Club Appoints '52 Committees

Stayton — The Stayton Garden club met at the home of Mrs. Rose Bell recently with Mrs. Grace Ditter and Mrs. Bertha McDaniel as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Barbara Avey, president, selected her committees for 1952 as follows:

Year book, Bertha McDaniel; program, Leona Gardner; membership, Amelia Albus; publicity, Lucy Peabody; finance, Abie Bell, Edna Fery, Gertrude Dietrich, Katie Fery, Grace Ditter, Luie Stagner; flower show, Reba Inglis; junior gardeners, Louise Berger; petunia, Marion Cooper; historian, Nettie Downing; courtesy, Marie Freres.

It was voted to give $5 to the local March of Dimes fund.

Speakers for the evening were Mrs. Nellie Stewart, who spoke on bird's tables. She explained that trays should be kept supplied with tasty morsels such as seeds, fruits, nuts, meats and suet. Mary Reynolds speaking on bulbs explained that if any of the bulbs had been misplaced or forgotten, that now was the time to plant them instead of waiting until fall. Mrs. Leona Gardner spoke on the why and wherefore of disease and pest control. "Much can be done right now by cleaning up and spraying with lime sulphur, one part lime sulphur to eight parts of water. Choose a time when it will dry on trees and shrubs," she told them.

Mrs. Reba Inglis made a silhouette arrangement, which was given as a prize to Mrs. Louise Heuberger of Sublimity.

The next meeting will be on Feb. 15 at the home of Mrs. Louis Freres.
