

In The Valley

By MIKE FORBES

Aurora

Carl Buford Miller, veteran of 13 months service in Korea, and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Miller of Aurora, expects his discharge from the first marine division Friday, he telephoned his parents during the week.

While he awaited release from service at El Toro, Calif., his brother, Jackie L. Miller, was sailing Wednesday on the transport Breckenridge from California for the far east. Jackie recently completed technical training with the air force.

Carl Miller returned with other marine veterans in December and spent the holidays with his family. After his discharge he expects to work at logging with his brother, John, in Aurora.

The Canby Lions clubs are continuing their drive for scrap metal started last month. Thus far the clubs have taken in about $100 worth of scrap. Funds raised by the clubs will be used for civic purposes entirely.

County bridge crews this week were moving the old steel railroad bridge across the Molalla river near Mullino and Liberal, to the north end of Clackamas county, where it will span the Sandy river on the Revenue road between Sandy and Bull Run.

Among the sick and injured persons in the Aurora area are Mrs. H. M. Wirth who received a compound fracture of the third finger on her left hand Saturday in a meat chopper accident in her home in Aurora.

Bill Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Anderson, Jr., suffered a fractured right arm Saturday evening when he fell at his home.

Injuries to her back were suffered by Mrs. Paul Gooding Friday in a fall at her home. She is under care of a physician.

Larry Cole suffered a left ankle injury at school and was taken to a Canby physician. Larry is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cole of Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester A. Cole, long-time residents who have been living in Canby, are moving to a trailer house at Clackamas next week, to be near the present operation of Mr. Cole's semi-portable sawmill for the next three months. In the spring they expect to move the operation to Colton.

Elwin Kell, 1950 graduate of Canby high school and son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo H. Kell of Aurora, has received a promotion from the Garret Freight lines, for whom he has been working since November 1950.

Effective during the past week he became O.S.&D. clerk for the Portland office of the company, whose headquarters are at Pocatello, Idaho. The company operates several hundred trucks between Salt Lake City and the Pacific northwest.

At the second in a series of three card parties sponsored by the Aurora Woman's club, awards at 500 went to Mrs. Arthur Kraus, high; Mrs. W. O. Lindquist, low. At Canasta, Mrs. J. J. Emrich was high score winner, Mrs. A. J. Voss, low. A. J. Voss, high and Lorin Giesy, low. Ten tables of 500 were in play. The last party of the series will be Feb. 20. Refreshments were served by the ways and means committee.

At Lone Elder Community hall at 8 p.m. Feb. 14, Clackamas county flax growers will assemble for their annual meeting.

Lvons

Under the direction of Mrs. Earl Allen, chairman, the sewing committee of the Santiam Memorial Hospital Women's auxiliary are cutting garments at the community club house in Lvons. Any one wishing to help should call Mrs. Allen's home in Lvons, Mrs. J. C. Kemmel in Mill City or Mrs. Archie VanNuy in Stayton.

Mrs. R. A. Feenstra was hostess for the Womens Society of Christian Service with a one o'clock dessert luncheon held at the parsonage Tuesday afternoon, followed by the business meeting presided over by Mrs. Alice Huber, with Mrs. George Huffman acting secretary due to the absence of Mrs. Glen Julland. Plans were made to hold a tamale sale at the community hall Thursday evening, Feb. 21, with Mrs. Albert Julland appointed chairman.

Mrs. Loren Chamberlain was honored on her 72nd birthday anniversary. Her niece, Mrs. Ramie Martell presented her with a birthday cake. Those helping Mrs. Chamberlain enjoy cake and coffee at the close of the meeting were her husband, Loren Chamberlain, Mesdames Burt Smith, George Huffman, Ed Hargreaves, Virgil Rogers, Willard Hartnell, Alex Bodeker, Ramie Martell, Ernest Garsjo, Willard Chamberlain, Monroe Walker, Joe Zimmerman, Ivan Smith, Charles Cruson, Chester Roy, Donald McWhirk, Mrs. Inez Ring, Mrs. Alice Huber, Rev. and Mrs. Feenstra.

