

In The Valley

By MIKE FORBES

Home Rebekahs Take Up Work

Woodburn—The regular meeting of Home Rebekah Lodge No. 58 was held Tuesday night at the I.O.O.F. hall with Mrs. Coral Gay, the newly installed noble grand, presiding, and her new officers in their stations.

Mrs. Oleta Murphy, district deputy president, installed Mrs. Elizabeth DeHaan as flag bearer and Mrs. Clara Stange as RSVG, who were unable to be present at the annual installation.

Mrs. Zenola Presley of Beatrix Rebekah Lodge No. 82 of Ontario, Oregon, a visitor, was introduced and welcomed.

As this month was the 58th anniversary of the organization of Home Rebekah lodge and the 61st anniversary of the Odd Fellows lodge a program was given in observance of the anniversary which included a paper by Mrs. Myrtle Hall on the history of Home Rebekah lodge and a reading by Mrs. Esther Moon "How Rebekah Happened."

The local lodge has been invited to install the 1953 officers of the annual Rebekah convention which will be held in Salem Feb. 23. Charles Conyne will be in charge. The convention for 1953 will be held at Woodburn.

Mrs. Gay appointed Mrs. Oleta Murphy, Mrs. Blanche Wagenveld and Mrs. Leola Porter and the hostess committee for the next meeting, Feb. 5.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Joyce Engle, Mrs. Freda Burt and Mrs. Myrtle Hall. A large birthday cake centered the table which was decorated with ferns and other greens, potted plants and lighted candles.

Amity

A planning meeting for a Youth for Christ organization was held at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon Jan. 13, 2:30 o'clock.

Alvin Rutschman was elected director. The committee heads are: ushering, Robert Neumann, chairman; program, Janet Hight; finance, Tillman Loop; accommodation, Gordon Shaw; advertising, Paul Gillaspie; counselor and prayer, John Herndon. The first rally will be Monday, Jan. 28 at 7:45 p.m. at the high school gymnasium.

Four young people from Linfield College who attended the student conference in Lawrence, Kansas, will feature the morning service at the Baptist church Sunday, Jan. 20.

Bert Bennett of Linfield occupied the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday morning, in the absence of the pastor.

Rev. Elmer Boyer, returned missionary from the Belgian Congo spoke in the evening.

Stanley Davis of Seattle, Wash. was a week-end guest at the home of Mrs. F. L. Strout, Mrs. Edna Strout and Louise.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Davis had dinner with the Strouts Sunday, Jan. 13.

Dayton

The Kill Kare club met for an all-day meeting with Mrs. L. Phelps last week. The next meeting will be a similar one, with Mrs. H. G. Coburn, Jan. 23. The members of the First Baptist church had their annual church dinner and business meeting at the church Saturday evening, Rev. Harry Turnbull, pastor of the church was moderator and installed the following officers for 1952:

Al Jensen, clerk; Ted Grover, deacon; Dewey Williamson, trustee; Mrs. Harry Turnbull, pianist; Mrs. Guy Freshour, assistant pianist; Mrs. Ralph Timm, recording secretary; Mrs. Joe Kirkland, treasurer; Mrs. Guy Freshour, Sunday school superintendent; Dale Schmitz, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Ed Grabenhorst, junior superintendent; Mrs. Marjorie Krake, cradle roll superintendent; Mrs. Horace Edwards, assistant cradle roll superintendent.

A sectional fellowship meeting of the Assembly of God churches was held Monday, Jan. 14, in Dayton.

The principal speaker in the evening was Mrs. Frederick Byers. At present she with her husband are holding meetings in McMinnville.

Saturday evening, Jan. 12, Mrs. Veda Willard and Miss Sylvia Willard and Mrs. Carl Mitchell attended the installation of Acme Rebekah lodge in Portland. Carl Mitchell's sister, Mrs. Harry Tyson, was installed as noble grand of that lodge.

