Record Topples as 'Cats Defeat Lewis-Clark, 103-62

Willamette's 103-62 victory over Lewis and Clark Saturday night established the Bearcats as a solid favorite to win the Northwest Conference basketball championship which they shared with Linfield last year.

Saturday's game marked the first time in Willamette basketball history that a Bearcat team has scored more than 100 points in a single game.

The win only tied Willamette with previously unbeaten L&C for the league lead, but the impressive performance indicated that the veteran Bearcats have it last found themselves and will be rough the rest of the way.

The Pioneers, who had been regarded as the conference's top offensive team, never had a chance against their rangy, sharpshooting foes.

Doug Logue, senior center, fought in the finest game of his 30 career at Willamette with 30 points, the high individual conference mark of the season.

The Bearcats hit 42 field goals in 89 attempts for a 47.1 average. Other high Willamette scorers were Ted Loder with 19 points, Dick Mase with 15 and

In another Saturday night game, Pacific upset Linfield, 76-68, to prevent the 1951 co-champion from moving into one-half game of the leaders. As usual, Pacific's fine all-around athlete, Frankie Buczewicz led the Badgers with 22 points. Linfield's Ted McKee was high scorer, however, with 24.

Only two conference games are scheduled this week. Lewis and Clark has a chance to regain first place when it meets Linfield in a home-and-away series Friday and Saturday nights.

In a non-league game, Pacific clashes with Portland University Friday night in Portland.

Leapin' Logue Doug Logue (No. 15), Willamette university center, outreaches Lewis and Clark's Gary Jackson in a jump ball play during Willamette's history-making 103-62 victory over the Pioneers in the WU gym Saturday. Logue, playing one of his finest games during his Bearcat career scored 30 points to pace the Bearcat victory.

Salem Defeats Eugene in 45-43 Overtime Thriller

By SCOTT PAGE Eugene — Salem high's Vikings edged the Eugene Axemen 45-43 in an overtime thriller Saturday night to take complete command of the Big Six league race. Saturday's win lengthened the Vikings' win streak to seven straight, with five of them over other Big Six contenders.

The game was a wild and spirited one in which tempers were in the verge of flaring at every turn. The lead changed hands 11 times and the game was tied six times at 3, 11, 14, 20, 40, and 42. Both teams were playing rough under the boards and fighting hard for loose balls.

Missler dropped a free throw in to give the Axemen the first point, but Jack Bishop followed with a pivot shot to put the Vikings ahead 2-1. Bishop continued to lead the Hawksmen in the first period with seven more counters and Buzzer owned a 16-14 lead at the buzzer.

Paulus hit his only field goal of the night at the start of the second quarter to give the Vikings their biggest advantage, 18-14. They also led by four points at the end of the third period. Eugene got warmed up half way into the second half and pulled out in front by a 28-25 margin at the half.

Brandt, Bishop, and Johnson hit quick buckets to give the Viks a 31-28 lead one minute into the second half. From there Salem moved to a 37-33 third quarter lead.

Eugene closed the gap in a slow moving fourth quarter scoring: five points to two for Salem. This made the score 39-38 for Salem, with three minutes to go. Don Ainge slipped in for a layup to give the Axemen their last lead, 40-39. Hudspeth fouled Bishop to give the Viks the tying point, and Larry Springer put Salem ahead 42-40 with a long one-handed push shot. Eugene's Gene Stott tied the game with a minute to go with a two hander from the side.

Dave Johnson's fifth personal foul gave the Axemen the ball out of bounds and they stalled until there was only time for one shot, but Bill Rasor didn't come close and the game went into overtime.

Don McKenzie was fouled attempting a shot and made his free throw to give Salem the lead, 43-42. Salem then went into a stall. With one minute and 10 seconds left Bishop shook himself loose for a crumple and the ball game.

