Newby to Rule

From Portland, the Associated Press correspondent, Jack Bell, reported that Monroe Sweetland, democratic national committee man, had said that in the absence of word from President Truman or Frank McKinney, democratic national chairman, he is going ahead with plans to put a slate supporting the president in the field for the May primaries. At the same time Sweetland said delegates for Senator Kefauver for vice president also may be entered.

William L. Josselin, democratic state chairman, said he has "serious doubts" that Mr. Truman plans to seek another term and added that he regards Kefauver as having strong support among Oregon democrats. In addition to Eisenhower's name on the republican ballot, F. E. Epton, Portland real estate man, announced during the republican meeting in San Francisco last week, that he plans to file petitions for General Douglas MacArthur unless he gets definite word to the contrary from the general.

Taft Forces Reluctant
Taft forces are reluctant to file for the Oregon primary election and seem satisfied to pick up secondary votes rather than take a chance in the primary fight, perhaps having in mind that Governor Thomas E. Dewey came out a convention winner after defeating Harold Stassen in the Oregon primaries four years ago.

Incidentally, Stassen may file in Oregon, having declared that he is surveying the situation. There is also a possibility that Governor Earl Warren of California will also file in the Oregon primaries. If all four candidates file, the eyes of the country will again be focused on the Oregon primary election in May.

Flooded Out of House and Home—Some of the more than 2000 persons who were evacuated from their flooded homes in Southeast Los Angeles rest in a Red Cross relief center at Artesia, Calif. They were rescued by Coast Guard and police rescue squads. Nineteen lives were lost and damages from the heavy rains in Southern California ran into the millions. (Telephoto)

13 LA Doctors Active As Reds

Washington (AP)—Sixteen persons, including 13 physicians, were identified at house un-American activities committee hearings today as having been active in communist party activities in Los Angeles in 1939 or 1940.

Most of them were named by Dr. Louise E. Light, a Los Angeles osteopath, who told the committee they "may or may not be in the party now."

Mrs. Light and her husband, Max Silver, said they are both ex-communists. They said they made a "final break" in 1945 when the official communist party line was shifted to place greater emphasis on the "class struggle against capitalism."

Among those named by Mrs. Light was Dr. Max Schoen, Los Angeles dentist who had refused to testify at committee hearings in Los Angeles for fear of "self-incrimination."

Mrs. Light said that in 1940 or 1941 Schoen tried to force her to fire Emily Gordon, her assistant, because the "girl had dropped out of the communist party."

"He told me I should discharge her as 'an enemy of the people' and hire someone who would be willing to work with the communist movement," she testified. She said she refused to do so.

Mrs. Light testified that 16 Los Angeles doctors also were members of the medical branch of the party during 1939 and 1940.

17 Drivers Get Safety Awards

Application for "Safe Driver Awards" earned by 17 drivers of City Transit Lines in 1951, has been made to the National Safety Council.

In making this announcement General Manager Carl J. Wendt said these 17 drivers, in addition to earning "safe driving awards" during the year have also compiled a safe driving record prior to 1951. Including the year 1951 they have averaged six consecutive years of safe driving per man. In achieving this record, a total of 2,420,000 miles was driven in city traffic, an average per man of 144,000 miles.

In addition to the "Safe Driver Awards" drivers who have driven 10 consecutive years without a chargeable accident are presented with a watch by the company. This year George Walker will receive this special award at a dinner to be given in honor of all safety award winners at a later date. Three other drivers of City Transit Lines have already received this special company award. They are Arthur Eld (deceased), Henry Eld and Homer Harrison.