A potluck dinner was enjoyed Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mitchell. The occasion being the birthday anniversary of Paul Londershausen, Clete Gell, Mrs. Oscar Dower and Carl Mitchell. There were four tables of bridge at play during the evening with the high honors going to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Londershausen and low to Mr. and Mrs. Gell. Others included in the group were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Frink, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Louis, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Willett, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sherman and Oscar Dower.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Seogran entertained Saturday evening in their home with a Samba party. A potluck dinner was enjoyed at 7 o'clock by the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Sweeney, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lofton, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Mandiag and Mr. and Mrs. Earle Coburn.

Mrs. Merritt Hart has completed a year as mother advisor of the Naomi assembly, No. 17, Order of Rainbow for Girls at Dallas. Installation was held Saturday evening, Jan. 12, for the new officers and new mother advisor, Mrs. H. M. Walt, Rickel.

Her daughter, Jane, is a past worthy advisor. Mr. and Mrs. Hart came to Dayton from Dallas about a year ago and own the Dayton Cleaners.

Three teachers of the Dayton grade school, Mrs. Helen Manning, Mrs. Juanita Rives, and Miss Willetta Freeman are taking an extension science course at the McMinnville high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lockwood of Salem were in town last Thursday visiting friends, and attending to business matters. The Lockwoods are former residents of this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Willett entertained their daughter, Pat, on her 12th birthday, Sunday afternoon, when they took a group of her girl friends to the roller skating rink in Newberg.

The girls in the group were Pat Willett, honor guest; Paula Palmer, Mary Kay Makinister, Virginia Warner, Flora Buswell and Beverly Joslyn.

Mrs. Gladys Johnson is grandmother of a 7 pound son, born

Congregational Leaders Named

Woodburn—The annual congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church was held Tuesday night with the pastor, Rev. E. Kay Fenton, as moderator and C. R. Shaner as clerk.

Reports were given from the various departments of the church with Mrs. James Morrison and Mrs. H. E. VanArsdale reporting for the Missionary society, Mrs. Harris Nelson for the Aid society, Mrs. Charles Byers for the Sunday school, C. R. Shaner for the session and H. E. VanArsdale as church treasurer.

Edward Baumann was re-elected superintendent of the Sunday school and song leader; Burt Mustoe was re-elected assistant superintendent; Mrs. Charles Byers was re-elected secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Lester Walling was elected assistant. Miss Loretta Wilson was re-elected pianist and Sam VanArsdale was elected assistant pianist.

Mrs. Lillian Shaner was re-elected superintendent of the primary department, she to select her own officers.

Mrs. Minnie Richards was elected church pianist and senior choir director. Mrs. Esther Moon was elected assistant pianist and Mrs. Harry Layman, organist. Mrs. Earl Thompson was elected junior choir director.

O. L. Withers was elected as elder for a four-year term succeeding James Morrison whose term had expired and C. R. Shaner was elected for a four-year term to succeed himself. Elders holding over are Edward Baumann, George Rogers and Earl Allison.

Lester Walling was elected to the board of trustees for a five-year term, succeeding C. R. Shaner whose term expired. Trustees holding over are H. E. VanArsdale, James Morrison, Mrs. Henry Layman and Mrs. Minnie Richards.

The annual budget was discussed. A meeting of the trustees followed the congregational meeting and H. E. VanArsdale was re-elected church treasurer. Mrs. Minnie Richards was elected chairman of the board.

St. Paul

The St. Paul American Legion Auxiliary will sponsor their annual semi-formal Birthday Ball, Friday night, Jan. 25, at the St. Paul City hall. All proceeds from this dance will go to the March of Dimes fund. Music will be furnished by Wayne Meusey and his orchestra. Dancing will be from 9:30 to 12:30 o'clock.

The seniors of St. Paul high school are holding a paper drive, beginning Jan. 12-13. Those having paper should call 387 or 268 at St. Paul.

A carnival will be held at St. Paul City hall Sunday, Jan. 27. There will be games and special prizes. A turkey dinner will be served from 5 to 8 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. William Richardson and son arrived home from Mexico recently.

to her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cockerham of Carlton. The baby has been named Larry Joe.

