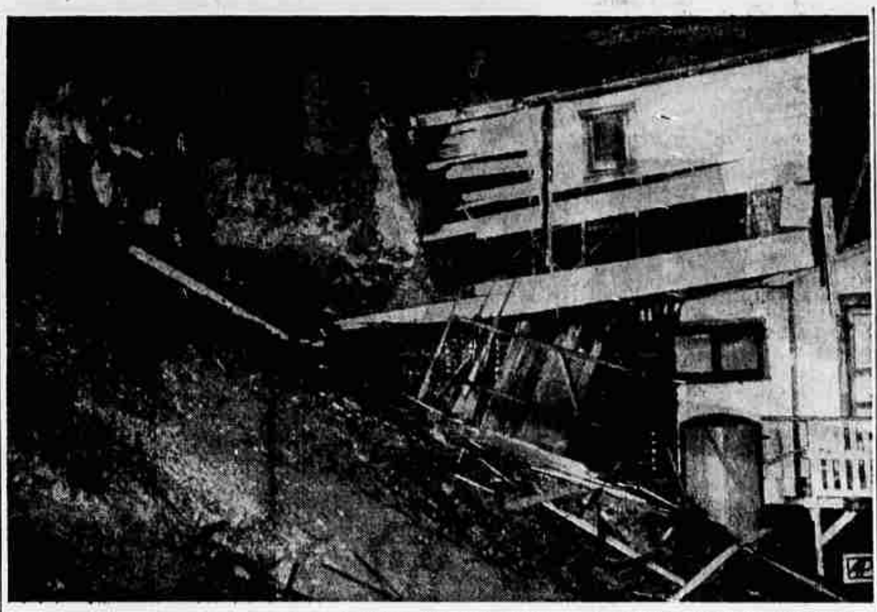
Driver Dies in Flood—Giles Steele, movie studio costume designer, lost his life in the auto in foreground when raging floodwaters swept it from a Culver City, Calif., highway into a ditch 150 feet away. Authorities are attempting to determine if any lives were lost in the other auto overturned in background. Widespread damage occurred over a large area of Southern California during recent torrential rains. (AP Wirephoto)



Boulder Wrecks House — A five-ton boulder, dislodged by heavy rains from the bluff above this beach house at Malibu, Calif., smashed into the garage which was built above the house. She was a member of the Jefferson Evangelical church and the Ladies Aid society, also a member of the Eastern Star and of the Past Matrons club.

She is survived by her husband, Frank Reeves of Salem; a daughter, Fern Forgey of Fresno, Calif.; a son, Hal Reeves of Jefferson; a sister, Alice Thompson of Oakland, Calif.; two brothers, Lester Blackwell of Oakland and James Blackwell of Salem; two grandsons, Dick and Billy Reeves of Salem.

Republicans Claim HST Has Gone Wild in Budget

Washington (U.P.)—Republican congressional leaders said today President Truman had "gone wild" in submitting a $84,500,000,000 spending budget.

Both democrats and republicans talked of cuts ranging to $7,000,000,000 and more.

Chairman Walter F. George (D., Ga.) of the tax-writing senate finance committee, said bluntly: "The president's budget is $5,000,000,000 to $7,000,000,000 too high, and he might as well realize it."

House GOP leaders, in a joint statement, bitterly attacked Mr. Truman's big spending figures. Their statement said "the figures in his own budget prove that spending and more spending is the only answer the president has for any problems, large or small."

They said Mr. Truman asked for increased budgets for 12 major non-defense departments and agencies.

"The test to apply to this budget is to examine non-defense spending," they said. "We find it is still soaring in appallingfashion."

"The goal of Mr. Truman and his left-wing advisers is clear. One more year of Truman spending at the present rate of increase, would mean a budget of $100,000,000,000. It would also mean an inflation that would drive prices out of sight and a tax load beyond the capacity of our people."

Other comment:

Chairman George H. Mahon (D., Tex.) of the house military appropriations subcommittee: "In view of the prospective deficit we are going to have to pare the military requests. I don't think we should try to increase taxes again. That means we will have to save wherever we can."

Sen. Andrew F. Schoeppel (R., Kans.): It is "about ten billions too much."

Senat GOP Leader Styles Bridges (N. H.) said it is very "shocking" that Mr. Truman should propose an "additional $14,400,000,000 deficit for the year 1953."

Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney (D., Wyo.) said that to avoid a deficit "we must have reductions, to be effective, must come somewhere in the defense program."

Hartman Out Of Line School

Dallas — Lt. (jg) Richard V. Hartman has graduated from the naval general line school at Monterey, Calif., and will report to the U.S. naval air station at Glenview, Ill., at the combat information center school. He is a son of Mrs. Hulda Kesler of Dallas.

John Classen of Dallas has enlisted for a three year period in the coast guard. He left for a 12-weeks training course at Alameda, Calif. Mrs. Classen is remaining in Dallas for the present.

