after a week at the Willamette hospital for surgery. She is staying at the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hadley.

Glen Stewart is convalescing, following a week in bed with a very bad back. Guests in the Stewart home over the weekend were his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Stewart of McCoy, Kennelwood of Grants Pass. Joe Stewart took him back to southern Oregon Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dundas were dinner guests of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pomeroy, recently, the occasion being the 22nd wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Dundas.

Mrs. Jim Webb and children are here visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Perry, while her husband is in Texas. Webb was called there by the serious illness of his mother.

The Dayton Garden club will meet with Mrs. C. B. Newhouse Jan. 14. Mrs. Sina Christenson and Mrs. Lena Willard are co-hostesses.

Woodburn Appoints Recreation Board

Woodburn — Mayor Elmer Mattson has reappointed Lee Withers, Kenneth Thompson and Charles B. Cornwell as members of the Woodburn recreation and park board for a term of three years and also appointed E. W. Lawson as a member of the board to fill out the unexpired term of two years of A. G. Cowan who recently resigned.

At a meeting of the board Tuesday night Harold M. Austin was elected chairman and Kenneth Thompson was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Cowan has been employed by the board as recreation supervisor and will carry out the various plans.

Activities for the coming year were discussed.

Willamina

The Community Garden club will meet Wednesday, Jan. 16, at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Sadie Brock.

Beta Xi Theta Rho club will meet Monday, Jan. 15, at 7:30 p.m. at the Rebekah hall. Installation of officers and a hope chest sale will be held. Refreshments will be served.

The Spirit Mountain Saddle club held the annual club dance this week at the Bellevue community hall. About 130 attended.

Mrs. Oscar Herman was taken to the hospital Monday, suffering with pneumonia.

LaVelle McBee was home over the week-end from OSC, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McBee.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Baird and David left this week for a vacation trip to California.

Susie Lamson is visiting this week with her aunt, Mrs. O. C. Yocom.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Booth and Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Neal went steelhead fishing Monday on the Nestucca.

Mrs. Earl Reed was hostess to a group of neighbors Jan. 9 at a party.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cody were hosts at a dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frank and their guests who are visiting here from Canada.

Mrs. Elizabeth Doedele returned home this week from Astoria where she had been visiting the past two weeks.

Mrs. Ross Tumble is visiting here from Klamath Falls with Mrs. Leo Read.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bunker and Wally of Corvallis were week-end guests of her aunt, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Neal.

Davton

Electa chapter, No. 29, OES, Davton, met for the first meeting in 1952 Tuesday evening, Jan. 8, at the Masonic hall, with Mrs. Viola Coburn and Earle Coburn, worthy matron and worthy patron, presiding.

Ecorted to the east were Mrs. Florence Newlin and George Schoen, worthy matron and worthy patron of Newberg chapter.

During the evening degrees by initiation were conferred upon Marlan and E. L. Ketchum and Mrs. Dorothy Pomeroy. The school of instruction will be a part of the next meeting, Jan. 22, when Mrs. Irene McKinley, grand conductress, will be present.

An invitation was extended to the chapter to visit Checovin chapter at Yamhill, Wednesday, Feb. 6. The Past Matrons club will meet Tuesday, Jan. 15, with Mrs. Faith Watts.

Refreshments were served by the committee, Mrs. Henrietta Foster, chairman.

During the evening Mrs. Ketchum was presented with a pin by the worthy patron from her brother and sister-in-law in San Francisco, Calif. Mrs. Pomeroy was presented with a pin, also by her husband, Kenneth.

Miss Hazel Abdill of Los Angeles, Calif., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Abdill and her sister, Mrs. Leo Harrelson. She has been in California for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lovely combined business with pleasure Monday when they spent the day in Portland.

Mrs. Earle Coburn accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clow to McMinnville Monday evening to the installation ceremonies of Knowles chapter, OES, at which time Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stanard were installed as worthy matron and patron.

Salt Creek

Margaret Downing of Hood River is spending several days this week at the C. D. Britton home.

Mrs. Downing is an aunt of Mrs. Britton. Her daughter, Miss Iretta Downing, is on the faculty of the Salem Bible academy.

John Hoekstra, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoekstra, has returned home from a two weeks trip to San Diego, Calif. John was accompanied by Ray Friesen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Friesen.

John stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Salverda. Miss Minnie May entered the Salem Memorial hospital Thursday for an operation. The operation was successful.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tepper and children spent the holidays with friends at Chilliwack, B.C. The Teppers formerly lived at Chilliwack.

Mr. and Mrs. David Geisbrecht, Sr., were guests of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tepper, Belle and Raymond.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin May and Kenneth spent the week-end in Eugene with her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Reck.

Henry Voth, Sr., long time resident of the Salt Creek community and Dallas, was honored Sunday on his 85th birthday anniversary.

First, during the morning church service of the Baptist church here when the choir dedicated a song to him and again at noon when members of the family gathered in the church fellowship room for a birthday dinner.

There were four generations present to wish their father, grandfather and great grandfather a happy birthday. Mr. Voth with his wife and two small children came to Oregon from Nebraska March 18, 1891.

Except for two years when the family lived in Portland, the Salt Creek community and Dallas have been his dwelling place.

Butteville

Mrs. Edward A. Jones was hostess at a demonstration party recently in her home with Mrs. Phil Hathaway as demonstrator. At games Mrs. William Gooding won the prize. The appreciation prizes were won by Mrs. Karl Engleman and Mrs. W. O. Lindquist. Mrs. Glenn A. Yergen won the jackpot. Three-year-old Karla Jones, daughter of Mrs. Jones, was honored with a large birthday cake.

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson are vacationing in East Grand Forks, Minn., house guests of their son, Dick Johnson.

The local woman's fellowship group recently completed and mailed a parcel post box of children's clothing, dish cloths and cloths to Brick Rural Schoolhouse for negro children in South Carolina.

Portland General Electric company installed a new 40-foot pole in Butteville last week and a new 15 KVA transformer to serve seven families in that area. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Mathoit, Deanna and Kaye, have recently moved to their new home in Aurora.

Central Howell Meeting