Following are the 17 drivers and their driving records, including the year 1951. The first figure after each name is the number of years driven without accident, and the second large figure the total number of miles driven:

Henry Eld, 14 years; 333,330 miles. Homer Harrison, 11; 260,106. George Walker, 10; 236,940. Edward Dolan, eight; 214,668. O. K. Hales, seven, 171,310. Edward Ryan, seven; 169,380. Ray Cross, seven; 164,480. John Ankeny, six; 144,068. John Harp, five; 120,935. Lee Epley, four; 95,066. Harley Cross, four; 98,758. Norman Yagle, four; 97,817. William Burright, three; 71,552. Bennie Miller, three; 67,373. F. M. Stewart, three; 67,328. Ernest Ashcroft, two; 72,528. Warlyn Ashcroft, two; 45,861.

Expands Cost

This time the President didn't pitch his plea as strongly as he did last week nor did he specifically mention rate increases as he did in his economic report. He emphasized "loophole" plugging.

Foreign Aid Program
He said his foreign aid program, under especially heavy criticism, "is vital and indispensable . . . in the total fight for security and peace." Mr. Truman called for expanding total aid

Dying Girl, 4, Gets Melon She Wanted

Burbank, Calif. (AP)—Four-year-old Sandra Gist, dying of an incurable sickness, today had all the watermelon she could eat.

Sandra got the melon she wanted so badly yesterday from three members of the "impossible committee" of the Saints and Sinners club.

Given only a short time to live by doctors, she has been growing progressively weaker for months and now has difficulty moving her hands.

Her plight and her desire for a cold watermelon came to the attention of the Saints and Sinners, and the group of business and professional men went to work at once.

The "impossible" committee telephoned across the nation until they located a melon in Cuba. It was placed on an airliner and flown here.

Sandra's benefactors were Ben Teitelbaum, Harry Rosoff and Samuel A. Mannis.

Korean Truce Nation Faces

At the same time, the U. N. denied a communist charge that allied planes deliberately bombed and strafed a properly-marked communist truce delegation convoy on the P'yongyang-Kaesong road last Friday.

It conceded that some such communist vehicles might have been hit during an allied air attack at the spot—a bridge 40 miles north of Kaesong. However, the U. N. said, the four attacking planes did not see any vehicles in the vicinity.

Sneaking Convoy Through
U. N. Liaison Officer Col. C. Murray moreover hinted that the Reds might have been trying to sneak through an extra convoy under protection of cerise markers.

A southbound convoy had been spotted at the bridge three hours before the attack, Murray said, and the allies have agreed to permit only one southbound convoy a day. The Reds said two of the three vehicles in the attacked convoy were destroyed and two men injured.

from $6,868,000,000 this year to $10,844,000,000 next fiscal year, with military aid alone jumping from four to eight billion.

His budget, he said in his annual message, "is carefully planned to carry us a long way forward on the road to security."

Ruling Bears On Annexation

A county may be considered an owner of property in a county road for the purpose of giving consent to city annexation of territory including the road, according to a recent opinion of the attorney general.

Since the county in effect holds county roads on behalf of the public, if in fact it is not the actual owner in fee, since the county court is charged with the management, control and exclusive jurisdiction of such roads and serves as managing agent for the county, the opinion stated that the county might be considered an owner of property in the county road and that the county court could consent to the annexation on behalf of that property.

The attorney general warned, however, that mere annexation by a city of a county road would not serve to vest control or management of the road in the city since it is necessary to comply with legal procedure in order for the jurisdiction of the county road to be transferred from a county to a city.

Nation Faces

Appropriate $84,260,000,000 in new spending authority for fiscal 1953 and future years, compared with $93,500,000,000 already asked for the current fiscal year and $89,600,000,000 already approved by Congress. Spending authority often is voted for projects that will not be completed—and the cash actually paid out—until several years later.

Division of Spending
Divide spending thus: For military services, $51,163,000,000; international relations and foreign aid, $10,844,000,000; finance, commerce and industry work, $833 million; labor, $248 million; transportation and communication, $1,643,000,000; national resources, including atomic energy, $3,237,000,000; agriculture and research, $624 millions; social security, welfare and health, $2,662,000,000; veterans services and benefits, $4,197,000,000; general government, $1,484,000,000; interest on the federal debt, $6,255,000,000; and reserve for contingencies, $100 million.
