Mt. Angel Blood Donors Nearly Double Quota Asked

Mt. Angel—Mt. Angel went over the top with Blood Bank donations when 152 pints were taken Tuesday instead of the quota of 77 asked. One hundred seventy volunteer donors presented themselves to give a pint of blood; of these 16 were rejects and two unsuccessful.

Aurora Women To Fete Leader

Aurora—The Aurora Women's club will host March 5 to Mrs. Hildred M. Zell of Wasco, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs. Members of the Woodburn, Hubbard and Oregon City clubs have been invited to attend the meeting.

Mrs. Zell is expected to tell of her European trip last summer in company with other prominent club women of the United States. She has long been active in philanthropic and educational work in the state.

Mrs. John Todd program chairman is in charge of extensive arrangements for the Aurora club's reception of the state president.

During the club's regular session a resolution was adopted favoring the recommendations of the Hoover committee plan for federal government reorganization.

Unionvale

Mrs. Orick Busick of Unionvale has been in the McMinnville hospital since Thursday with pneumonia. She is recovering satisfactorily and expects to be home soon.

Silverton

Local relatives attending funeral services at Vancouver, Wash., Monday for Mrs. Agnes Gregerson, included Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Larsen, Miss Bessie Gregerson, Mrs. Elmer Thompson, Oscar and Harold Gregerson, nieces and nephews of the deceased, and also Mrs. Christ Owre, a sister-in-law of Mrs. Gregerson, living at Hubbard.

Mrs. Gregerson, 60, who died Saturday at a Vancouver hospital, was born in Banks, Oregon. Her only immediate survivor is her husband, Henry Gregerson, a merchant of Vancouver, formerly of Portland and Olympia. Mrs. Gregerson had been ill for two weeks.

Among those making the trip to Bend for the week-end bowling tournament were Gus Herr, Mr. and Mrs. Rolfe Benton and son Wade, the Misses Muriel and Elsie Benton, all of Silverton, and an aunt of the Bentons, Mrs. Claude Glenn of Salem.

The group were house guests in Bend of other aunts, the Ralph Yeastons and the Fritz Wellers.

The visitors reported the highways over the Santiam Pass dan-

Dog Poisoners Strike Lebanon

Lebanon—The use of strychnine to poison dogs has been reported in the north section of the city. Latest victims were reported by Mrs. John Lundberg, who reported two pets belonging to her parents poisoned Sunday while the owners were at the coast.

The dogs were freed for about an hour, when they both returned home in great agony. Both were taken to the animal clinic, where one died. The smaller, a Pekinese, was saved. A number of dogs in the north Second street area have been reported stricken, amounts of strychnine used in each case being heavy.