Vernon Schroeder, son of Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Schroeder of Dallas, is on the USS Wisconsin, serving on the staff of the commander of the seventh fleet.

Burt Curtis, who spent the holidays in Dallas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Curtis, has been promoted to corporal. He is stationed with weather battalion in the high Sierras of California, near the site of the recently stranded Southern Pacific train in Donner pass.

Uniformity in Bail Sought

A new bail schedule proposed in a pamphlet by the League of Oregon Cities wouldn't affect municipal court bail procedures here but would have a large effect in some other communities, according to Municipal Judge Peery T. Buren, who last fall participated in designing the new schedules.

Salem's bail schedules already are pretty much in line with the proposed uniform bail rates for municipalities, said Buren, who is vice president of the Oregon Municipal Judge's association.

The whole thing, he said, is designed to make uniformity throughout the state and just what bail a person would have to post on the same charge. Not all cities have the same ordinances and there would still be variations in that respect.

American Forests in Bad Condition

Washington, Jan. 21 (U.P.)—The nation's forest resources are in an "unhealthy condition" because of abuse by man, the chief of the agriculture department's forest service said today.

In his annual report, Lyle F. Watts said that more than half of the nation's 460,000,000 acres of comemrcial forest lands is being handled "poorly or destructively." The result, he said, is "our supply of good quality, readily accessible, merchantible standing timber is getting scarce."

He noted that there are already shortages of certain kinds of forest products. Furthermore, he said, lumber prices have increased to about three times what they were 10 years ago—a much faster price rise than for other building materials.

Lawton Quizzed On Tax Bureau

Washington (AP)—Budget Director Frederick J. Lawton told a Congressional committee Monday he believes President Truman's plan to reorganize the Internal Revenue Bureau "provides for a better climate" for morality and integrity.

He conceded, however, that it doesn't insure honesty in the tax collecting service.

Lawton and Internal Revenue Commissioner John J. Dunlap faced critical questioning by members of the house executive expenditures committee hearing testimony on a resolution to reject Mr. Truman's reorganiza-plan.

The program, aimed at reshuffling the scandal-ridden bureau and placing it under Civil Service, has met with a cool reception by congressional leaders.

They hit away at the cost of the program. Lawton said the plan contemplates adding 7,400 employes, but he said he couldn't estimate its cost.

Phone Coin Boxes Changed to 10 Cents

A crew of 50 installers from the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company is going about the Salem community today changing coin box phones from 5 to 10 cent meters.

The company office said the change-over would probably be completed by 5 o'clock Monday afternoon.

As the change is made instructions for users are being left posted near each instrument and in all booths.

The change is permitted by a recent order of the public utilities commissioner.

Single Cloud Blamed For 10 Inches Snow

Vancouver, B. C. (AP)—A single cloud was blamed Monday for a freak storm which dumped seven to 10 inches of snow over Vancouver.

The Weather Bureau said the single cloud parked over the city early in the morning and dumped its load. Only a light fall was reported in suburban Burnaby while no snow fell in New Westminster, 12 miles away.

Newsman Dies At Sweet Home

Sweet Home — Charles Sumner Clark, 74, retired Willamette Valley newspaper publisher, died in his sleep Saturday night, presumably of a heart attack.

Mr. Clark was born March 22, 1877 at War Road, Minn., and came to Oregon in 1912. He was editor and publisher of newspapers at Stayton, Aumsville and Turner over a period of 30 years. He also worked on the New Era, Sweet Home newspaper, for two years before his retirement in 1941.

He is survived by his wife, Margaret; a son, Sumner H. Clark, Forest Grove, Ore.; two daughters, Mrs. Clarissa Drinner, Gardena, Calif., and Mrs. Frances Edwards of Sweet Home; and six grand children, Judith and Diane Drinnen; Dale and Lee Edwards; and Jon and Larry Clark.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 23, from the Houston Funeral chapel, Sweet Home. Graveside services will be held at City View cemetery, Salem.

The collections of art works of New York's Metropolitan Museum of Art are said to be the most extensive in the western hemisphere.

Chicago Grain

Chicago (AP)—Grains managed to draw a little inflationary inspiration from President Truman's budget message to Congress Monday.

Prices advanced in all pits. Corn led the upturn, partly because of a feeling there may be a shortage of this grain before the new crop comes in.

More exports of wheat to Japan and West Germany were expected this week. Egypt also was expected to take some wheat. The prospect of such business aided wheat.

Stock Market

New York (AP)—Rails led the stock market higher Monday during a late recovery movement.

The price trend had been mixed earlier as President Truman laid before Congress the largest budget in history, except in time of all-out war.

The buying pulled many issues up from the day's lows and threw some onto the advancing side of the ledger.

The volume ran around 1,600,000 shares.