The Dayton Pioneer church, Lafayette Poling Memorial church, the Unionvale church and the Hopewell church are sponsoring Norman Olson, Bible teacher, author and lecturer, who will be at the Dayton church for three weeks, beginning Jan. 14. The courses will begin at 7:30 a.m. evening.

Milt Palmer was overnight guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Dey at Rockaway last week.

Mrs. Judith Little and children of Posey, Calif., were luncheon guests of Mrs. Ernest Beckel, Jr., last Thursday.

Tom Hoffman was a business visitor to Salem Monday.

Members of the Linfield college Press club met Sunday afternoon in the home of Prof. E. L. Millegan, professor of English and journalism. Charlotte Filler, a sophomore, was elected vice-president of the club. Miss Filler is the only student from Dayton attending Linfield college this year.

Mrs. Elizabeth Newhouse entertained the Dayton Garden club in her home on Monday afternoon, Jan. 14, with Mrs. Lena Willard and Mrs. Sina Christenson as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Clara Heider, new president, presided.

Mrs. A. J. French spoke during the afternoon on the subject of birds.

Mrs. Elizabeth Newhouse entertained the Dayton Garden club in her home on Monday afternoon, Jan. 14, with Mrs. Lena Willard and Mrs. Sina Christenson as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Clara Heider, new president, presided.

Mrs. A. J. French spoke during the afternoon on the subject of birds.

Mrs. Elizabeth Newhouse entertained the Dayton Garden club in her home on Monday afternoon, Jan. 14, with Mrs. Lena Willard and Mrs. Sina Christenson as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Clara Heider, new president, presided.

Mrs. A. J. French spoke during the afternoon on the subject of birds.

Mrs. Elizabeth Newhouse entertained the Dayton Garden club in her home on Monday afternoon, Jan. 14, with Mrs. Lena Willard and Mrs. Sina Christenson as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Clara Heider, new president, presided.

Mrs. A. J. French spoke during the afternoon on the subject of birds.

Mrs. Elizabeth Newhouse entertained the Dayton Garden club in her home on Monday afternoon, Jan. 14, with Mrs. Lena Willard and Mrs. Sina Christenson as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Clara Heider, new president, presided.

Mrs. A. J. French spoke during the afternoon on the subject of birds.

Monmouth

Monmouth—Joint public ceremonies were held on Monday night when the new officers of Agate Rebekah lodge and Normal lodge, IOOF, were installed, following a brief session of Normal lodge. A dance followed the installation.

The Rebekah officers for the coming year are: Mary Palmer, noble grand; Ellen Dalton, vice grand; Iva Hamar, secretary; Mabel Lofte, treasurer; Marylee Bork, warden; Dora Schulmerich, conductor; Marie Jacobson, inside guardian; Norlean Eastling, outside guardian; Alaire Davis, RSN; Leah Isham, LSN; Donna McLean, chaplain; Susy Huber, musician; Ruby Riddell, flag bearer; Golda Bowman, RSVG; and Gertrude Fisher, LSVG.

New Normal lodge officers are: Carl Savage, noble grand; Quenton L. Jacobson, vice grand; Eric Swenson, secretary; Floyd Fisher, financial secretary; Kenneth Dalton, treasurer; Mel Jacobson, warden; Mel Purvis, conductor; Carnes Schulmerich, inside guardian; Denny Earhart, outside guardian; Raymond Yung, RSN; Leslie Davis, LSN; Ted Westfall, chaplain; Clifford Hassler, RSS; Kearney Palmer, LSS; John Sparks, RSVG; and John Jones, FSVG.

Installing officers included for the Rebekahs: Minnie Andrews, grand president; Pearl Stump, grand warden; Lydia Carmichael, grand secretary; Bessie Groves, grand treasurer; Margaret Crider, grand chaplain; Golda Bowman, grand marshal and Melvina Jaynes, musician. For the Odd Fellows the installing officers were: Eric Swenson, grand master; Ben Friesen, grand warden; Leslie Davis, grand secretary; Delbert Seward, grand treasurer; W. J. Stockholm, grand chaplain; and W. A. Wiest, grand marshal.