Mrs. Clyde Bressler, local chairman for the March of Dimes, reports $135 sent to the Linn county chairman in Albany. The community cake walk held at the Rebe kah hall netted $102.85, $15.33 in the iron lung bank at the Mari-Linn school, and the rest from the March of Dimes march at the Methodist Sunday school and Santiam Valley grange, and banks placed in the business houses in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Brassfield received word Wednesday of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Bess Anderson, at Sioux City, Ia. The Brassfields left for that city Friday morning.

Mrs. Orville Downing was hostess to the Wednesday afternoon card club, with her party held at the Hebe kah hall. Several tables of 500 followed a 1:30 o'clock dessert luncheon. Mrs. Albert Bass held the high score. Mrs. Pat Lyons second high, Mrs. Kenneth Helemn low and Mrs. Earl Helemn drew the traveling prize.

Present for the party were the Mesdames Herman Free, Bob Free, John Kunkle, John Worden, Chester Roy, George Huffman, Floyd Bassett, Arthur Olmstead, Earl Allen, Bob Carleton, Earl Helemn, Kenneth Helemn, Pat Lyons, Albert Bass and the hostess, Mrs. Downing.

Visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards, Sr., are John Edwards, Jr., from Fort Lewis with his wife, Mrs. Edwards and son, Eldon and twin daughters, June and Jean, from Bremerton, Wash. They will also visit at the home of his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Edwards. John has received his overseas orders.

The St. Patrick Altar society held a bingo party at the Rebe kah hall Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. George Robinette, who have been living at the Apple Tree court in Fox Valley, have moved into the Forest Nydegger house recently vacated by their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Hunt, when he was called into the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Nydegger and daughters had as their guest Miss Lavette Powelson from Stanfield, Ore.

Paul Gerath underwent surgery Wednesday morning at the Salem Memorial hospital. Gerath is an employee at the Detroit dam.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Julland and son, Glen, Jr., left Wednesday morning for San Bernardino, Calif. They expect to be gone about ten days. They will also visit other places while in the south.

Gervais

The February meeting of St. Rita's Altar society was held last week. Thirty-six members and Pastor Rev. George Sniderhorn were in attendance. First order of business was election of officers which resulted in reelection of all the present officers: Mrs. Fred Manning, president; Mrs. A. DeJardin, vice-president; Mrs. Martin Seifer, secretary-treasurer. Hereafter the first Sunday of each month will be communion Sunday for all members and the mass will be offered for their intention.

Lunch was served by Mrs. G. Berning, Mrs. P. Schleeter and Mrs. Tillie Elliott.

The March meeting will be the regular second Wednesday with 1:00 o'clock light lunch during the Lenten season. Mrs. H. E. Nibler, Mrs. C. Phillips and Miss Marie Mangold will be hostesses.

Mrs. Henry Steger and daughter's honored Mr. Steger on his birthday, Thursday, Feb. 7, at dinner. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ramsey and two small sons, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Manning and the hostesses.

Mrs. Steger entertained again Saturday when Mrs. Tom Reiling of Woodburn and Mrs. Fred Manning were her guests at 12:30 luncheon.

A Variety Supper is being sponsored by Sacred Heart Mothers club, Wednesday Feb. 13, beginning at 5:30 p.m. Fish pond, games and a cooked food booth, will follow the supper.

Birthday Celebrated By Turner Resident
Turner—Relatives gathered at the Charles Bear home Saturday to celebrate his 83rd birthday which was Feb. 10.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bear Charlene and Tresa of Salem; a daughter, Mrs. Hazel Stewart, Astoria; a brother, Frank Bear of Tangent and a son, Earl Bear.

Mrs. Henry Bener and Mrs. Bear were hostesses.

HOLLYWOOD
"Your Friendly Theater"
STARTS TODAY — OPEN 6:45
An American in Paris
Technicolor
TO THE MUSIC OF GEORGE GERSHWIN
GENE KELLY
Introducing LESLIE CARON
Dancer LEVATY — George GUESTART
Plus a Special Featurette "DESERT NOMADS"

Hubbard

Hubbard—The annual Children's Farm Home Benefit Tea will be held at the Pythian hall in Hubbard, Thursday afternoon, Feb. 14, 2 p.m. Sponsored by the Hubbard Woman's club. All proceeds from the silver tea are sent to the Farm Home at Corvallis. The project is an annual affair and will present a film and music for the program, followed by the serving of "tea". The public is invited to attend.