The officials, who seemed a bit confused at times, whistled 49 fouls, 26 against Eugene and 23 on Salem. Salem's Larry Paulus absorbed four fouls in the first four minutes and was replaced. Paulus started the second period but drew his fifth personal after another four minutes of action. Guard Don Pepper collected four fouls by the end of the first half but managed to play the remaining half and overtime without an infraction.

Bob Hazel, the Vikings' leading scorer, and John Conner were unable to make the trip because of a flu bug. With Hazel, Paulus and Conder out of action the Viks lost a good share of their rebounding and point-making abilities.

The Salem JV's won their ninth straight victory, defeating the Eugene JV's 47-40. Lee Gustafson is still down with chicken pox and Don DuBois is working with the JV team. The game was far from an easy one, the B squad behind 10-1 at one point in the first period. Bob Miller led the JV's with 12 points. An unofficial source reports that the JV's now have a record of 120 wins with only 8 losses over a six-year period.

Gehrmann Beats G-Man Fred Wilt In Two Gallops

Boston (AP) — Mery King Don Gehrmann rolled merrily along in his pre-Olympic campaign over the week-end by twice nipping rival Fred Wilt in a now-familiar pattern.

Both in Saturday night's Knights of Columbus meet and the Philadelphia Inquirer games 24 hours earlier the Milwaukee flash's finishing kick caught Wilt in the home stretch.

The New York FBI agent pushed Gehrmann to a 4:09.3 effort here while losing by a yard. In Philadelphia Fleet Fred chased the ex-Wisconsin ace to a meet mark of 4:10.2, again winding up about a yard back.

Gehrmann's rally here earned him the Thomas J. Fitzgerald Memorial Trophy as outstanding athlete in the view of writers covering the K of C affair. It was Gehrmann's 13th victory in 17 indoor and outdoor duels between the pair. Denis Johansson, the Finnish exchange student from Purdue, was fourth behind Villanova's Fred Dwyer in the Philadelphia mile and third here.

Salkeld Seeks To Sign Murphy For Kahut Bout Portland, Ore., Jan. 18 (AP) — Boxing Promoter Tex Salkeld said today he would try and get Bob Murphy to fight in a March of Dimes card here early in February instead of Harry (Kid) Matthews of Seattle.

Salkeld said Jack Murley, Matthews' manager, told him last night he was heading east soon to try and get a fight for Matthews with Heavyweight Champion Joe Walcott.

The Portland promoter said if he was successful in getting the San Diego, Calif., fighter he would match him against Joe Kahut, Woodburn, Ore.

Salkeld was obviously unhappy about being unable to get Matthews for a local match. Salkeld said Hurley told him last year he wanted Matthews to headline the March of Dimes card. But Hurley has refused all offers, Salkeld said.

"He turned down Joey Maxim, Nardico and Kahut," Salkeld said. "Maybe he doesn't want to fight."

Art Togle Finishes 13th at Stockholm Stockholm, Sweden (AP) — Art Togle of Brooklyn finished 13th yesterday in an international ski jumping meet at nearby Hammarby hill. Arne Erlingsson of Norway won the meet with leaps of 188 feet, 7.8 inches and 182 feet, 1.1 inches for a total of 205 points. Togle, one of America's leading ski jumping hopes, leaped 164 feet and 173 feet, 10.7 inches for a 180.5-point total.

Redskins said the new club could have the draft rights to Baylor's heralded Larry Isbell for players plus $25,000.

This was all confusing to Miller, who said in Dallas he hadn't made any $250,000 offer for Walker. But there was much confusion, and it probably will remain until Miller comes to New York Thursday to confer with Fitzgerald and then moves along to Philadelphia to complete the deal with League Commissioner Bert Bell.

Several issues must be settled. One is the matter of a coach, and Jimmy Phelan, who bossed the Yanks last year, said he'd be happy to consider the job. Otis Douglas of Arkansas was reported also in line for the job.

Fitzgerald said he expected the Dallas owners to take over all Yank players, including the three Negroes on the club. Negroes played with Penn State in the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1, 1948, to cross the south's color line.