Total receipts of the Monmouth post office for the past year were $16,407.27, an increase of $972.87 over 1950, according to figures released by Postmaster E. K. Gentle. Postal receipts are just over double what they were 20 years ago, showing a slow but steady growth of the area indicated. Postmaster Gentle also announced this week that in the future the post office lobby will be locked at night. Closing time is set for 10 p.m. Anyone wishing to mail letters between that hour and the morning is asked to use the drop box in front of Houk's grocery.

Mr. J. Thomas Smith has announced the engagement of his daughter, Helen, to Charles L. Crowley, son of Mrs. Alta Crowley. The wedding date is set for the latter part of March. Both families are Monmouth residents.

Elmer Chapin has completed a green house at his home on East Jackson St.

J. F. Powers is in the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland for observation and possible major surgery.

Ann Louise Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Thompson, is on the honor roll at the University of Oregon for the fall term.

Keith Holdorf, OCE student, will present a sacred concert of vocal numbers Sunday, Jan. 27, in the Independence Calvary Presbyterian church. His accompanist will be Dan Unruh, also a student at OCE. The program will begin at 3:30 p.m.

Mrs. Willetta Owens, who has been visiting with her son Thomas Owens and family for the past two weeks, has returned to her home at Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper are home after a 10-day visit with friends in San Francisco, California.

Mrs. Ted Bennett was hostess to the Baptist Missionary Circle last Thursday afternoon. The devotions were given by Mrs. Joe Humphreys and the group studied about the "The Mother School" a school for Negro girls in South Carolina.

Mrs. G. L. Russell, Mrs. E. K. Gentle, Mrs. C. F. Gilette, Mrs. Kent Farley and Miss Katherine Arbuthnot represented the Monmouth.

Members of the Linfield college Press club met Sunday afternoon in the home of Prof. E. L. Millegan, professor of English and journalism. Charlotte Filler, a sophomore, was elected vice-president of the club. Miss Filler is the only student from Dayton attending Linfield college this year.

Mrs. Elizabeth Newhouse entertained the Dayton Garden club in her home on Monday afternoon, Jan. 14, with Mrs. Lena Willard and Mrs. Sina Christenson as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Clara Heider, new president, presided.

Mrs. A. J. French spoke during the afternoon on the subject of birds.

Mrs. Elizabeth Newhouse entertained the Dayton Garden club in her home on Monday afternoon, Jan. 14, with Mrs. Lena Willard and Mrs. Sina Christenson as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Clara Heider, new president, presided.

Mrs. A. J. French spoke during the afternoon on the subject of birds.

Mrs. Elizabeth Newhouse entertained the Dayton Garden club in her home on Monday afternoon, Jan. 14, with Mrs. Lena Willard and Mrs. Sina Christenson as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Clara Heider, new president, presided.

Mrs. A. J. French spoke during the afternoon on the subject of birds.

Mrs. Elizabeth Newhouse entertained the Dayton Garden club in her home on Monday afternoon, Jan. 14, with Mrs. Lena Willard and Mrs. Sina Christenson as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Clara Heider, new president, presided.

Mrs. A. J. French spoke during the afternoon on the subject of birds.

Mrs. Elizabeth Newhouse entertained the Dayton Garden club in her home on Monday afternoon, Jan. 14, with Mrs. Lena Willard and Mrs. Sina Christenson as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Clara Heider, new president, presided.

Mrs. A. J. French spoke during the afternoon on the subject of birds.

Mrs. Elizabeth Newhouse entertained the Dayton Garden club in her home on Monday afternoon, Jan. 14, with Mrs. Lena Willard and Mrs. Sina Christenson as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Clara Heider, new president, presided.

Mrs. A. J. French spoke during the afternoon on the subject of birds.

Mrs. Elizabeth Newhouse entertained the Dayton Garden club in her home on Monday afternoon, Jan. 14, with Mrs. Lena Willard and Mrs. Sina Christenson as co-hostesses.

New Bakery at Sublimity Opens

Sublimity—Formal opening of the Twilight Pie company of Sublimity was observed last week with a large crowd in attendance.