The Firemen's Auxiliary of the Hubbard Volunteer firemen met last week and completed plans for the annual Valentine Dance which was held Saturday evening in the City hall. Miss Louise Vonderhe was kept on the condolence committee.

Mrs. Wilma Seeley and Mrs. Henry Lucht were hostesses for the evening.

Mt. Angel

Mt. Angel—The St. Ann's society sponsored card party drew a large crowd last week in the St. Mary's auditorium followed by lunch in the dining hall. Another social will be held to which the public is invited, Wednesday evening Feb. 20.

Winners included Miss Elizabeth Unger at Canasta; Cleo Mammie and Ben Zitzelberger for "500"; Alois Keber and Mrs. J. A. Kaiser in bridge; Joseph Faulhaber and William Annen, pinochle.

Others receiving awards were Mrs. David Shepherd and Mrs. Otto Schlottma for special and Tony Kraemer, Mrs. Al Fisher, Mrs. Otto Wellman, Ivo Bauman, Louis Rogens, and John Nag.

Hostesses were Mrs. O. J. Williams, chairman and the Mesdames R. J. Welton, Emil Zach, Edward Zach, Ben Zitzelberger, Lawrence Zeis, Arnold Zoller, Ben Ackerman, Sebastian Aicher, Gordon Aman, Frank Amgarten, Henry Annen, George Andres, R. O. Appleby, J. T. Bauman, and Ivo Bauman.

Mrs. David Travis presented 13 of her pupils in a piano recital Sunday afternoon at her home with the parents as special guests. A tea was held after the program.

Piano selection were given by Dorothy Baumgartner, Eleanor Fisher, Mary Lou Schmalz, Kathleen Butsch, Mary Ann Eber, Sherry Sweeton, Sandra Prosser, Joan Fisher, Loreen Ertell, Jerome Wolf, Sheila Sweeton and Arlene Schmitz.

The Misses Anita Wilde and Ruth Wilde were guests on the program, playing several accordion selections at a pot-luck supper party for the Southern Pacific club in Salem on Saturday evening. They were accompanied by their mother, Mrs. A. T. Wilde of Mt. Angel.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Zach and family of Juneau, Alaska, are moving to Mt. Angel, having purchased a farm near the McKee district. Mrs. Zach is the former Mary Ellen Washburn of Woodburn. Zach for many years with the Forestry, Civil Service in Alaska, has retired to undertake farming.

Mrs. John Clees was taken to a Portland hospital last week, for another operation on an eye. She submitted to an operation on the other eye nearly two months ago. Mrs. Clees is making fine recovery and will remain at Joan of Arc Home while undergoing treatments for the next two weeks, after which she will go to Seattle to stay temporarily with her daughter, Mrs. M. Sims.

Roberts

Mrs. Herbert Miller, Mrs. A. G. Cater and Mrs. Keith Austin were hostesses to members of the G. T. club Thursday at the home of Mrs. Miller.

During the business meeting at which Mrs. Louis D. Johnston presided, it was voted to discontinue the all-day meetings for the present, also the sewing project after finishing what is started.

A laprobe for the Veterans hospital was nearly completed and two scrapbooks for the Crippled Children's hospital. A letter from Fairview home

At...
Nick's Inn
It's Your Last Chance
To Hear...
Eddie Lawrence
TWO FLOOR SHOWS
NIGHTLY
Tue., Wed., Thurs.
This Week

PIX Woodburn
Oregon
NOW SHOWING
"Virginia City"

was read, thanking the club for the box of toys sent at Christmas.

It was reported that Glenn Bidgood was in the hospital for an emergency appendectomy, also the illness of Mrs. John Orsborn and Mrs. Frank Sollenberger.