Collins gave up the Yanks after he couldn't get his demands for more and better local playing dates in New York. The New York Giants, whose consent Collins needed to operate in New York in the first place, said they never again will permit another pro team in their franchise territory.

The league, in winding up its meetings at midnight, stuck by its restrictive television policy and ordered its lawyers to fight the government's anti-trust suit all the way.

Washington Steamrollers Over Oregon Again, 64-39

Seattle, Wash. (AP) — The University of Washington Huskies were riding high in Northern division basketball today as they began preparations to meet Washington State after steamrollering Oregon twice.

The Huskies slammed the Wedfoots 64 to 39 Saturday night and 74 to 36 the night before to take undisputed possession of the top spot in the standings.

The JV team will take to the road this week-end, as they meet Washington State at Pullman for a two-game series Friday and Saturday nights.

The Cougars will be looking for some way to crack the stout husky defense that beat Oregon. The tightly-woven Husky screen held the Webfoots to 10 field goals Saturday night and to only nine Friday night.

The Husky offense sputtered a bit in the first half Saturday, but picked up speed in the home stretch. Washington won going away.

Coach Tippy Dye said they looked "pretty good," and obviously was pleased with his boys.

Dye will be looking forward to this week-end with even more pleasure. Bob Houbregs, the Huskies' Hook-shot artist, should be ready for plenty of action after seeing only limited action against Oregon. Houbregs has been nursing an injury suffered in the first Idaho game.

Big Doug McLary who was limping a bit last week as the result of a sprained ankle, was back in form for Oregon and will be ready for the Cougars. He dominated the backboards while Bob Peterson, Oregon's rebound star, cleared off only seven before fouling out in the fourth quarter of Saturday's game.

In Saturday's game OCE trailed 34-35 at halftime. But they came from behind to win in the second half paced by Chuck Pinion who scored 22 points during the game.

Norm Hubert and Paul Petch shared scoring honors for Vanport with 14 points each.

In their Saturday action Oregon Tech defeated Eastern Oregon College of Education 74-53 in a game at Klamath Falls. The defeat was EOCE's 15th consecutive one this season.

Burl Greer, EOCE guard, was high scorer of the game with 17 points. High for OTI was Homer Duncan with 14.

Relief Pitcher Inks Cincinnati Contract Cincinnati, O., (AP) — Gabe Paul, general manager of the Cincinnati Reds, announced last night that relief pitcher Frank Smith has signed his 1952 contract with the Redlegs. This brought to 11, the number of Reds who are now in the fold. Paul disclosed yesterday he had received signed agreements from shortstop Virgil Stallcup and outfielder Lloyd Merriman.

Oregon State Drops Two Games to Idaho Vandals

(By United Press) Washington State Cougars, who have lost four of their northern division basketball games thus far, dominate action in the loop this week with four contests at home.

The Cougars play Oregon State Monday and Tuesday night and the title-aspiring Washington Huskies Friday and Saturday. No other conference games are scheduled this week.

Idaho's Vandals established themselves as a contender by taking two from Oregon State. The Vandals, after a one-point win Friday night, walloped the Beavers, 74-50 Saturday.

Bill Brenner Named Manager At Lewiston

Lewiston, Idaho (AP) — Bill Brenner, the eight-year veteran of the Western International Baseball league, will pilot the Lewiston club during its first season in the loop.

Club directors named Brenner Saturday as player-manager for the 1952 season.

Last season Brenner was general manager of the Yakima Bears. Earlier he was manager at Vancouver.

The sting of a jellyfish is seldom serious.

New York (AP) — The New Dallas entry in the National Football league started on a man-hunt for Texas players today even before it completes purchase of the New York Yank assets.

A syndicate headed by 31-year-old Textile Manufacturer Giles E. Miller made arrangements to buy the Yanks from the league after Ted Collins turned it in Saturday. The team will be transferred to Dallas and will play in the 75,000-capacity Cotton bowl.