Fred Weis and Murray Trout, owners, made arrangements for serving pie and coffee to visitors.

The company specializes in special-recipe pies which they distribute over a wide area, including Salem and the Santiam Canyon district.

Retail business will be conducted at the bakery.

The partners are former employees of the Davidson Baking company. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Byers of San Francisco have been employed as chief and assistant chief bakers.

Other personnel with the company are Edna and Rayke Sutcliffe, apprentice bakers. Murray Trout has charge of the coffee bar.

The new building occupied by the business measures 30 x 40 feet and was built by Ralph Lulay of the Sublimity Building Supply.

Jefferson

The Jefferson Chamber of Commerce Potluck supper and meeting will be held in the school house the evening of January 28. A representative from a cannery will be present to discuss the possibilities of having a cannery here.

Two board members will be elected to serve three years. A committee also will be appointed to number the houses in the city limits, and place name of the streets at intersections.

A collection will be taken for the March of Dimes and pies and cakes left will be auctioned off to replenish the fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wynd and daughter Martha Ann will have as their guest for several days his brother, Dr. Lyle Wynd of Michigan State College. He will also visit his father and mother R. S. Wynd in Eugene and a sister, Mrs. Harvey Young. Dr. Wynd made the trip to see his father who has been ill for some time.

6 Casualties in Korea

Washington (AP)—The Defense Department Thursday identified six additional casualties of the Korean war. The list No. 481, included two killed, two injured, one wounded and one missing.

mouth Civic club at a visitors day meeting of the Dallas Women's club in Dallas recently.

The January meeting of the Junior Aid society of the Evangelical United Brethren church was held Thursday at the home of Mrs. W. A. Buss. Assisting her were Mrs. Harold Buss and Mrs. Ed Rogers.

A one o'clock covered-dish luncheon was served and the birthdays of Mrs. William Skinner and Mrs. Hinshaw were observed with a birthday cake.

During the business session plans were made and committees appointed for the coming year. Mrs. M. B. Layton led the devotionals and Mrs. Harvey R. Scheuerman gave a reading.

The next meeting of the group will be held Feb. 7 in the church basement with Mrs. C. Dickson, Mrs. W. Rabe and Mrs. W. West as hostesses.

Until 1951, Nepal, on Tibet's southern border, had been governed by a hereditary prime minister for 104 years.

Independence

A baby daughter was born at the Salem General hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Oster, Wednesday, Jan. 9.

Mrs. F. T. Hayman, who has been here with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. Nelson, is spending the winter at Claremont, Calif.

Clyde Hunnicut was admitted to the Veterans' hospital at Portland this past week for medical care and observation.

Cheryl Soden spent the week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Wattenbarger, while her mother, Mrs. Everett Soden of Salem was a surgical patient at the Salem General hospital.

Edward Weaver assumed his duties as night patrolman for the city Friday, Jan. 4, taking the place of Robert Saveny, who has left the city service.

Harrison Myers, who underwent an emergency appendectomy at the Bartlett hospital in Dallas recently, is reported to be making satisfactory recovery.

Mrs. C. O. Sloper and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Fisher spent last week at Delake at Mrs. Sloper's beach home.

Mrs. Belle Kerns, is now making her home with her son, Tom, at Coquille.

E. D. Alger, local building inspector, reports the following totals of permits issued for the month of December: repairs and remodeling to residence property, $840; repairs to garages, $25; remodel and repair commercial buildings, $60; the total for the month, $925. The following building permits issued so far this month are as follows:

First National Bank, repairs to building; S. Snyder, 640 Fourth street, repairs to house; Isis theater, repairs; Howard and Son, repairs to Independence Laundry building; and Howard and Son, 576 C street, repairs to house.

Joyce Fletcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Fletcher, was given a party in honor of her ninth birthday Monday afternoon. Invited to help her celebrate were Barbara Kraeger, Ann Powell, Jan Stapleton, Christine Dodson, Cokie Burnes, Karen Fox, and her sister, Judy.

Mrs. Carl Campfield was honored with a pink and blue shower given at the home of Mrs. Oscar Ashton Friday afternoon.