Mrs. S. L. Davenport received the special prize. The club made plans to entertain husbands at the Grange hall March 6. A potluck supper will be served at 6:30 and members were asked to bring a dessert and a hot dish or salad. Several of the group will bring rolls.

Mrs. S. L. Davenport was appointed chairman of the dining room committee and Mrs. A. F. Thompson chairman of the entertainment committee.

Guests for the day were Mrs. Joseph Felton and Mrs. Oliver Holcomb.

The Farmers' Union met at the school house Tuesday evening. A reply to the letter sent to the congressmen opposing universal military training was read and discussed.

A box supper was planned for the March meeting, each member to invite a friend and bring a box with lunch for two. The proceeds will go to the national budget fund. Special entertainment is being planned for the evening.

Rickreall

Rickreall—Mrs. Emma Rowell, the postmaster at Rickreall will retire from her duties February 29 and the new man will be taken over. Kenneth Farrens has been appointed to succeed Mrs. Rowell.

William Rowell was appointed postmaster in 1928, and his wife the present postmaster, was his assistant, until he died in 1942. Mrs. Rowell was then appointed to the position and has been assisted with the work by her daughter, Mrs. King, as well as by her sister, Mrs. Belknap.

No one can hold a public position like Mrs. Rowell has and not be missed on their retirement. She has been most helpful in every line of duty and assisted the patrons of the office all she could.

The Home Economic club of the Grange held its regular business meeting last Thursday. The ladies have been planning on doing some painting in the dining room but decided to postpone the work until they are not quite so busy. Final plans were made for the serving of the lunch for the Polk Co. Farmers Union Co-op Oil Association Tuesday, Feb. 12.

The regular Grange business meeting was held Friday evening. The secretary reported the dues for the year are coming in nicely and he has hopes of them all being paid before the last of March. Mr. Coone, one of the members who has been in Montana for some time, was present and told of some of the large farms in that section of the country. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan of the Russellville Grange were visitors for the evening. The Morgans were on their way home from Corvallis.

The family of the Aga Khan, Moslem leader, claim descent from Fatima, daughter of the prophet Mohammed.

The family of the Aga Khan, Moslem leader, claim descent from Fatima, daughter of the prophet Mohammed.

The family of the Aga Khan, Moslem leader, claim descent from Fatima, daughter of the prophet Mohammed.

The family of the Aga Khan, Moslem leader, claim descent from Fatima, daughter of the prophet Mohammed.

ELSINORE
3-5700
Open at 6:45
The portrayal—the cast—the drama of the year!
JANE WYMAN
—In—
"THE BLUE VEIL"

CAPITOL
4-1010
Continuous Daily!
Walter Pidgeon
Audrey Totter
John Hodiak in
"THE SELL-OUT"
—And!—
Kirby Grant in
"YUKON MANHUNT"

GRAND
4-1010
Continuous Daily!
Van Johnson
June Allyson in
"TOO YOUNG TO KISS"
—And!—
"SATURDAY'S HERO"

STATE
4-1010
Open at 6:45
Judy Holliday in
"BORN YESTERDAY"
—And!—
Robert Taylor in
"AMBUSH"

Dallas

Dallas — The March of Dimes campaign has received some $1800 in the Dallas area and an additional $400 in receipts has been reported from the dance last Saturday night at the Dallas armory. Reports are not as yet available from the rest of the county.

The Dallas auxiliary to the V. F. W. met Wednesday evening and discussed plans for the annual homecoming on Feb. 20, when all members of the post and auxiliary will hold a joint meeting. The auxiliary was organized in 1936. Election of officers will take place at the March meeting.

Melvin Murphy of Portland, executive director of the Oregon Mental Health association, was speaker at the February meeting of the Dallas Woman's club Tuesday afternoon. He told of the work being done in the various communities throughout Oregon, and mentioned that the child guidance clinic at Monmouth was one of four such in the entire state. A boys' quarter from the Dallas high school presented several vocal numbers. The club will assist with the Red Cross fund drive, also the Easter seal drive. In March, the annual luncheon honoring past club presidents will be held, with Mrs. Mars Slack as general chairman.

