Silverton Ups Dinner Budget

Silverton—The Junior Chamber of Commerce has run the total for the March of Dimes to an all-time high with several affairs yet to be determined. The campaign has been so successful that a town vs. town challenge is being considered.

Jonas Byberg, March of Dimes campaign managing chairman, gave the report from the three civic groups as the Jaycees, $306.50; the Lions club (challenged by the Jaycees), $649.00; and the Rotary club, $1,226.67 making a grand total for the three clubs of $2,182.17.

Yet to be heard from are the miniature iron lungs stationed at stores and public places, the numerous contributions of the lodges, church organizations, auxiliaries, granges, and other groups including the planned Mothers' March by the PTA, Thursday of the coming week and the all-donated armory dance.

The civic clubs staged the block of dimes plans, stunt methods of collecting, street auction of donated materials, auditioned old time orchestra music, and a one-hour band concert, all three days for the week, being fine from the weather standpoint.

The Lions losing will be banquet hosts to the Rotarians, the Lions president, Lowell Paup, announced following the Saturday night release of finals.