Frank Fitzgerald, general manager of the defunct Yanks, represented the new owners in the league meeting last night and bid $250,000 to buy ex-Southern Methodist star Doak Walker from the Detroit Lions as part of an obvious campaign to get Texas-bred stars for local appeal. The Lions rejected the offer, but George Marshall of the Washington Redskins said the new club could have the draft rights to Baylor's heralded Larry Isbell for players plus $25,000.

This was all confusing to Miller, who said in Dallas he hadn't made any $250,000 offer for Walker. But there was much confusion, and it probably will remain until Miller comes to New York Thursday to confer with Fitzgerald and then moves along to Philadelphia to complete the deal with League Commissioner Bert Bell.

Several issues must be settled. One is the matter of a coach, and Jimmy Phelan, who bossed the Yanks last year, said he'd be happy to consider the job. Otis Douglas of Arkansas was reported also in line for the job.

Fitzgerald said he expected the Dallas owners to take over all Yank players, including the three Negroes on the club. Negroes played with Penn State in the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1, 1948, to cross the south's color line.

Collins gave up the Yanks after he couldn't get his demands for more and better local playing dates in New York. The New York Giants, whose consent Collins needed to operate in New York in the first place, said they never again will permit another pro team in their franchise territory.

The league, in winding up its meetings at midnight, stuck by its restrictive television policy and ordered its lawyers to fight the government's anti-trust suit all the way.

Two Oregon Boys On All-American High School Team

New York (AP) — Two boys from Oregon were among the 86 players from 33 states and the District of Columbia named Saturday on the first All-America high school football team.

The squad was selected by Scholastic Magazines, the national school weeklies.

The 66 are equally divided among backs and linemen. They were chosen on the basis of all-around ability by the six high school weeklies which reach 1-100,000 students and teachers throughout the country.

Texas leads the states with six selections.

Herman L. Masin, sports director for Scholastic Magazines, said:

"The backfield selections are classified under four headings: Quarterbacks are T-formation men only; tailbacks played in the single wing and are triple-threats of the first order; halfbacks include wingbacks and fullbacks and fullbacks are just what the title implies."

The Oregonians honored are Dick Pavlat, Astoria tailback, and Cliff Brumblow, Grants Pass tackle.

Gambold Named Frosh Football Coach at WSC

Pullman, Wash. (AP) — Young Bob Gambold added freshman football to his frosh basketball coaching duties at Washington State college today following his appointment by the board of regents.

Gambold, 22, a three-year quarterback in the Cougar backfield, and a guard on the basketball team, was hired to succeed Dan Stavelo, who was given an assistant's berth under WSC Head Coach Al Kircher.

The 1951 graduate from Longview, who is studying for his master's degree in physical education, won approval from the regents Saturday.

Gambold was a T-formation signal caller under Phil Sarboe, and handled Forest Evashevski's single wing offense in 1950.

He has been coaching the Cougar frosh quint since assistant Coach Ed Fritug resigned last month.

No Salem Area Players on Shrine Upstate Grid Team

Portland (AP) — Players from Grants Pass and Grant of Portland, finalists in the state football playoffs last fall, dominate all-Star teams which will play the annual Shrine football game here Aug. 23.

Selections were announced here Saturday.

An Upstate team will meet a Portland squad in the annual game proceeds from which go to the Shrine Fund for crippled children. All the players are to be graduated this year.

Mel Ingram of Grants Pass will be head coach of the Upstate team. Assisting him will be Bob George of Milton-Freewater and Ray Segale of Astoria.

Frank O'Neil of Roosevelt high will coach the Portland team assisted by Ted Ogdahl of Grant and Billy Gray of Washington.

Each side has won twice in the past four years.

The Upstate squad includes: Ends — Jim Boulton, Rogue River; Hank Hudspeth, Eugene, and Dean Benson, Bend. Tackles — John Conburn, Milton-Freewater; Ron Van Meter, The Dalles; John Harbour, Grants Pass; Cliff Brumblow,