Dr. Roben Maaske, president of Oregon College of Education at Monmouth, was speaker at the weekly luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce Friday noon. He was accompanied by some 12 faculty members.

The Teen Town groups have added several new members to its governing body. The junior high group have elected Lyman Wax and Elaine Eads, and the senior high have added Marvin Wiedman, Chet Daniels, Janet Lundy and Gwen Hutchins. The senior group meets every Saturday night and the juniors the first and third Fridays.

The Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Al Burlebach with Mrs. Claude Beebe as co-hostess. Mrs. Lynn McCulley will present the program on the "American Negro".

Circle A will meet Feb. 15 at 2 p.m., with Mrs. Charles

Cochrane as hostess. Rev. Earl W. Benbow, minister of the Presbyterian church, will attend the Willamette Presbyterian at Nelscott, February 12 and 13. Elder Norman Baker will represent the church, with Elder Max McGlasson as alternate.

The men's brotherhood of the Methodist church will entertain members of the Dallas fire department at a 6:30 p.m. dinner on Wednesday, Feb. 13. This is in appreciation for prompt and effective service when fire occurred in the church basement on a Sunday morning several weeks ago.

Past commanders of Carl B. Fenton post, American Legion, were honored with a dinner and entertainment Thursday evening at the Pythian hall. Simultaneously the auxiliary honored past presidents with a no-host dinner at the Chamber of Commerce.

The Past Chiefs' club of the Pythian Sisters were guests of Mrs. C. P. Helgeson for cards on Monday evening, and officers were elected with Mrs. Nancy Starr, president; Mrs. Florence Hunter, vice president, and Mrs. Helgeson, secretary-treasurer.

Improvements at the Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baker farm residence include enclosing the front porch, 8 by 8 feet, with glass and building an enclosed back porch, 14 by 18 feet. Cement floors are in each. A fruit cupboard is in the back porch. A small shelter has been built over the well and electric pump.

The former fruit house has been moved from back of the house to the front of the garage and will be used to store gasoline and oil in.

Unionvale

Improvements at the Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baker farm residence include enclosing the front porch, 8 by 8 feet, with glass and building an enclosed back porch, 14 by 18 feet. Cement floors are in each. A fruit cupboard is in the back porch. A small shelter has been built over the well and electric pump.

The former fruit house has been moved from back of the house to the front of the garage and will be used to store gasoline and oil in.

TONITE & THURS.
Willamette University
Players Present

"Papa Is All"

WALLER HALL
8:15 P. M.
Adm. 50c

Gates

Gates—The Gates Parent-Teacher Association met in the auditorium of the high school for the February meeting, Thursday evening.

The president, Mrs. Verner Evans presided. The chair appointed Mrs. Cecil Haun, Mrs. Edward Chance and Mrs. Joe Joaquin to serve as nominating committee to report at the March meeting, when election of officers will be held.

Mrs. James Turnbull and Miss Alberta Shoemaker of Salem were introduced and showed three films on cancer. Mrs. Turnbull, educational director of the American Cancer Society for Marion Co. gave a talk on cancer. Miss Shoemaker also spoke briefly at the close of the program.

Refreshments were served in the recreation rooms by the hostesses, Mrs. Edward Chance, Mrs. James Carter, Mrs. A. T. Barnhardt, Mrs. Harry Evans, Mrs. Mary Champ and Mrs. Weldon Brown.