Those attending the shower or sending gifts were Mesdames V. Eggebraaten, N. Wells, W. Munchie, Lambert, Ray Howard, Earl Starks, B. Arnet, Roy Hilbert, R. A. Sylvester, H. C. Paulsen, Earl Proctor, R. Foster, V. Gowen, Clyde Mills, Wes Gaines, Al Price, Chas. Burdge, Deforest, D. Williams, Rolland Turpin, the hostess, Mrs. Ashton, and the honor guest, Mrs. Campfield.

The Good Will Club of this and the Perrydale community will meet with Mrs. William Brooks at Perrydale Friday afternoon, instead of meeting at the home of Mrs. S. Van Staavern.

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Ediger and Joyce together with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Ediger of Dallas, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Harms at Salem. Later Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Ediger of West

New Record Set By Child Clinic

Silverton—The record attendance of the year for the well-child conferences in the Silverton area, featured the week's meeting at the Eugene Field health room, with 26 children in for their first school health examination, seven of pre-school age were examined, and 12 received immunization for smallpox or the combination diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus.

Dr. Willard J. Stone, Marion county health official, was the physician, assisted by Viola Eisenbach, PHN.

Victor Point district was responsible for the assistance, the volunteer workers were Mrs. Dale Miller, Mrs. Marion Fisher, Mrs. Robert Humphreys, Mrs. G. M. Brownell.

Brush Creek district will be responsible for the volunteer workers for the February well-child clinic.

Nursing conferences and immunization will be done the afternoon of Tuesday, Jan. 29, from 2 to 4 o'clock.

The well-child clinic for February will be held the first Tuesday, Feb. 5, from 9:30 a.m. through 3:30 p.m. The clinic is available to all infants and pre-school children whose parents wish this regular medical supervision — no treatments are given. Appointments should be made by calling Mrs. M. B. Ford, Silverton, phone 4052.

Smithfield

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Groth of Newberg spent the week with Mrs. Groth's mother, Mrs. E. A. Bennett and visited their father, who has been in the hospital for several weeks. Mrs. Bennett announces that her youngest granddaughter is now married.

Mrs. M. E. Barth spent the day Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. Clarence McCrow in McMinnville.

The Good Will Club of this and the Perrydale community will meet with Mrs. William Brooks at Perrydale Friday afternoon, instead of meeting at the home of Mrs. S. Van Staavern.

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Ediger and Joyce together with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Ediger of Dallas, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Harms at Salem. Later Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Ediger of West

Salem also called for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stouffer attended the funeral of Keith Janzen Monday morning at the Salt Creek Baptist Church.

E. A. Bennett, who has been on the sick list for so many weeks, and most of that time in a local hospital in Dallas, is anticipating his return home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harden Smith together with Margaret Tallman of near Portland and Mary Barth of our neighborhood motored to Kelso, Wash. Sunday to visit Mr. Smith and Mrs. Tallman's sister, Evelyn Eaton. They found her ill with a bad cold and brought her back with them. She is now spending a few days with her other sister, Mrs. M. E. Barth.

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Ediger and Joyce motored to Portland Saturday and visited with Ernie that afternoon. During the evening they attended the basketball game between Multnomah School of the Bible and Concordia College.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Hoffstetter and boys, DeWayne, Dale, and Kenny of Pratum were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Beyerle Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McCrow of McMinnville were Friday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harden Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Ediger and Joyce together with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Ediger of Dallas, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Harms at Salem. Later Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Ediger of West

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Ediger and Joyce together with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Ediger of Dallas, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Harms at Salem. Later Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Ediger of West

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Ediger and Joyce together with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Ediger of Dallas, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Harms at Salem. Later Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Ediger of West

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Ediger and Joyce together with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Ediger of Dallas, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Harms at Salem. Later Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Ediger of West

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Ediger and Joyce together with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Ediger of Dallas, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Harms at Salem. Later Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Ediger of West

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Ediger and Joyce together with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Ediger of Dallas, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Harms at Salem. Later Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Ediger of West

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Ediger and Joyce together with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Ediger of Dallas, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Harms at Salem. Later Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Ediger of West