The following members of the Christian Endeavor Society for Youth and their sponsors for the Gates area, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Haun, attended a roller skating party in Lebanon recently. Earl Hennes, Barbara Haun, Eida Webster, Wilmer Crites, Louise Haun, Maxine Schoeder, Herbert Romey, Verma Schmuetezy, Bob Lee, Joan Ryal, Patty Stewart, Viva Lee, Jerry Larson, Phillip Hayward and Howard Schroll. A stork shower complimenting Mrs. Gerald Garrison was held in the recreation rooms of the high school. Mrs. Glen Hennes, Mrs. Burrell Cole, Merle Devine, Mrs. Clarence Rush, Mrs. George Melke and Mrs. Joe Joaquin were hostesses for the affair. Mrs. Don Milley gave several selections at the piano. Refreshments were served by the hostesses to the honored guest, Mrs. Garrison and Mesdames W. E. Hudson of Salem W. S. Hudson, Kenneth Martig, W. R. Hutcheson, Clarence Johnson, Robert Levon, Dan Morrison, Don Milley, George Arthurs, Oscar Osterhout, Jesse Moses, Ray Lord, Harry Keiser, Laura Joaquin, Clare Hennes, Don Gessner, Glen Hearing, Earl Dozier, Clyde Oliver, Floyd Volkel, Lee Kuhlman, Oswald Hierte, Robert Oliver, Mary Egglestrom, Eugene Warren, Norman Garrison, Albert Millsap and Miss Lorena Devine.

Sending gifts were Mrs. Jesse Haywood, Mrs. A. T. Barnhardt, Mrs. Cecil Haun and Barbara, Mrs. David Barnhardt, Mrs. Arthur Findley, Mrs. George Vettelo, Mrs. Walter Brisbin, Mrs. Lester Maso, Mrs. Bob Bonitz, Mrs. Elmer Stewart and Patty, and Mrs. May Ettlin.

Sending gifts were Mrs. Jesse Haywood, Mrs. A. T. Barnhardt, Mrs. Cecil Haun and Barbara, Mrs. David Barnhardt, Mrs. Arthur Findley, Mrs. George Vettelo, Mrs. Walter Brisbin, Mrs. Lester Maso, Mrs. Bob Bonitz, Mrs. Elmer Stewart and Patty, and Mrs. May Ettlin.

Sending gifts were Mrs. Jesse Haywood, Mrs. A. T. Barnhardt, Mrs. Cecil Haun and Barbara, Mrs. David Barnhardt, Mrs. Arthur Findley, Mrs. George Vettelo, Mrs. Walter Brisbin, Mrs. Lester Maso, Mrs. Bob Bonitz, Mrs. Elmer Stewart and Patty, and Mrs. May Ettlin.

Sending gifts were Mrs. Jesse Haywood, Mrs. A. T. Barnhardt, Mrs. Cecil Haun and Barbara, Mrs. David Barnhardt, Mrs. Arthur Findley, Mrs. George Vettelo, Mrs. Walter Brisbin, Mrs. Lester Maso, Mrs. Bob Bonitz, Mrs. Elmer Stewart and Patty, and Mrs. May Ettlin.

Sending gifts were Mrs. Jesse Haywood, Mrs. A. T. Barnhardt, Mrs. Cecil Haun and Barbara, Mrs. David Barnhardt, Mrs. Arthur Findley, Mrs. George Vettelo, Mrs. Walter Brisbin, Mrs. Lester Maso, Mrs. Bob Bonitz, Mrs. Elmer Stewart and Patty, and Mrs. May Ettlin.

FLOOR SHOW TONIGHT
EAGLES LODGE
Members and Guests

VALENTINE DANCE
WEDNESDAY
74c
MODERN and OLD TIME
Crystal Gardens
FREE CANDY

155 N. Liberty Montgomery Ward Phone 3-3191

LINOLEUM OVERSTOCK SALE

50% OFF ON FELT BASE FLOOR COVERING
REG. 89c •
6 ft. 44c Sq. Yd.

Many attractive patterns available in a wide variety of colors. Popular geometric pattern included in this group. Floral and marble also.

ENAMELED FLOOR COVERING
REG. 89c
9 Ft. 59c Sq. Yd.

Available in many floral designs. Backgrounds of gray, green and brown.

12 FOOT WIDTH—REG. 95c
12 Ft. 69c Sq. Yd.
Red tile, black and red tile, and geometric designs

REG. $2.69 INLAID LINOLEUM
$1.88 Sq. Yd.
Striped patterns of blue with white, red with white, gray with red, and tan with green. Also red and gray blocked design.

REMNANTS UP TO 50% OFF
OPEN 9:30 A.M. TO 5:30 P.M. . . . FRIDAY 'TIL 9:00 P.M.